[illegible] county of Maui, and is at present a member of that county.

OREN L. THOMPSON.

Representative Oren L. Thompson was born in Eskdale, Davis county, Utah, [illegible] graduated from the L. C. Academy with honors in 1891, moved to Rigby, Bingham county, in 1893, has held positions of justice of the peace, member of school board and county superintendent of schools, is engaged in the stock and mercantile business.

HYRUM LEONARD.

Representative Hyrum Leonard was born in Adams county, Illinois, November [illegible], 1850, came to Utah in 1861, going to Cache county in company with his father's family. He was graduated in the normal class of the University of Deseret in 1882, and taught school for seven years, married in August, 1882, was elected assessor and collector of Bear Lake county in 1884, was a member in the last constitutional convention, for the last five years has engaged in merchandising.

ANDREW PUGSLEY SOUTHWICK.

Representative Andrew Pugsley Southwick was born in Tonawanda, Niagara county, New York, January 4th, 1850, came to Utah in 1863, going to Smithfield, attended public schools and Brigham Young academy, the Brigham Young college at Logan, attended the University of Michigan, and the University of Utah, spent two years in Arizona in the mercantile business, returned to Utah and taught school at Bloomington, Iron county, in 1882, married Ellen Logan in August, 1882, moved from Iron City to Montpelier, where he now resides, has managed the Montpelier Times and Bear Lake Democrat, has been engaged in merchandising, has held various offices in Bear Lake county, including assessor and superintendent of district schools, is now a member of the territorial legislature.

WILLIAM HOWARD.

Representative William Howard was born in Derry, Ireland, January 17th, 1847, came to Utah in 1863, was educated in Salt Lake City, served in the Nauvoo Legion in 1866 and took part in an Indian campaign in Bannock in 1867, married December 19th, 1870, moved to Bear River valley in 1872 held the positions of county and precinct clerk, assessor and collector, school trustee and president of the Bear River stake of Zion's Cooperative Mercantile institution, was president of Bear River stake of Zion's Cooperative Mercantile institution, was president of Randolph stake from 1884 to 1892, moved to Cache county in 1892, was a member of the last constitutional convention and is statistical correspondent of the United States agricultural department.

ALLISON CASTLE.

Representative Allison Castle was born at Nauvoo, April, 1845, came to Salt Lake City in 1852, helped the son of Carter Bros. & Co., was principal owner in establishing the Salt Lake company and is generally a progressive and reasonable citizen of Nephi, where he has served as mayor, was surprised at being elected to the twenty-sixth legislature.

SETH MADISON JOHNSON.

Representative Seth Wanser Morrison was born at Fort Atkinson, Wis., December 12th, 1848, being then in years old at the present time, moved to Dubuque in 1854 with his parents and lived on the Mississippi river, moved to Salt Lake in January, 1866, having sold out at Lacomia, and founded the house now of Morrison Merrill & Co., in this city, which he has successfully managed ever since; was married in 1869, has never held any political office until he was made a member of the Legislature.

ANDREW JACKSON SMITH.

Representative Andrew Jackson Smith was born in Sugar House ward, Salt Lake county, March 17th, 1856, the son of Silas S. Smith, who was one of the first settlers in Salt Lake City and Nephi, and who was removed to Provo with his family, where he has since resided, received his education under Dr. Karl G. Maeser in Salt Lake City, and at the University of Michigan, was engaged in the cattle business, was president of Utah county association of stockmen, is now engaged in the stock and mercantile business, is a member of the Utah county legislature.

WILLIAM WALLACE WALKER.

Representative William Walker Walker was born in Hull, Yorkshire, England, September 22 1, 1844, emigrated to Utah with his parents September 6th, 1852, arrived in Utah September 19th, the same year. He lived in Salt Lake City and the vicinity of Provo, was one of Sanford's Utah Volunteers, was a member of the Nauvoo Legion, was engaged in farming and working in the mines, married November 20th, 1866, at Salt Lake City, October 19th, 1868, was appointed to the County Court, one of the county commissioners, was elected in 1884 and served four years, was appointed to the Utah Commission, was appointed to the Utah Commission, was appointed to the Utah Commission