DESERET EVENING NEWS

TO-DAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Local Forecast for Salt Lake City and Vicinity.

Fair and warmer tonight and Friday.

For Utah: (Forecast made at San Francisco.)

Fair and warmer tonight and Friday.

Today's weather report. (Observations taken at 8 p. m. Mountain Time.) Salt Lake City—Barometer, 30.07; temperature, 72; minimum, 46; wind, northwest, 4 miles per hour; weather, clear.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The high barometer has moved rapidly eastward and its crest now lies over Nebraska and Kansas. A low barometer is apparently central over Arizona. It is colder in the Rocky Mountains and Plateau Region than it was yesterday morning. Data has fallen at Calgary, N. Pack., Corpus Christi, Dodge City and Kansas City.

L. H. MURDOCH,
Section Director.

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, (separate and apart from the daily) was, on the last issue,

13,020 Copies

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figures give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed on the first and fifteenth of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

January 1, 1899	10,189
January 15, 1899	10,275
February 1, 1899	10,475
February 15, 1899	10,600
March 1, 1899	10,750
March 15, 1899	11,000
April 1, 1899	11,525
April 15, 1899	11,550
May 1, 1899	11,850
May 15, 1899	12,050
June 1, 1899	12,300
June 15, 1899	12,400
July 4, 1899	12,525
July 15, 1899	12,540
August 1, 1899	12,700
August 15, 1899	12,925
August 18, 1899	13,020

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 59 11-16
LEAD, $4.35
CASTING COPPER 17 cents a lb.

THE NEXT ENCAMPMENT.

The Permanent National encampment of the G. A. R. makes particular arrangements for the article in the News will print next Saturday on the surviving permanent corps commanders of the Union, and who are serving in the Regular Army, a number of more than a third of a century ago. The story is taken from the notes he has left in the fight and who for that very reason is admirably fit to tell the history of the struggle.

The story will be illustrated by a magnificent picture includes portraits of the old Union, in situation, and will that the new Union, in the same book. The feature alone is more than worth the price of the "News" next Saturday, in which issue it will appear.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Thirty-fourth infantry, from Fort Logan, Colo., will probably take Friday Oglethorpe Sunday, en route to the coast.

The Nebraska members who have been quartered with us for a few days will probably pass through Ogden on the Lincoln trip on Saturday afternoon.

Secretary of State Hammond, who has been somewhat indisposed for several days, is recovering his usual health. He has been attending to the duties of his office right along.

Teamsters of the money necessary to give the Colorado volunteers a free dinner have been waited on by the Commercial Club and committees are working for the holiday.

W. G. Carlos went down to Tooele this morning to bring his wife home. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. Carlos, for weeks. As Carlos is reported in another part of today's News.

Large crowds continue to congregate in front of the show window of W. J. Kenyon, on Main street, where the beautiful display of Philippine treasures and souvenirs on exhibition there. The display should be a rather lucrative one.

J. A. Peck of Tooele, Idaho, is in Salt Lake's hospital with a badly crushed foot. He was engaged on a switch gang on the Oregon Short Line, and a car came down the road of a switching crew and, with the result that four toes were crushed.

Paul Castle, the 8-year-old son of Peter Castle, died of ulcer of the ear, in a well, in the way to recovery, he was taking ice properly the time, and he was in bed. It is supposed that the piece of the kick of a horse, and after being so sick jolted out of the place. It was not found in a strong condition. The body is necessary for the surgeon to break the jaw again, and open it.

Isaac Hale Hammond, The child of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Hammond died last at a private south east Nineteenth row. The deceased was born in Salt Lake, aged 3 years and 10 months. The little one was very sick in the hospital, and was taken home to die. It is supposed that the child died from the effects of a fall from the swing at the Lake School. The fall struck over the child's head. The parents were told on Saturday.

Idaho, Idaho, Hammond Hunting has received a letter stating against Utah and Colorado, which brought the Fort's boys. The letter was with Mr. Hammond. It is to hold that our lawyers will not could not advise action in a case like this. The letter is supposed that Mr. Hammond will be a bench to the Utah meeting as an effort made about the Utah and Colorado volunteers to something to do.

An entertainment and dance will be tendered June 1 and September 1, under the auspices of the Knights of Lower Temple Lodge, Knights of Pythias, to Republic and their friends. The dance will be held in the Knights of Pythias Hall, Eighth East and Second South streets. The West side Band Fifth East and First West at half past 8 o'clock.

H. H. Smith, Esq., of the editorial staff of the Salt Lake Herald, arrived in Salt Lake on yesterday afternoon, with their from the first, accompanied by his wife. They made a brief visit to the Temple block and points of interest in the vicinity, and left for the West this evening. They are moving to San Francisco to pass the remaining days of their sojourn.

The condition of James E. Mack, Jr., continues serious. Mack is regarded as a case which is due to a fall from a horse, which he was thrown from his horse and took. Mr. Pat Mack of this city was not the person, as was with Mr. Mack at the time of the accident to Roosevelt. It was a Mack from Huntsville.

The "News" on Friday evening had an article on Mayor H. W. Young, a statement from C. W. Penrose, a statement from Mr. Pratt, and a statement from Mr. Pratt. The Tribune asserted that Mr. Pratt gave it an unmistakable evidence that whatever Mr. Penrose may have said, the Mormon Church stands by the Tribune's charges in its entirety, and will not be found fault with, and will not be found fault with, and will not be found fault with