MORNING CALL ON THE EXCHANGE

Market Active and in Better Shape Than the Day Previous.

DEMAND FOR JOE BOWERS.

The Stock Causes Excitement Among the Brokers—Advance in Sunshine—Sales of the Call.

The change wrought in the stock market during the last 24 hours is exceedingly gratifying, and when the brokers met for business this morning they found stocks generally active with a good demand for those of a better class. The sales made, reached a total of 53,200 shares, which had a value of $11,877.70. A feature of the call was Joe Bowers which created considerable excitement for a time and was freely dealt in, sales of this stock reaching 24,000 shares.

Ajax was the first stock to do business, 200 shares going at $1.25 a share. Chloride Point followed at a dollar, after which Daly was taken at $1.25 and Dexter handed out a board lot at $2.44. In Eagle there was trading at 7 cents, while Four Aces maintained its strength of the day before and sold at 25 cents, to be followed by lively business in Lower Mammoth at declining figures, the stock starting at 59 and dragging at the closing to 54. Northwest Light continued active around 65, while Sunshine made a sudden spurt to 57 and closed with this figure bid as against offerings at 58. Star Consolidated was taken at $1.13, while good figures were noted for Golden Chariot Extension, Omaha, Swansea, South Swansea and Showers Con., on their first appearance as stocks of the higher order.

Boston De La Mar sold at 1½ and 1¾, while Crown Point was weak and went between 2 and 1, and Dalton found takers at 1½ and 1¾. At the point Joe Bowers was reached, the stock receiving undivided attention for full 15 minutes. The finger caused sales of 24,000 shares, as stated above, sales starting at 15 cents and going down to 14, then advancing and closing at 15½. Dexter Extension sold below 5, while Manhattan was taken at ¾, Richmond-Anaconda at $, Sunbeam at 37 and Valeo at $1.25.

The closing figures were as follows:
