Ate Prominent Tomatoes.—Mrs. Mabel C. Gustafson of this city is seriously ill at Taylorville, from eating prominent tomatoes.

Stock Way Up.—The officials of the Zion's Savings Bank & Trust company are felicitating themselves on the recent quoting of the company's stock at 360.

Month on the Coast.—Secy. J. J. Thomas of the state board of equalization, and daughter, Miss Eva Thomas, left yesterday for a month's absence on the Pacific coast.

Sustained Internal Injuries.—William MacSwain, Jr., aged 13, of Mantia, was brought to Mark's hospital yesterday for treatment for the internal injuries sustained in leaping from a wagon drawn by a runaway team.

Col. Kesler Writes.—Gov. Cutler is in receipt of a letter from A. P. Kesler, colonel and district officer of the N. G. U. giving in detail the journey and doings of Utah's soldiers who are sojourning at Camp Emmett Crawford.

Child Dies Suddenly.—Ruth E. Thomas, aged 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, died suddenly Saturday afternoon, from complications due to scarlet fever. The funeral was held this afternoon, from the F street residence.

Canada Band Interested.—The leader of the Cardston, Can., military band writes to John James for information about the coming Elstedsdott. The first entry in the literary contests has been received from Harrisburg, Pa., a poem on Roosevelt.

Will Sail for Seattle.—Ex-U. S. District Atty. C. S. Varian has gone to Los Angeles, whence he will sail for Seattle in the literary contests.

Slight Sunstroke.—William Leary, elevator conductor of the Sharon building, suffered a slight sunstroke the other day, while resinsing the roof of his house, but is now recovering. Anything approximating sunstroke in this country is unusual.

Baby Girl Arrives.—The family of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Done has been increased by the arrival of a baby girl. The little one made her appearance on Saturday, and reports from the L. D. S. hospital are to the effect that mother and child are doing well.

Burial of John S. Prye.—John S. Prye of Sugar House ward, aged 65, died of senility Friday night, and was buried from the ward meetinghouse yesterday afternoon. Prye had at various times been an inmate of the insane asylum. He lived in the same house for 45 years.

Funeral of Mrs. Simmons.—The funeral of Mrs. Alice A. Simmons, who lived for 22 years in Salt Lake, was held this afternoon, from the Third East street residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. O. Simmons, in the cemetery at Mt. Olivet. The deceased was a native of Rockford, Ill.

Joe's Little Joket.—Joseph Elledge, county clerk, and E. D. R. Thompson, register of the local land office, have gone to Idaho on a geological expedition along the Snake river. Mr. Elledge is having Mr. Thompson along, is certain the party will be able to "land" some big ones.

To Preach in Welsh.—Rev. J. Wynne Jones, pastor of the Memorial church of Baltimore, will preach in Welsh next Sunday evening, in the First Presbyterian church. He is now in California, but is due in this city later in the week. All Welsh people in Salt Lake are invited to attend the service.

Not Decided Yet.—In a letter to Gov. John C. Cutler, Gifford Pinchot of the forestry department, says the matter of determining headquarters for district No. 4 has not yet been settled. Either Salt Lake or Ogden is to get the office, but no choice will be made until after due consideration of required advantages.

Mrs. Hensley Dies Suddenly.—Mrs. June S. Hensley of 1352 Twelfth East street, died suddenly yesterday morning, from heart failure. She was dressing when the summons came, and falling over on the bed, died immediately. The doctor called, and the widow of Job Hensley, and leaves several grown children.

Thinks It Was Scheme.—P. J. Moran has returned from Los Angeles. He thinks the advertising on the part of that city for bids for the proposed new aqueduct was merely a scheme to secure estimates on probable cost, so a comparison might be made with the city engineer's estimates. Mr. Moran believes the city will do the work itself, after all.

