Ruby Deserved to a Mill Paid.

Friday morning about 7:30 the 10-month-old baby boy of Christian Thomsen, 149 Washington avenue, near the Phoenix mill, was playing near the pump, fell in and was drowned. The little one was pulled out almost immediately, but he never went to life again. Dr. Fisher was called and worked over the child until nearly 2 o'clock, when he was reported dead. This is the second case of drowning in the pump in Brigham within Ogden Standard.

Sister Marshall's Death.

Millennial News: The friends of Sister Elizabeth Marshall will be pained to hear of her decease. On June 2nd last she, in company with her sister, Betsy Pinder, undertook to emigrate to Zion. They sailed on the Anchor line Furnessia, and certainly arrived in Ogden on the 17th, but at 4 o'clock the next morning Sister Marshall passed quietly away. She was 81 years of age. The remains were taken to Lehi and thence to Fairview, where the funeral was held. The arrival of these two sisters in Zion completed the emigration of all the relatives of Bishop Wright's family.

Letter From a Utah Volunteer Enroute to the Philippine Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO'S ROYAL "SEND OFF."

Days Who Thought They Would Not Get Sea Sick Changed Their Minds and Stayed Close to the Railing.

Five hundred and fifty miles from land, July 25.—Our mission has gone down to Angel and we have a chance of writing mail. Will write from Honolulu.

Saturday, July 16.—Well, we are off. The Rio de Janeiro's anchor was lifted this morning at 10:30, and not the slightest of whistles, the usual "good bye," the tugs, the tick and handkerchief waving and lots hurrahing from the people on the wharf, the tugs, and the decks of tugs and steamers, too, are wanting to bid good bye to the 1,000 expeditionary men. San Francisco was wonderfully and generously turned out to bid good bye to the boys from North Dakota and Utah, who were leaving to bid good bye to home, wives, or lovers, or friends. The whole city is dressed in bunting and flags and many of the houses have flags in front of them. Telegraph Hill, the residence and public flags from their windows and gardens, and every one, from the poorest and richest, joined in the big send off.

There is something grand and sweet in the response to the appeals made across the island to Americans of the Pacific coast. The men who have never had drinking that every great heart and life with patriotic fervor and love of country. Men who are on the good side of everything, day and sun, and money and training would give up their lives, if need be, to settle the soldiers who and show his brave nations. San Francisco has the most beautiful women in the world, I think, and I ought to judge from their appearance at the departure of the Utah 1, and the Utah 2 and the Utah 3 and the Utah 4 and the Utah 5 followed on out to the Golden Gate, waving flags and handkerchiefs and, alas, some tears and saying goodbye all the way. Great crowds followed Fort, that regiment, which's cemetery that not half such a crowd leaves than Salt Lake City.

But as far as this ship is concerned the laugh is just and good. We are all in good spirits. The men will get off any time, and we are all in good health and good cheer. Some are sick, but not very sick, and we are all in good shape for the voyage. We are crowded, but not too much so. We are well fed, and we have plenty of room to walk and exercise. The men are going to be good, and we are charged with the health and good order of the Utah sides are good with a number, carrying, Sabbaths and Regular crowd of true souls. Our Will Spencer could lick a dozen of us. All he would have to do would be to pitch "on westward, and he would be another much resistance. Many of the men have gone to their quarters, and the soldiers down under deck where the hatchways stand to form three high and two abreast, is something too sweet to talk about.

But time have wounded and I must to bed. I would add first however, that the passenger list comprises the following:

Brigadier General H. C. Otis and staff of six officers; fifty-seven officers and men of the regular army; Utah Battalion of the First South Dakota volunteer infantry, and 50 recruits for the Fifth Regular artillery. The total list of officers and men is nine hundred and six.

NOD ROBINSON, C. C.

From the Mission Field.

Elder George A. Sanders of Murray, Salt Lake county, returned from Sweden July 3rd, whither he went April 6, 1896. Elder Sanders labored while away in the Stockholm conference, and reports having had a good time among a good people. He was honorably released with a party of Saints and missionaries.

Woodmen's Annual Exercises.

The Woodmen of the World of Utah have their annual exercises in Saltair next Thursday. A splendid program has been prepared. The committee is starting no pains to make this a memorable day in Saltair. Special trains will be provided on the regular schedule, and lots of other attractions will be offered. Among those will be a parade, boating, and the same, one of Salt Lake walk, cake, entertainment, etc. Opera will be dished with part of the program, and much enthusiasm is manifest.
