 Disgraceful Bribery Stories - The Special Dictator of the State.
 AUGUSTA, 9.-The statement by Swann in the House to-day, relative to the alleged bribe, is substantially the same as his affidavit with the following addition: A reliable member of the House told him that Wallace R.
 White had offered him $1,000 cash to resign as a member. The member refused to accept. He (Swann) upon hearing this consulted Secretary of State Covey and with John Chase drew up an affidavit (sent on Monday night) alleging the bribery by White. He then had the member arrested and White told him (Swann) would resign for $1,000, and a meeting with White was held at the court house at 10 o'clock the next morning, and White, taking him into the court room, showed him the following statement:
 Augusta, Jan. 6.
 To the Chairman of the Democrat and Greenback Caucus: After mature deliberation I have concluded that I regard it as my duty as a citizen to give the laws as they are construed and decided by the Supreme Judicial Court. I cannot therefore, lend my aid to keeping out of their seats the republican representatives elect whom the Supreme Court has entitled thereto.
 I therefore give public notice that I will not participate in the organization of the House, being fairly and fully determined to obey the mandate of the court. To resist that mandate is revolution, destructive both to my party and the great interests of the State.
 (Signed)
 THOMAS B. SWANN.
 He informed me that I should have to write a statement like it and sign the same, also to sign his resignation and deliver up my certificate to him. I could not do that nor want to use the resignation, but would like to show that I acted in good faith and that after the House was organized I could take part with the republicans would put me upon important committees. I informed him that I would sign papers, and he said I could get the money. He left the room and returned in about 20 minutes, and said it was all right. He then read the letters and copied in my own hand the democratic and greenback committees. He also read the resignation made by Coville and then put his papers without my signature in my pocket. We then counted the money and found it correct. I then signed the paper and took the money and explained the same to him and wanted to know how much of any he could get. I told him, I thought he could get Harriman to copy him and I told me to see him and come with him at 1.30. I then left and called at the Augusta House to see if I could find him, but I did not find him.
 I then went to the State House and found E. H. Gore and made the following statement:

 ence of E. H. Gore and John B.
 E. H. Gore, make the following
