Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Ten New Knights—The Knights of Columbus will initiate 10 new members next Tuesday evening.

High School Dance—The High school seniors gave a well-attended dance last night in the new gymnasium.

Patriotic Instructor—Capt. Kinsman, of the local Order of the Sons of Veterans, has been appointed patriotic instructor of the Colorado division.

Priest Goes to Ely—The Greek church priest of this city, Rev. Demetriokapoulous, has gone to Ely to look after the spiritual welfare of his fellow countrymen in that neighborhood.

Comes to Salt Lake—Manager J. A. Place of the Ely Furniture company, has resigned, and is in the city to accept a position with the Freed Furniture company. Mrs. Place will visit in California until spring, and then rejoin her husband in Salt Lake.

War on Pompadours—Salt Lake dry goods dealers are interested in learning that the managers of the big Pittsburg stores have declared war on "pompadours," and scores of girls who insisted on wearing their hair in this style have been discharged. It is claimed that too much time is consumed by the girls in caring for this immense mass of hair, to the neglect of their store duties.

Death of Mrs. Courtney—Mrs. J. N. Courtney, for 18 years a resident of this city, but who lately had made her home at Durango, Colo., died Thursday in the latter city. The deceased was an active and worthy member of the First Baptist church here, and had many friends in this city. The announcement of her death came in a dispatch to Rev. D. A. Brown. Mrs. Courtney will be buried in the Colorado town tomorrow.

"Truth About the Congo"—The next lecture in the university course will be given Oct. 23 in the First Congregational church, when Prof. Frederick Starr, of the chair of anthropology of the Chicago university, will deliver his lecture on "The Truth About the Congo." The address will be illustrated from views taken by Prof. Starr on his travels through the Congo, from which country he just recently returned.

Would Unload Warrants—Another attempt to unload Salt Lake warrants on the state land board was made yesterday when S. Birch and M. O'Connor, representing J. P. Kennedy, sewer contractor, appeared before that body to offer another big batch of city warrants for sale at a good premium. Birch has already sold several assortments of the city's paper to the city, but this is the first time that Kennedy has resorted to that means of realizing on the promises to pay.

SOUVENIR SHELLS AT RINK.

While there will be no special attraction at the Auditorium next week in the way of fancy and trick roller skating, there will be something doing Monday evening that should prove an attraction to the ladies. Mrs. O'Mara, wife of Phil S. O'Mara, president of the association, while visiting the Pacific islands during the summer, secured a collection of about 2,600 beautiful shells of different kinds. Mrs. O'Mara has decided to present these shells to lady patrons of the rink on Monday evening as a souvenir.

The Great La Salles will conclude their week's engagement this evening. Manager O'Mara is arranging for a number of speed contests which will probably take place about the middle of the week.

WIDE RANGE IN BIDS.

The board of public works opened three bids for the installation of a pumping plant at Eighth West and Seventh North streets last night. The plant is intended to pump from the newly completed intercepting sewer into the old gravity sewer. There is a wide range of proposal in the bids, which were as follows:

Fairbanks, Morse & Co., $12,958.

Salt Lake Hardware company, $15,325.

Charles C. Moore & Co., $18,2[illegible].

The bids were referred to the city engineer and the board will meet again Monday to consider them.

YOUTHFUL HOLDUPS.

Victor Buckle, 17 Years Old, Arrested For Robbing a Chinaman.

Victor Buckle, aged 17 years, was arrested about 11 o'clock last night on Plum alley at the instance of Ye Hing, a Chinaman who claimed that Buckle and another boy robbed him of $3.

Hing declares that as he was walking through the alley the Buckle boy stopped him, and that a companion of Buckle's came up behind him, held his arms while Buckle searched his pockets and took the money.

The Chinaman emitted a series of shrieks which brought Officers McCormick and Burton to the scene. The Mongolian pointed out Buckle and he was promptly arrested. His companion got away. No money was found on the youthful prisoner.

FUNERAL OF RALPH HORSLEY.

The funeral of the late Ralph Hook Horsley, son of Harry Horsley, was held yesterday afternoon, Oct. 18, at the residence of his brother C. H. Horsley, 224 F street. The services were presided over by Elder A. T. Christensen. The quartet opened by singing "Prayer is the soul's sincere desire," prayer was offered by Elder Rushton of the Twenty-sixth ward. The speakers were Elders Salisbury of the Twenty-sixth ward, Jenkinson, Clem Horsley of Brigham City, cousin of the deceased, Elder Gibbs and A. T. Christensen. The floral offerings filled the rooms and covered the casket. The residence was too small to accommodate the relatives and friends. The grave was dedicated by Elder Clem Horsley of Brigham City.

THOUGHT TO BE WOMAN IN CASE

Claim Made That Young Lady Went to England With Ernest Williams.

LEFT UTAH TEN DAYS AHEAD.

Mining Men Becoming Anxious—Missing Man Said to Have Been "High Roller"—Still in the Dark.

The opinion is growing in Salt Lake that Ernest Williams, the manufacturers' agent and mining man, has gone to England and will not return unless compelled to do so. While no definite charge has been made against him it is claimed that stockholders in the Success Mining company would like very much to have a heart to heart talk with Williams and recover stock in the Colorado Mining company which is claimed to be due in exchange for Success stock.

This is the case with George W. Reed who, some months ago, employed Atty. G. W. Moyer to get what was coming to him from Williams. The efforts of the attorney proved unavailing although he called on Williams several times. The latter promised Moyer on several occasions to look into the claim of Reed and see that justice was done in the matter. Just before leaving the city Williams told Moyer that he was about to start on his Idaho trip and would return in about a week at which time he would straighten out the stock wrangle. Williams shipped his trunks to Pocatello and then disappeared.

