ARECORD BREAKING ENGINE.

Os Wednesday an engine known as "Tramp," in charged of J. L. Pugh, neer, arrived in Ogden from the The Richmond Manufacturing Manufacturing many are sending this engine over various roads throughout the Unit-States, and it has now been about wyrears on the trip. They are making record with this engine for the fords Fair at Paris this year. When sengine gets back to the factory it its record, which it is anticipated be a world beater. It left here yes. for the coast hauling out rity for the coast harming that are as of freight, which is a large load for as engine. It is a very beautifully all pice of locomotive power, and its apers will no doubt be proud of their abit at the exposition.

The oldest lady present was Grandma Graves, aged 92, who is still able to do nuch of her own house work. Edson Barney, the oldest living Mor-mon, who was baptized in 1831, was also present, with two of his daughters, who were past sixty. The grandchildren of the daughter with whom he is living are all married, and he is now the child of the family. Byron Wilmot, the oldest engineer in Uncle Sam's navy, during the recent war with Spain, was an interesting fig-ure. He went into the service when past sixty, and the concussion of the big 13-inch guns, when fired during the blockade of Santiago, so shattered his frame that he has not yet recovered. He was introduced and showed a cane with a long stilletto concealed in it, that had been shot from the walls of Morro

Castle. There were four of the original plo-neer settlers of Provo present, several of the Pioneers of the State, and a score or more who had crossed the plains with handcarts. The aged mingled freely with each other and renewed old acquaintances, having not met for years and some months.

After the banquet, Rev. H. S. Good-win gave a delightful little descriptive talk on a visit which he made to Mt. Vernon, which was very suitable to the ccasion, and was greatly enjoyed.

Huntington, Emery Co., Feb. 21.-Quite a sensational burgiary case has just been disposed of here in Hunting-ton, two prominent young men. James Jones and G. A. Johnson, were charged with breaking into the saloon of Orson Robbing last Saturday night, and had a preliminary examination yesterday last-ing until midnight. The district attorney, F. E. Woods, and County Attorney U. E. Curtis, prosecuted. Judge L. R. Rhodes defended. After the evidence was all in it was shown that the wrong parties were arrested, and the young men were completely exonerated from the charge. It is doubtful if anything more is done about it, but it is hoped Detective J. B. Meeks will ferret out the In his plea before the justice Judge Rhodes gave some very good advice to his clients. Special Correspondence.

Orangeville, Emery Co., Utah, Feb. 22. -There is another smallpox scare in Orangeville. This time it is in the faimly of Wm. Fitt, and there are cases, all children. Mr. Fitt is a brick-layer, and was at Emery last fall, or early winter when the smallpox made its appearance there, and when the own was put under quarantine, he was still there, and being obliged to stay, he got as far away as he could fro the afflicted and there remained until the quarantine was raised.

He has been at home about five weeks, and surprise is now created that his family should come down with the dread disease at this length of time from exposure. The yellow flag was taken down from the gate at the Tuttle louse so long ago that everybody began to feel comfortable, and many there who think it was not smallpox at all, and that the restraint was unnec-essary. Vernal, Uintah Co., Feb. 21.-We have just concluded one of the most interest-* ing conferences ever held in Uintah Stake. There were none of the Twelve present, nor any of the leading Elders, and only a part of the Stake presidency, but the conference was very much enjoyed by those in atendance. The speak. ers were nearly all young Elders, who have recently returned from missions, and the people were very much inter-ested in their remarks. There were eight of these missionaries who have just come home and others who have been home but a short time, so there was no dearth of speakers. At the conclusion of the regular conference, the Young Men's Improvement association held an interesting meeting. A report of the various wards showed a considerable increase in numbers, and a marked improvement in the interest of the members.

Old Folks' Annual Reunion-Heavy Snow Fall-Deaths.

Special Correspondence.

Heber City, Wasatch Co., Feb. 22 .-Heber City, wasard Co., Feb. 22. This has been a very enjoyable day for the people of Heber. The Social Hall was filled and a grand entertainment was given the old folks, followed by a sumptuous banquet. There were about 150 present. The oldest lady present was Sister Ander-son, aged 94. Uncle Robert McNight was too feeble to turn out this time. He was 96 last birthday, Jan. 1, 1990. All over 50 were invited to the gathering.

DEATHS.

Clara, daughter of the late Joseph S. Murdock, with wife of All, Richens, died this week, of enlargement of liver. Today another death occurred--the 18 months-old baby of the late John Campbell.

The weather is very stormy, snowing about every day. Over one foot of snow fell in the valley, and report is four feet in the mountains, making the farmers smile and feel happy, as they an insured a good supply of water for crops.

ROBERTS DEMANDED FREEDOM.

Lord Roberts before he left England refused to abide by any plan of opera-tions which the war office would like to have thrust upon him. He said that while he conducted the campaign in
