REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Map Resolutions and Nominate a Straight Ticket.

J. F. Tate Sues for His Child — Taylor Water Rate Reduced — Savings Bankers.

The Republican city convention met yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by Charles Dunn Harrington.

Geo. Geo. D. Hurley was elected temporary chairman of the meeting, and J. F. Gardner as secretary. Mr. Hurley delivered a very fine address to the convention, discussing briefly the Gibbs committee and the silver question.

Committees were appointed of five members on permanent organization, resolutions and order of business and on credentials, after which the committee adjourned for 1:30 P. M.

The convention met again at 1:30 and proceeded to vote for Chairman J. D. Roberts. The report of committee on credentials was accepted and the temporary organization was made permanent, with J. E. Hollingsworth as assistant secretary.

The report of the committee on order of business was then read and accepted.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The committee on resolutions made a long and valuable report. The last one was offered by William Glassman, setting forth the principles of Republicanism, which were accepted, with the exception of silver, can be secured by contempt, ignorance and prejudice, and the resolution was adopted by the assembly with a yell.

The resolutions reaffirm the allegiance of the Republican party of Ogden City to the principles of the national Republican party, favor the maintenance of the present administration, and congratulate the country upon the prosperity experienced under the Dingley tariff, favor the free coinage of the precious metals at the ratio of sixteen ounces of the metal to one of gold, and the adoption of a law for the issuance of bonds in exchange for bullion in dollar denomination on the gold and silver basis, favor the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine, and view with pride the progress of the United States under Republican rule, favor the adoption of the Gibbs plan of bimetallism, favor the Nicaragua canal, favor the extension of the civil service law, favor the adoption of the Australian system of voting, and favor the adoption of the free ballot system at school elections.

Favoring the election of the two Republican candidates for city offices were voted with, and the following ticket was nominated:

DISTRICT COURT.

In the District Court today, before Judge Baker:

WAITS SUPPORT OF HIS CHILD.

In the matter of the application of A. F. Tate for a writ of habeas corpus to Lulu Hood Tate, to compel her husband to pay her Lulu M. Tate is being contested by her husband, who claims that the child is not his. It appears that the child was born in Ogden, and was taken from the home by its mother and her friends, and has been kept in hiding since. The child was found by the officers of the Ogden Police Department, and was taken from the home by its mother and placed in the Orphans' Home, where it
