Thermometer 42 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p. m. to-day. Hazy clouds.

Keen.—The wind came from the north the latter part of yesterday, with a sharpness unwonted of late, causing the people to appreciate such things as cloaks, overcoats, blankets and fuel more than they have done for a few weeks past.

A Good Entertainment.—The concert at the 20th Ward School-house, last evening, passed off excellently, the performances being well rendered, giving satisfaction to a large audience, which nearly filled the building.

Y. M. M. I. A.—All the officers and members of the various Young Men's Mutual Improvement Associations of Salt Lake City and adjacent wards, are requested to meet Friday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Council House. The meeting is for the purpose of effecting a central organization.

Thank giving Day.—To-morrow, Thursday, November 20th, having been set apart, by proclamation of the President of the United States, as a national day of thanksgiving to the Almighty, for his manifold blessings to the people of the Republic, and made specially applicable to the people of this Territory by proclamation of Governor Emery, business will be generally suspended. This being the case, we shall issue no paper to-morrow. Perhaps no people have more genuine cause for gratitude to the Giver of all Good, for His mercies and lovingkindness, than the people of Utah. However, every day should be one of thanksgiving to Almighty God, whose "mercy endureth for ever."

Theatre.—Last evening the company presented the comedy of "As Like as Two Peas" in a manner to secure a large share of applause. They were followed by Miss Mace in several songs. She received two or three encores. Mr. Jen Mace then appeared in his "Grecian Statues," in which he showed himself an adept. Miss Lavarrie followed with songs, some in response to encores. The entertainment concluded with an encounter, in three rounds, with boxing gloves, between Jen Mace and Long Frank.

To-morrow evening will be presented by the company "Uncle Tom's Cabin," with Mr. Harris as "Poppy," Mr. Margetts as "Uncle Tom," and Mr. Graham as "Lawyer Marks."

On Monday the celebrated German military band gives a concert.

Musical Treat.

To-day we received a visit from Mr. W. Borchert, assistant leader of the combined bands of the 70th and 31st Prussian Regiments of Infantry, who will arrive in this city on Sunday evening. This splendid corps of foreign musicians will regale the public of Salt Lake City with a number of concerts, the first of which will be given on Monday evening, at the Theatre, to which they will be escorted, on that night, from the Walker House, by the band of the 14th Infantry, from Camp Douglas.

The fame of those Prussian bandmen comes ahead of them, they having won the highest encomiums not only for their magnificent performances at the Centennial Exposition, but in every part of the country where they have given entertainments. They have been in this country nearly a year on furlough.

Mr. Borchert was accompanied to our office by Captain Lamar, the efficient leader of the 14th Infantry band.

LATEST DISPATCHES.

Thanksgiving Day Reports of Departments.

WASHINGTON, 29.—Public business was generally closed in the Executive Department at noon to-day, when the employees began their thanksgiving holiday. Nearly all the annual reports of the heads of departments are completed and the substance of all of them has been handed to the President for reference during the preparation of the message.

Secretary Morrill has completed the Treasury report, and is now engaged in reading proof and making whatever revision may be necessary.

The Attorney General is preparing his report which will probably be ready to lay before Congress when the President's message is sent in.

Gov. Chamberlain to President Grant.

The President received the following dispatch last night:

"Columbia, S. C., 28.

"His Excellency U. S. Grant, President of the United States.

"House and Senate organized to-day. The democrats on the refusal to admit the members from Edgefield and Laurens counties, withdrew, leaving sixty members in the House, a quorum of all the members chosen; the House then proceeded to business. The Senate organized without delay. General Foster has preserved peace, and acted with perfect impartiality and great good judgment."

"D. H. CHAMBERLAIN, Governor of South Carolina."

The Way It Done.

ST. LOUIS, 29.—In the Metcalfe case, Judge Lindley, this morning, ordered a peremptory mandamus to issue compelling the county clerk to change the returns from precinct number 37 from 292 for Frost to 272 as originally written, and to certify the returns of the third congressional district to the Secretary of State in conformity with this order. This will give Metcalfe a republican majority.

Sheridan Tells His Story.

CHICAGO, 29.—General Sheridan arrived this morning from New Orleans. He states that the stories of intimidation have not been overdrawn, and cannot be. There was, he says, in reality no election in many of the parishes, being merely a blind for frauds, which will clearly be proven. Attempts were made to wreck the train on which he returned on Monday night. Three different plans were laid, but in each case the engineer's vigilance averted the calamity which might have resulted.

South Carolina News.

COLUMBIA, S. C., 29.—The situation is unchanged with the exception that the republican House has been in session all morning, but unable to transact any business on account of absentees, which leave it without a quorum. The Senate is discussing the concurrent resolution passed by the House yesterday to go into the canvass of the returns for Governor and Lieut. Gov. The democratic House went into secret session in Carolina Hall, receiving the report of the committee appointed yesterday to obtain the returns from the Secretary of State for Governor and Lieut. Governor. The committee reported that the secretary had surrendered the returns to Mackey, the Speaker of the republican House.

The military still garrison the State House.

The supreme court met and adjourned without transacting any business, the lawyers being engaged in making returns to the habeas corpus case of the board of canvassers in Judge Bond's United States circuit court.

