Dubois the United States senator from Idaho. Dubois is twenty years younger than Teller. He is only 45 and does not look to be more than 35. He is a clean-cut, smart-looking fellow, with a round head and a bright black eye. He was born in Illinois and was educated at Yale college. He gets his muscular development from his gymnasium, which he has had years, either at his school room, and daily and the gymnasium he used to spend West in mining. He settled in Idaho and had lively on the name of "Tenderfoot" before he ran for Congress. This was when Idaho was a territory and he had to run for the whole state. He served three terms in congress and spent his time between Washington and his home in Idaho. They were a different brand of Democrats from those who now represent the silver cause in the senate. A few of them were with us in Congress. The other were all silver democrats, whom I served I served them like Japanese either money or the Republicans. They were a different brand of Democrats from those who now represent the silver cause in the senate. They were all silver men and the real colors. It was
