CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 12.—Christiancy, in presenting the petitions from the citizens of Michigan favoring a 16th amendment, conferring the right of suffrage upon women, said he hoped the committee on privileges and elections would take up the subject and report upon it. When he should become satisfied a majority of the women of the country were in favor of female suffrage he would vote for it; but until then he would not. He did not think these petitions should be presented to Congress. The legislatures of States were the proper bodies to present them to.

Morrill from the committee on finance, reported favorably on the House joint resolution declaring a reduction of the tax on distilled spirits is inexpedient and gave notice he would call up the resolution for consideration to-morrow morning. It was placed on the calendar.

Thurman presented a resolution of the general assembly of Ohio, expressing the opinion that all bonds of government are payable, principal and interest, in silver coin in favor of the passage of the Bland silver bill, and declaring President Hayes and Secretary Sherman responsible for the present action of Congress, and not represent the views of the people of Ohio. The resolutions were read and tabled.

He also presented a petition from many citizens of Ohio, of all political parties, favoring the repeal of the resumption act; referred.

Spencer from the committee on military affairs, reported petitions of the governors of Pennsylvania and other States, asking the payment of balances due to several States on account of arming and equipping troops for the Federal Government during the rebellion, and moved that they be referred to the committee on claims. So ordered.

Maxey, from the committee on military affairs, reported back the letter of the Secretary of War, regarding the findings and executions of military courts martial, together with a bill to amend the article of war No. 104 on the subject. Placed on the calendar.

Bills were introduced by Maxey, by request, to extend the commerce of the United States with Mexico to secure economy in the expenditures required from national defences, and to provide for the completion of a Southern Pacific Railroad; referred.

The bill was passed making the 22nd of February a legal holiday in the District of Columbia, with an amendment providing that it should not apply to the 22d of February, 1878, in order not to effect existing contracts.

Burnside, from the committee on military affairs, reported with amendments the Senate bill to remove all restrictions now existing in regard to the enlistment of colored citizens in any regiment of the United States. Placed on the calendar.

Maxey and Cockrell, of the committee, announced that they did not agree with the majority of the committee in reporting this bill.

During the morning hour the following bills were passed:

Senate bill to constitute a commission to consider and report a plan for providing additional accommodations for the library of Congress; Senate bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase certain property of the Freedmen's Savings and Trust Company for the use of the United States, and for other purposes. It appropriates $225,000 for the purchase of the Freedmen's Bank building, in this city, now occupied by the department of Justice.

Beck inquired if Morrill and Dawes, who desire to be heard in regard to the resolution introduced by him some days ago, declaring it inexpedient to purchase bonds for the sinking fund until further orders of Congress, when it would be convenient for them to have the resolution again taken up for consideration.

Morrill suggested that it be allowed to remain on the table till the silver bill shall have been disposed of, as it would probably lead to a long discussion. Beck assented to the proposition.

At the expiration of the morning hour consideration was resumed of the silver bill, and McDonald spoke in favor thereof.

The Senate then proceeded to the hall of the House, to participate in the ceremony of the presentation of Carpenter's picture.

Upon returning, the Senate refused to adjourn or consider executive business, Kelly McPherson opposed the silver bill as being inimical to the interests of the country. He hoped Congress would take no such step backward.

Sargent moved an executive session, which motion prevailed, and the Senate soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The galleries were crowded this morning in anticipation of the ceremony of presenting Carpenter's painting of "President Lincoln Reading his Emancipation Proclamation to the Cabinet." The painting, screened by the national flag, was hung behind the Speaker's chair. Preparations were also made for the accommodation of Senators. Immediately after the reading of the journal, a resolution was adopted granting the privilege of the floor during the presentation ceremonies to the families of members of President Lincoln's cabinet at the time of the proclamation.

The House then went into committee of the whole, Blackburn in the chair, on the military appropriation bill. Soon after, the committee rose, and the Senate and House met in joint convention and received Carpenter's painting. Garfield made the presentation speech.