A "HIGH ROLLER."

Traveling men who knew Williams, say he was somewhat of a "high roller" when away from Salt Lake and that he spent money with a lavish hand. One friend said he met Williams at a cafe in Ogden where the missing man was entertaining two friends. This man said he joined Williams, his intention being to do his share of the entertaining but he had to retire as the pace set by Williams was a bit too strenuous—likewise expensive. It is believed that Williams' financial condition was not the best of late and that he decided to go to England to avoid trouble in the courts. Some time ago Mr. Reed secured a judgment by default for $8,000 against the Success Mining company and Ernest Williams.

STORY OF WOMAN.

There is another story going the rounds and it is believed by many who knew Williams. It is to the effect that for a long time he has been paying attentions to a young woman residing on East South Temple street. It is reported that the young woman left for Europe about 10 days before the disappearance of Williams, and that the latter has joined her across the big pond.

It is quite certain that Williams was not accompanied east by a woman. This is vouched for by R. J. Evans an ex-Sheriff Turner of Cache county, both of whom traveled with the mining man, one as far as Omaha and the other to Chicago. Mr. Evans said if a Salt Lake woman had been with Williams he, Evans, would certainly have known it.

In the mean time there is a great deal of speculation as to the whereabouts of the man but this point seems to be as much in the dark as ever.

ROBERTS' NEW BOOK.

Another Work from the Pen of the Well Known Writer.

Elder B. H. Roberts has added another work to his already large list of valuable publications. His latest book is entitled, "Defense of the Faith and the Saints," and, as its title implies, the work is a vigorous and able defender of the Mormon people, their doctrine and beliefs.

The new book will be issued in a few days from the press of the Deseret News, and will be on sale at the Deseret News book store. An extended review of the work will appear in our columns later.

SUCCESSFUL PARENTS' MEETING

Franklin School Scene of Important Gathering Last Night.

Parents to the number of 250 gathered in the Franklin school last night to consider plans which will bring the school and the home into closer contact. The meeting was called by Principal Hallock and the response to the invitation assures the movement of success in its ends.

Judge Gowans of the juvenile court spoke to the parents on the duty of a parent to his children as he sees it. He outlined many of the causes which lead children into various delinquencies and also told of many things which could be done to prevent these same ill effects of neglect and wrong instruction.

Supt. D. H. Christensen of the public schools stated in brief terms the relation of the home and the school. He bespoke a more watchful care over children in all lines. Their progress and their backwardness should both be watched, he said. He spoke for the cooperation of parents with the work of the juvenile court. The court, he declared, is not a court at all, for a court signifies a place where criminals are held to answer for wrongdoing. This is not the case with the juvenile court, he said, for the court is a place where advice and guidance is given and where children are started on the right track after an unfortunate venture into less praiseworthy pathways.

Mr. Hallock stated the purpose of the meeting is to be to stimulate the interest of parents in the school work of their children and his hopes were for the success of the undertaking.

The school orchestra played well during the evening.

TREMAYNE INQUIRY.

Dr. Calderwood Testifies—Says Man Bled to Death—Sweetheart Present.

The official inquiry into the death of Fred Tremayne, killed recently by an O. S. L. train, was begun before Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith yesterday afternoon, and the fact was brought out that Tremayne died from the loss of blood. This was testified to by Dr. Calderwood, county physician, who said that he was summoned to attend Tremayne about three hours after the accident. He said that Tremayne's leg was badly lacerated, but no bones were broken; that an artery was severed and the injured man had lost so much blood there was little or no chance of saving his life. Tremayne was sent to the hospital, where he died in a short time.

SWEETHEART TESTIFIES.

Mrs. Jane Dallimore, 221 East Eighth South street, who was engaged to marry Tremayne, appeared in court as a witness. She testified that Tremayne always left his money with her and called for it when needed. She said that on the night of the accident, Tremayne called at her place, got some money and left her about 11 o'clock. The next morning she learned of his death.

For some unaccountable reason, the railroad trainmen failed to put in an appearance, and it is quite likely that a bench warrant will be issued for them. The hearing has been continued until next Thursday. The jury selected by Justice Smith yesterday afternoon is composed of G. M. Lewis, L. J. Larson and Alf Eklund.

THE WHITE PINE GOLD MINING & MILLING COMPANY.

Notice of Special Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the stockholders of The White Pine Gold Mining & Milling Company, will be held at the office of A. B. Sawyer, Jr., No. 307 Tribune Building, No. 10 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, on Friday, the 8th day of November, 1907, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., of said day for the purpose of amending Article 11, of the Articles of Agreement of said company, such that the same may read as follows, to-wit:

ARTICLE 11.

"That the private property of the stockholders of said corporation shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation, and that in consideration of the conveyance by the incorporators hereof to the said corporation, of that certain real and personal property, mines and mining properties, machinery, mill and water rights, hereinafter described and in procuring the conveyance thereof the said 500,000 shares of the capital stock of said corporation, as subscribed by the foregoing incorporators and as placed in the treasury as before stated, shall be fully paid up, which said capital stock shall be assessable, for the purpose of paying the debts and expenses of said corporation, and conducting its business, and the Board of Directors is hereby authorized, given and granted the power and authority to levy and collect assessments upon the full paid capital stock in the manner and form as prescribed by law, as if the capital stock were not full paid, and at such times as the corporation necessities may require."

The purpose of the foregoing amendment is to render the capital stock of said corporation assessable, for the purposes, at the time, in the manner and form set forth in the above article.

By order of the Board of Directors.
Dated September 27th, 1907.
P. H. CANNON, President.
JOSEPH S. HYDE, Secretary.
