Constipation.

Demand prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They cleanse the Liver and After-dinner pill, and every where endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. L. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Lehighville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an Effective Remedy for constipation and indigestion, and are never without them in the house."—Moses Greiner, Lowell, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for liver troubles and indigestion, during many years, and have always found them prompt and efficient."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such a chronic form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 30 Middle St., Hartford, Conn.

"Having been troubled with constipation, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say they have effected a permanent cure, and I am better than any other medicine. I attribute to this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel T. Jones, Oak St., Boston, Mass.

CONFERENCE IN TENNESSEE.

Elders Appointed to New Fields—Those Released.

DANVILLE, Houston Co., Tenn., Oct. 12, 1888.

Editor Dear Sir:

The Elders of the West Tennessee Conference met at this place Saturday and Sunday Oct. 8th and 9th, at the house of Brother Zachariah Evans, who lives near Danville, Houston County, Tennessee. Until the recent developments in Crockett County, an account of which the Saints have already received through the columns of the Evening News, had been decided to hold our conference in that vicinity; but owing to the straits and excitement occasioned by that shameful occurrence, it was deemed prudent to change the place of meeting. To conform to this decision, an old field in another county was purchased, and the northwestern strip of Houston and the southwestern section of Stewart counties, an extensive coal-mining district of 50,000 acres, owned by the La Grange Furman Company. As a consequence, the immediate neighborhood is sparsely settled.

There was not enough interest manifested to justify the holding of public meetings, so the time was appropriated by holding: Priesthood and council meetings in the morning and afternoon of both days. Though not from selfish motives, the Elders present highly appreciated the opportunities presented of getting counsel and instruction by way of change.

THOSE WHO WERE PRESENT.

besides Wm. Spry, president of the mission and Elder S. W. Price, president of the conference, the following traveling Elders: A. L. Fuller of Mill Creek, S. S. Worthington of Grapeland, A. Shipp of Salt Lake City; James H. Douglas of Joliet; Thomas Hoyt of South Jordan; S. S. Worthington of Grapeland; and B. J. Roberts of Kanab.

Not to the joyous pleasure we anticipate when we shall meet with the loved ones at home, after filling missions in the world, the happy realization of a meeting with our brethren in the cause of truth in a conference especially only those who have had the blessed privilege of participating in the pleasures of a "conference by the word" can fully appreciate and follow as through the line of rejoicing which experience. The opportunity of feeling a communion of spirit and a brotherly love welling up in our hearts that is indescribable. Truly we "love the brethren." Not a vain show of the imagination, but in very truth.

In the words of the song, (changed to suit the occasion) the brethren, with one accord, could sing:

How swift the months have passed away,
And Elders from their fields have come,
To swell the joyous throng.

It not being customary to give the minutes of the Priesthood meetings, only a BRIEF OUTLINE of the proceedings will be offered. The first day's meetings were taken up in hearing a general report from all the Elders present as to their feelings and desires; whether or not they wished to continue their labors. All expressed their willingness to continue, and said they had been built up in the faith, and their testimonies increased and strengthened. All testified to the fact that they had been blessed, and that the Lord had provided for their wants and necessities by raising up friends according to the promise. The testimonies of the Elders were of a most encouraging nature, and having done the will of the Lord.

A succinct account and interesting description was then given of the several fields of labor throughout the conference. Elder D. H. Douglas, of Houston County, Tenn., was the first to give a report. Several baptisms were reported, and the Lord was glorified in a city and two of a family. Some few honest-hearted people were investigating for the love of truth, showing they are desirous of walking therein.

In the afternoon President Spry addressed the conference, and his instructions were listened to with marked attention and absorbing interest. His words were of a most encouraging nature, and he proved of incalculable value to the Elders themselves, and to those with whom they come in contact, if they remember to make their application practical.

On Sunday morning, October 9th, President Wright told of the changes that had been contemplated and made. The Elders who had been traveling in old fields for the purpose of releasing the brethren from their skirts and left the people without excuse. They were appointed to labor in new fields in other counties. Elders Worthington and Roberts will open up the southern portion of Mississippi; Elders D. H. Douglas and Hoyt will labor in northeastern Arkansas; Elders M. B. and A. Shipp will open up southwestern Kentucky.

Elders Charles S. Wright and A. L. Fuller, having been released to return home with the November company of Saints, Elder James H. Douglas was chosen president, and Elder Richard A. Shipp was chosen clerk, to fill the vacancies in the conference, occasioned by their release.

In the afternoon President Spry gave us some good suggestions and advice, and he was most encouraging in his opening up new fields. The Saints and Elders did all in their power to make the Elders comfortable.

