

given as follows: "Roman Holidays and Festivals," Mrs. A. D. Smith; "Casto the Conqueror, or a Type of Ancient Rome," Miss Ethel Noon.

Postmaster L. O. Lawrence of Spanish Fork spent Friday in Provo, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jex.

State Senator Gardner and wife of Spanish Fork were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Bird Friday.

The Utah Society met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Kate Taylor and discussed the program for the coming year, after which a dainty meal was served and the remainder of the evening passed in social chat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Whitney of Salt Lake City were the guests of honor at a lunch party given in their honor Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. William L. Guest. Automobiles took the party to Fish Lake, where the Chevi awaited to take them and a Saratoga. An elaborate lunch was served and a delightful plunge enjoyed. The following morning the party Messrs. and Mrs. Jessie Knight, R. E. Allen, W. L. Mangan, John Boundy, H. C. Jex, T. A. Soot, C. L. Whitney, Wells Marshall and R. Lee Bird.

Rufus T. light, who for some time past has been identified with the Telluride Power company, left this week for Michigan, where he will study dentistry.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stallings are receiving the congratulations and best wishes of a large circle of friends on their return from their wedding tour, which embraced all the points of interest along the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Stallings will make their home in Provo.

Misses Flo and Clara Bond of Gentle Valley spent a couple of days this week with their aunt, Mrs. J. C. Graham.

Mrs. Ella Kempton and children and Mrs. Sadie Armstrong of Salt Lake are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. William Graham, parents of Mrs. Kempton.

Mrs. and Misses Jessie Knight, William Knight, R. E. Allen and Lester Mangum spent Wednesday in Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Meakin of Salt Lake spent Thursday in Provo shaking hands with their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Graham entertained at a family dinner at their home Sunday. Covers were laid for 20.

Mrs. F. W. Browne is visiting her parents in Denver for a month.

President John Henry Smith spent Sunday with relatives in Provo.

Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris of Salt Lake spent the latter part of the week in Provo. Mrs. Morris will leave shortly for a European trip.

Miss Vera McMurrin and Arthur Harris, both popular young people of our city, were married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday. A family dinner was given in their honor Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Harris will make their future home in Sefton. They take with them the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

The Priscilla club was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. May T. Thomas. Singing, reading and a social time was enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch was served by the charming hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goodman entertained at a family reception Thursday evening in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Sarah, to Eugene Penrudd, which was solemnized Wednesday at Salt Lake in the temple. About 80 guests were present to offer congratulations and best wishes. Many useful presents were received. The rooms were prettily decorated in pink, green and white. The bride was arrayed in a white silk gown. Mr. and Mrs. Penrudd will reside in Provo.

Miss Eva Robison, Fannie Bundey and Ada Hobart were the hostesses at a social gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Robison Thursday evening. Games, music and a merry time generally was enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Judd entertained about 50 of their relatives and friends at their home Wednesday evening, the occasion being the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Rebekah order. After listening to a splendid program the members and their friends partook of a banquet which the ladies had prepared.

The fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Giles was celebrated at their home Tuesday evening. About 35 relatives and friends made merry on the occasion. Games, music and the partaking of an elaborate supper all tended to make a most enjoyable event.

Miss Eva Robison, Fannie Bundey and Ada Hobart were the hostesses at a social gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Robison Thursday evening. Games, music and a merry time generally was enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Judd entertained about 50 of their relatives and friends at their home Wednesday evening, the occasion being the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Rebekah order. After listening to a splendid program the members and their friends partook of a banquet which the ladies had prepared.

City Marshal Church made a trip to Ogallala, his former home, Monday.

James Gately left Wednesday for a visit of a few days in Salt Lake.

The Mothers club will commence the holding of their winter meetings next Monday, the first gathering to be held at the city hall. All members interested in the club work or the new public library are requested to attend the meeting.

Lou Coleman has had as his guest this week his brother, Dave Coleman, of San Francisco.

LEHI.

Mrs. A. J. Evans is visiting her son, William E. Evans of Knightsville, Utah.

Sept. 29th Miss Annie Kirkham, Lehi belle, and Clyde Fox, all married.

Miss Chrissie Faux Russell of Salt Lake is visiting Lehi friends.

Mr. W. W. Southworth is visiting points of interest in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Roberts have sold their home to Charles Edwards of Garland and have moved to Salt Lake.

Mrs. G. L. Stockley is visiting relatives in Tooele.

Mrs. B. Standing is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Royle, Jr., of Knottsburg.

Mr. Fred Worlton of Salt Lake has been visiting Lehi relatives the past week.

Mrs. Jane Vaughn is visiting relatives at Sugar City, Idaho.

Mrs. Don V. and Fred Harwood have gone east after spending the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harwood, the latter to Mexico, Mo., and the former to New York.

James Christensen and wife spent Sunday at Lehi attending a reunion of the Christensen family of that place.

Chase McDonald of Heber and Miss Katie DeLong of Drumm, a small settlement in the western part of the country, were married here last Monday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Maximilian of the Catholic church. The young lady was under age, and her father, D. M. DeVitt, came to this city and gave his consent to the marriage.

Albert Hagen returned to Mammoth Monday after a visit with his family at Salt Lake.

James Christensen and wife spent Sunday at Lehi attending a reunion of the Christensen family of that place.

Chase McDonald of Heber and Miss Katie DeLong of Drumm, a small settlement in the western part of the country, were married here last Monday. The ceremony was performed by Rev.

Father Maximilian of the Catholic church. The young lady was under age, and her father, D. M. DeVitt, came to this city and gave his consent to the marriage.

Miss Olive Stoker is visiting relatives at Huntsville.

Both phones.

Signs that Attract—Hamlin—Paints.

Both phones.

Signs that Attract—Hamlin—Paints.