The presentation ceremonies were closed with an eloquent speech by Stephens of Georgia. Adjourned.

EASTERN.

The Territory of Lincoln.

New York, 12.—World's Washington: The Senate committee on Territories considered to-day the bill to establish the Territory of Lincoln and to provide a temporary government therefor. Judge Corbett of Wyoming, stated against the measure. Spencer spoke in favor of the creation of the Territory of Lincoln.—Spencer's desire to secure the passage of the bill is said to arise from the fact that he is largely interested in Black Hills property, while his enemies say that he is anxious to secure a new political arena for which he can come back to Congress when he is kicked politically overboard in Alabama.

The Acceptance of Carpenter's Picture.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The speeches made by Gen. Garfield and Alexander H. Stephens, to-day, on the occasion of the acceptance of Carpenter's picture of the signing of the emancipation proclamation were exceedingly impressive and elicited warm commendation. Garfield's effort was a highly finished oration, written and delivered in his best style. Stephens spoke without notes, sitting in his peripatetic chair and moving in it nervously in the small semi-circular space in front of the clerk's desk. His voice, though feeble, is shrill and clear, and his recognized ability, historic antecedents and remarkably striking appearance, commanded for his utterance such close attention that they were distinctly heard in every part of the vast hall. The most noticeable feature of his speech was his declaration that if a vote were to be taken to-day, no man would wish to reestablish slavery. This remark, coming from the vice-president of the confederacy, who had declared that slavery was rightfully its corner stake, produced a decided sensation. His closing plea for harmonious feeling and patriotic devotion to our reunited country was also remarkably graceful and elicited universal applause.

Besides the members and officers of the Senate, and the artist and donor of the painting, a large number of distinguished spectators were admitted to the floor, including many ladies, and the galleries were crowded with a larger audience than has assembled in the House since the exciting scenes of the electoral count.

Paris Exposition—Agricultural Exhibits.

The commissioner of agriculture decides that the agricultural exhibits for the Paris Exposition will be received at Washington until March 31, and until March 12th, if addressed to the department of agriculture for the Paris Exposition, care of United States steamship Wyoming, navy yard, Brooklyn, and that in either case one set of duplicate invoices should be included in the package and another sent by mail to the department at Washington. The regulations require prepayment of freight to either point in every instance.

Another Cremation.

CINCINNATI, 12.—The body of Mrs. Jane Pittman, who died in this city yesterday, will be conveyed to Washington, Pa., to be cremated by Dr. Lemoyne, in accordance with her own wishes expressed in her written will.

Murdered.

INDIANAPOLIS, 12.—John W. Waller, of Wabash, Indiana, was murdered on Friday night, near Carthage, Indiana. A saloon keeper of Kingstown was suspected, and attempts were made to lynch him. The officers, however, succeeded in placing him in jail.

Indian Raid—Capture of Horse Thieves.

DEADWOOD, D. T., 12.—On Sunday a party of 15 or 20 Indians surprised a hay party in the foothills, about 12 miles east of here, and captured the horses and oxen belonging to the outfit. The men escaped.

Sheriff Moulton, of Pennington county, yesterday, captured at Rapids City, James Heffron and Tony Pastor, two notorious horse thieves and road agents. Heffron made a confession, stating where a large number of stolen stock were concealed and giving the names of the parties connected with the gang. The sheriff hopes to be able to make other arrests soon and put an end to the wholesale running off of stock that has been going on for the past year.

WESTERN.

Honor to the Deceased Pope.

SAN FRANCISCO, 12.—Solemn requiem services in honor of the deceased Pope were held at St. Mary's Cathedral to-day. The church was densely crowded and thousands were unable to obtain entrance. Archbishop Alemany celebrated the solemn pontifical mass and preached a short discourse, eulogizing the deceased Pontiff.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Eastern Question.

LONDON, 12.—Grand Duke Nicholas has expressed satisfaction to Vefik Effendi at the non-admission of the British fleet.

In to-day's sitting of the Turkish Parliament, several deputies urged Vefik Effendi to act with consideration towards England relative to the passage of the Dardanelles.

