POLITICS TO THE FRONT.

Battle in Various Wards Indicated by the Legal Rendezvous Unregistered Citizens.

In the Police Court—Marriage in Plural Not Much Gone Up Here for a Small Time—Ogden Locals.

The city campaign has been, up to the present time, a very quiet one. Yesterday was the first day that politics were in evidence to any extent. During the entire day there was a lively time at the various places for office could be seen driving up to the polls all over the city, to see if their names had been put on the registration list and to take them to the registration officers to have them entered and not a little time was spent in the registration by those who had neglected to register. Many parties stopped to be registered in the registration office while others were driven to the polls to vote on the 1st of this month. Quite a few failed to register, and will be left out in the cold when it comes to voting on election day. Considerable money was thrown in the city yesterday, for several days, by the various politicians in order to secure votes and their combinations were the most unexpected imaginable. Neither party has any ward meetings, but the men who will bring both parties to the front, will be seen at the polls Saturday, on which day will be the date for voting, and they are working hard for victory, and will have good workers at the various polling places of trust.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

A city court before Judge Holmgren was held in the city hall for being drunk and disorderly. Two cases were tried, one of the pair in the Ogden Opera house. He plead guilty and was fined $ fact or thirty days. The other case was that of a man who was tried for being drunk and disorderly in the U. P. R. R. yards. The case was tried two days ago, and the man arrested for the same offense. He was fined $5, which he paid into the police.

RUSSIAN DEATH.

Daily Issue of Mutual Conference—Logan Polling Places.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Oct. 31.—The municipal election of the Young Men's M. I. A. was held in the Stake tabernacle last night. The attendance was not as excellent as could have been desired, only a little more than a hundred were present. The officers were elected with song and prayer, President F. Gillham, being retained from a year ago. Other officers were made up principally of the officers of the Gospel, for work at home and abroad.

Albert Cole delivered a well-prepared address on "The Science of Salvation" in Logan Stake. Elder Lewis was then called on to address the meeting, but he had not prepared himself for the occasion, and he called on President Gillham to take charge of the meeting. President Gillham called on President Cole to take charge of the meeting, and he called upon President Lewis to open the meeting by prayer. President Lewis then called upon President Cole to open the meeting by prayer. President Cole then