Take Part in Proceedings.—Attorney General Breiden has gone to Stockton to participate in the suits being brought against A. G. Daw, Levi Roedel, and W. F. Carson, by the state board of sheep commissioners, to compel them to cease grazing sheep near water used for drinking and culinary purposes from Soldier Creek, which is piped seven miles into Stockton.

Eagles in Flight.—Over 200 members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles left this State yesterday for the Seattle convention, 150 going from this city. The remainder were from Ogden, Hingham, Eureka, Provo, and Park City. At Pocatello the size of the delegation was materially increased. The Salt Lake degree team is determined to win the grand prize. The Salt Lake official delegates are B. J. Sorenson and A. S. Mahan.

Campfire at Fillmore.—Invitations to the third annual campfire of Indian War veterans, department of Millard, have been issued. The function will be held in City Grove, Fillmore, Sept. 1, 2, and 3, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance of veterans and their friends. The card is a very neat one in appearance, and is signed by Virgil Kelly, county commander; Peter Huntman, state commander; J. P. Cropper, adjutant.

SUNDAY SERVICE AT TABERHOLE

Elder Nephi L. Morris Discusses Questions Propounded by The Psalmist.

HAD BEEN ASKED IN ALL AGES

Elder B. F. Grant Gives Impressive Testimony on Divinity of Gospel and Efficacy of Prayer.

Taking as his text Psalm viii, and in particular the verse, "What is man, that Thou art mindful of him? and the son of man that Thou visitest him?" Elder Nephi L. Morris preached an interesting discourse at the tabernacle yesterday afternoon, answering the questions propounded by Israel's singer, from the standpoint of the Latter-day Saints. Elder B. F. Grant followed, with a short and impressive testimony of the divinity of the gospel and the efficacy of prayer.

The services were conducted by President John H. Winder, Elder B. F. Grant and President Joseph F. Smith offered the invocation and closing prayers. The selections rendered by the choir were, "Great God attend while Zion sings," "Through deepening trials through your way," and "Jesus I My Cross Have Taken."

Elder Morris read the eighth Psalm, and taking the verses read as a text, commented in part: The question that Man? has been asked in all ages. The modern idea of the origin of life, from the dust of the earth, is a very different one from the Bible's narrative. It seems a difficult matter for scientists to reconcile man's creations from heavenly materials. Plato's definition of man was that he was a bird without feathers, and a modern definition is that man is a creature of tools. The creation of man from the dust of the earth is in no way different from the creation of every child born into the world. The conditions placed around every man by his Creator were not very favorable, but the child was upon the earth proved to be for his everlasting advancement. By the hand given to man he has been enabled to bring most earthly things under subjection.

The Latter-day Saints believe that men are in very deed children of God, and that they lived before the beginning of their earth life. Before taking upon themselves mortality they lived in the presence of God the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost. They were created in the image of God, and they were given dominion over the earth. They were given the law of Moses, and they were given the promise of eternal life. They were given the promise of eternal life, and they were given the promise of eternal life.

TALES OF THE JORDAN

Ernest Janke Comes Near Losing His Life While Bathing—Were Not Breaking the Law.

Ernest Janke, a youth of 18, who resides near Ninth South and Jordan river, had a narrow escape from drowning in the river a couple of nights ago which will undoubtedly be remembered by him as long as he lives.

He was bathing in company with a number of young men in the vicinity of the Cannon dam at Tenth South when in a joking fashion he stood on the diving board and addressing Collins Janke, the 20-year-old son of the late George Q. Cannon, he said: "If I call for help you will pull me out, won't you?"

Janke, who was in and apparently swam around, as to the manor born. Suddenly he went down and as he came up he yelled "help." He repeated the word several times, but no one heeded him and he was sinking rapidly. He was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although six years old, he can do as much work as a young man. Sold by all druggists.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA CURED.
My father has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail. writes John H. Zirkle of Phillips, W. V. "He says the result is, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedied after taking the Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and decided to try it. The result is, one bottle cured him and he has not suffered from the disease for sixteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer.