It is considered in well informed circles in Vienna probable that the Porte will grant a firman for the entry of the British fleet, in view of Russian occupation of Constantinople, which is hourly expected.

Austria does not object to the retrocession of Bessarabia, if Roumania retains the mouth of the Danube and does not acquire Widdin as a compensation.

Disturbances are reported in Syria. Several leading inhabitants of Damascus have been exiled to Pala.

The Austrian turret ship Kaiser Max leaves for the Levant to-day. The ironclad Hapsburg follows to-morrow.

The Reforme believes it is decided that Greece shall participate in the conference.

At Athens great indignation has been aroused by a dispatch stating that the Bashi Bazouks and Circassians were massacreing Christians at and around Dounoo.

A dispatch of the Bourse Gazette from St. Petersburg, states that both the press and the public highly approve of Prince Gortschakoff's telegram of Sunday last to the powers, declaring that, as Great Britain and the other powers had determined to send fleets for the protection of their subjects in Constantinople, Russia would be obliged to contemplate the entry of a portion of her troops into Constantinople for the protection of Christian residents.

Safvet Pasha has left for Adrianople.

Sadoullah Bey, Turkish ambassador at Berlin, has been appointed the second delegate to conduct the peace negotiations, in place of Saldyk Pasha.

Vefik Effendi informed the chamber, to-day, that he hoped to communicate the peace conditions in four days hence. He declared that if the British fleet passed the Dardanelles he would protest and cast the responsibility for the consequences upon England.

Russia has notified Austria that among the questions withdrawn from the consideration of the conference are the reorganization of Bulgaria; the occupation of Bulgaria by the Russian troops, and the annexation of Bessarabia. This note has given umbrage at Vienna.

The Standard, in a leader, says: "We have reason to believe that the Porte will not much longer withhold a firman admitting the British fleet, but its concession will not ameliorate the situation." The leader, which is very warlike, concludes as follows: "We have power to bring their cunning to naught and reduce overbearing force to prudence, and the Czar may rest assured that when other arguments are exhausted we shall not hesitate to employ it."

Wm. H. Smith, First Lord of the Admiralty, last night, stated that the orders which had been sent to Admiral Hornby were clear and distinct, and sent on government's responsibility, but it would be inconsistent with his duty to state their nature.

The press association says it is understood that Admiral Hornby is instructed to force the Dardanelles with, if necessary, his whole fleet of ironclads. The matter caused a long discussion, to-day in the cabinet council.

FRANCE.

Big Talk.

PARIS, 12.—A telegram from Athens states that, according to a semi-official telegram received there from Constantinople, the Porte has intimated that it would order the forts to fire on the British fleet if it attempted to enter the Dardanelles.

UNITED STATES

Centennial

World Exhibition,

1876.

MASON & HAMLIN

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK"

IN THE

of such instruments!

THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Jurors of the Centennial Exhibition have unanimously assigned the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of their manufacture, "for the great excellence shown by the Jurors at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THE GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the different competitors by over twenty years, have met in the whole competent Juries each one of the whole competent Juries each one of the whole.

They have also received the MEDAL for both as is well known, medals of equal merit are not given for all work of the same class, but a higher award for superior merit in each. Hence the Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones against which such a decision could not be contested, for the Juries of Rome, Vienna, Paris, have heretofore been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been merely six exceptions in hundreds of competitors. They were awarded the highest honors at

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA, 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875; PHILADELPHIA, 1876,

and have been awarded highest honors at every World's Exposition in which they have been exhibited, being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained any Award at any Exposition with their competitors of Europe. Illustrated Catalogues, containing the Testimony of the Jurors, sent free by the CHICAGO MASON AND HAMLIN ORGAN COMPANY, 154 Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

(Signed by all the Jurors.)

FOR THE HOLIDAYS!!

We take special care in CLEANING OUR FRUITS, and the public will find, by comparing quality, that ours are superior to any in the city.

LOOK AT THE WINDOWS FOR SAMPLES.