The sergeant-at-arms of the republican House is engaged in looking up absentees, without success so far.

The Little Colorado Settlements.

SUN SET CROSSING, Yavapai County, November 5, 1876.

Editor Times:

This beautiful Sunday finds your correspondent nearly two hundred miles from home, yet within the borders of Yavapai county, which is probably the largest county in any state or territory of the Union, and being about the size of the State of New York. We are now lying over to rest, after a fatiguing journey of many days, and enjoying the hospitality of the Mormon people, than where a more clever, generous and liberal hearted people cannot be found.

Last month this colony came from Utah and settled on the Little Colorado, and consists of about five hundred men, women and children, under the general direction of Bishop Lot Smith.

There are four settlements, two at this place and two twenty miles northeast from here. The place called Obed. When the Mormons came to this section they found it an uninhabited waste, the soil having but seldom been pressed by the foot of a white man, and the advancing tread of civilization.

They came with the intention of terminating to establish permanent homes in Arizona and utilizing the splendid natural advantages of the country.

They brought with them teams, tools, machinery, provisions and seeds, and at once went to work with energy and have already accomplished wonders. There are no drones in the hive and all workers of each one had an important part to perform.

As a class they are frugal, industrious, hospitable and temperate, and do not indulge in liquors or other useless luxuries. Substantial stone houses have been erected, irrigating ditches built and miles of large ditches dug, to convey water from the river for agricultural purposes, all of which has been accomplished by great labor and under somewhat adverse auspices.

Timber is abundant, and is sold at $10 a thousand, a saw mill having been built and put in operation. Other mills and manufacturing establishments are being put up, and school-houses, churches and mercantile establishments are in contemplation.

The colony is supplied from Salt Lake, and we learn that quite a number have gone for supplies to Utah, and also to bring out their families. Some of the choicest fruit we have eaten since leaving San Bernardino we found at Obed, and was brought from Utah. Bishop Smith told us that he expected their numbers to increase to two thousand by spring. All strangers receive a cordial welcome among them, and they are regarded by outsiders as kind neighbors. We will not soon forget the hospitality we have received in this colony. The climate is now delightful, and it seems that summer is loath to leave the lap of autumn where she still lingers.

We will continue our journey westward to-morrow, carrying with us pleasing remembrances of our visit on the Little Colorado, and our brief sojourn in this section, which is destined at an early day to be as populous and prosperous as any part of Arizona.—E. L. B. G., in San Bernardino Times.

THE SORT OF A WOMAN TO DRINK.—Mrs. Allen, of Calaveras, Cal., lives on the range road between Railroad Flat and West Point, and she dreamed strange dreams. On October 24th her house was entered by robbers. During her absence, and her watch and pocketbook stolen. That night she saw in her dream a thief enter her house, take the watch and follow the trail up the river. In the morning she whistled for her dog, mounted her horse, and followed the trail up stream. A ride of a mile brought her to an old abandoned quartz mill, and in the ruins she discovered the man she had seen in her dream. She accused him of the theft, but he stoutly denied having committed it. She demanded to go to West Point for an officer, but after proceeding a short distance, resolved to make the tramp give up the plunder at all hazards. When she reached the mill the man had gone, but with the aid of the dog she overtook him about half a mile up the ridge. Dismounting and arming herself with a stout club, she coolly informed him that she knew he had the watch and money. She let loose the dog upon him, and dealt him a blow upon the head which fell him to the ground. She found her watch and her wallet in his boots. Mrs. Allen, of Calaveras, then went home to sleep—perchance to dream.—E. L.

Scott's Texas and Pacific Railroad is in operation 443 miles, gross earnings for the last year over $1,500,000, net earnings over $670,000, these results obtained from 325 miles of the road, the other 118 having been but recently finished.

DIED.

At West Jordan, Salt Lake Co., U. T., Nov. 25th, at half past eight o'clock p. m., M. J. GRAHAM, an elderly man, husband of Mary H. Graham, and one remaining child of Hyrum and Maria H. Graham, aged 47 years, eleven months and twenty-eight days.

Graham was a bright little girl, beloved by all who knew her, and had a devoted family, and all persons, both old and young, were united in mourning for her. Her father, as was shown by the large attendance at her funeral, is one of the largest attended funerals ever known in West Jordan.—Coe.

At Brigham City, Nov. 24th, of asthma and inflammation, THOMAS W. BOCH. At.

Deceased, whose home is in Malad, Idaho, formerly resided at Brigham City, in the country of which his wife was buried a few weeks back. He came here to erect a marble house on the grave and remained with a friend, which he accomplished. When doing so he contracted a cold, which, in many of the parishes, being merely a blind for frauds, which will clearly be proven. Attempts were made to wreck the train on which he returned on Monday night. Three different plans were laid, but in each case the engineer's vigilance averted the calamity which might have resulted.

He bore an excellent character among the people. He embraced the gospel and was baptized and arrived in Utah in the year 1852. He leaves one child, a son, and a daughter, who mourn his loss. Yesterday his children, who had been sent for from Malad, and a large number of relatives and friends flocked to his final resting place by the side of his suspension. He was laid to rest, after having been in the city a few days, had, during his stay, at various times plain presentations of death come upon him.—Coe.