Our last good byes are said with a tinge of sadness in the tone. As a general hand shaking in the West, the look speaks the inward thought. All the Elders said kind regards and wish to restore their original number of acquaintances.

RICHARD A. SHIPP, Clerk of Conference.

Some few honest-hearted people were investigating for the love of truth, showing they are desirous of walking therein.

In the afternoon President Spry addressed the conference, and his instructions were listened to with marked attention and absorbing interest. His words were of a most encouraging nature, and he proved of incalculable value to the Elders themselves, and to those with whom they come in contact, if they remember to make their application practical.

On Sunday morning, October 9th, President Wright told of the changes that had been contemplated and made. The Elders who had been traveling in old fields for the purpose of releasing the brethren from their skirts and left the people without excuse. They were appointed to labor in new fields in other counties. Elders Worthington and Roberts will open up the southern portion of Mississippi; Elders D. H. Douglas and Hoyt will labor in northeastern Arkansas; Elders M. B. and A. Shipp will open up southwestern Kentucky.

Elders Charles S. Wright and A. L. Fuller, having been released to return home with the November company of Saints, Elder James H. Douglas was chosen president, and Elder Richard A. Shipp was chosen clerk, to fill the vacancies in the conference, occasioned by their release.

In the afternoon President Spry gave us some good suggestions and advice, and he was most encouraging in his opening up new fields. The Saints and Elders did all in their power to make the Elders comfortable.

Our last good byes are said with a tinge of sadness in the tone. As a general hand shaking in the West, the look speaks the inward thought. All the Elders said kind regards and wish to restore their original number of acquaintances.

RICHARD A. SHIPP, Clerk of Conference.

CONFERENCE IN TENNESSEE.

Elders Appointed to New Fields—Those Released.

DANVILLE, Houston Co., Tenn., Oct. 12, 1888.

Editor Dear Sir:

The Elders of the West Tennessee Conference met at this place Saturday and Sunday Oct. 8th and 9th, at the house of Brother Zachariah Evans, who lives near Danville, Houston County, Tennessee. Until the recent developments in Crockett County, an account of which the Saints have already received through the columns of the Evening News, had been decided to hold our conference in that vicinity; but owing to the straits and excitement occasioned by that shameful occurrence, it was deemed prudent to change the place of meeting. To conform to this decision, an old field in another county was purchased, and the northwestern strip of Houston and the southwestern section of Stewart counties, an extensive coal-mining district of 50,000 acres, owned by the La Grange Furman Company. As a consequence, the immediate neighborhood is sparsely settled.

There was not enough interest manifested to justify the holding of public meetings, so the time was appropriated by holding: Priesthood and council meetings in the morning and afternoon of both days. Though not from selfish motives, the Elders present highly appreciated the opportunities presented of getting counsel and instruction by way of change.

THOSE WHO WERE PRESENT.

besides Wm. Spry, president of the mission and Elder S. W. Price, president of the conference, the following traveling Elders: A. L. Fuller of Mill Creek, S. S. Worthington of Grapeland, A. Shipp of Salt Lake City; James H. Douglas of Joliet; Thomas Hoyt of South Jordan; S. S. Worthington of Grapeland; and B. J. Roberts of Kanab.

Not to the joyous pleasure we anticipate when we shall meet with the loved ones at home, after filling missions in the world, the happy realization of a meeting with our brethren in the cause of truth in a conference especially only those who have had the blessed privilege of participating in the pleasures of a "conference by the word" can fully appreciate and follow as through the line of rejoicing which experience. The opportunity of feeling a communion of spirit and a brotherly love welling up in our hearts that is indescribable. Truly we "love the brethren." Not a vain show of the imagination, but in very truth.

In the words of the song, (changed to suit the occasion) the brethren, with one accord, could sing:

How swift the months have passed away,
And Elders from their fields have come,
To swell the joyous throng.

It not being customary to give the minutes of the Priesthood meetings, only a BRIEF OUTLINE of the proceedings will be offered. The first day's meetings were taken up in hearing a general report from all the Elders present as to their feelings and desires; whether or not they wished to continue their labors. All expressed their willingness to continue, and said they had been built up in the faith, and their testimonies increased and strengthened. All testified to the fact that they had been blessed, and that the Lord had provided for their wants and necessities by raising up friends according to the promise. The testimonies of the Elders were of a most encouraging nature, and having done the will of the Lord.

A succinct account and interesting description was then given of the several fields of labor throughout the conference. Elder D. H. Douglas, of Houston County, Tenn., was the first to give a report. Several baptisms were reported, and the Lord was glorified in a city and two of a family. Some few honest-hearted people were investigating for the love of truth, showing they are desirous of walking therein.

In the afternoon President Spry addressed the conference, and his instructions were listened to with marked attention and absorbing interest.
