OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

District Court—Sale of Iron Works—Death of John Marriott—Local Briefs.

SECOND DISTRICT COURT.

Ogden, Weber County, June 11.—Saturday's proceedings in the second district court before Judge Scott were as follows:

John H. Sutherland and A. G. Spaldingville of Sweden, were admitted to citizenship.

In the matter of the estate of John Pinder, deceased, after hearing arguments the court granted the petition of the widow for certain property, to John Moser and Ashford Hinton.

G. L. Dees vs. Procter's Building, Loan and Savings association, defendant, the court overruled plaintiff's additional motion in which he prayed and every statement and bill of exceptions and motion for a new trial.

SALE OF IRON WORKS.

The sale of Ogden's iron works (of 1?) was made public at the usual place of the county court house at 11 o'clock noon, yesterday. H. W. Lawrence, the original property, machinery, loan patterns, etc., formerly owned by the Ogden Iron and Foundry company, was the purchaser, for $1,000, subject to the company, to be disposed of as matter considerable's case.

The sale was of the second district court against this company.

The new owner of the Weber iron works is a man who has made his home in Ogden for many years, and has been engaged in the business of a machinist, and is said to be a skilled mechanic of experience, courage and enterprise in spite of sickness and misfortune.

DEATH OF JOHN MARRIOTT.

John Marriott, a pioneer of Weber county, died at his home, corner Lincoln avenue and Washington avenue, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after a long illness, at an age of 72 years, 8 months and 17 days. The deceased was a native of Devonshire, England, and came to Ogden in 1852, and was one of the first settlers in this county. Many years he was present at the services in the Weber tabernacle and the notes issued for the remains to the grave were a long one.

HOUSE BREAKER FOILED.

Early yesterday morning a man, supposed to be a burglar, gained an entrance to a residence in the south part of the city, and was in the act of opening the house and was discovered by a man, who was alone, who was awakened by a noise and arose to investigate and found an entrance and was in the act of opening the house, when the intruder was aware, making the middle door was open.

ATTACKED BY FOOTPADS.

Saturday night about 10 o'clock two men attacked Thomas Purdy while he was passing through the south part of the city, and knocked him to the ground with a club and he called for help, and the footpads left him and ran south. The matter was reported to the police department and the officers made an unsuccessful search for the would-be robbers.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The county school teachers held a meeting in Superintendent Wilkins' office Saturday and made arrangements for the commencement exercises to be held next Saturday.

The Stonecage in Ogden canyon, about five miles from the city, is to be made an agreeable resort for the week.

The game of baseball between the Columbia and Weber club teams for the benefit of the public library, will be played at the Exhibit park tomorrow evening.

Dr. E. P. Sibb went to Provo Friday afternoon to give professional attention to the mother of Apostle M. F. Cowley, who was reported very ill.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Carl Lichtenberg, 26, and Miss May Will, 18, both of Ogden.

The Ogden baseball club has been reorganized. If Sunday games are played tomorrow Mr. Parry will conduct the game where outside the city limits, probably at the Hot Springs. The Ogden contingent is sure of access by way of the street railway and motor line, but racing will not suffer on the road by reason of the enforcement of the ordinance relating to Sunday observance.

The excursion to the Twenty-Fourth street between Washington and Grant avenues, preparatory to paving, is attracting considerable attention.

The thinning of the herds will furnish employment for a large number of men, which, here during the vacation, and give them a chance to earn considerable money.

Last evening at the Methodist church the pastor preached upon the subject of "Church Subscriptions." The members and church goers are not the only ones who are in favor of a quiet and restful Sabbath day.

A concert will be given next Thursday evening, the 15th, in the opera house of the Second ward Sunday school, in the amusement hall, for the benefit of the Second ward fair. Some of the best musical talent in Ogden will take part.

Some valuable new books have just been received by the public library. The patronage of this useful institution is increasing.

The examinations for teachers in the city schools will be held in the high school room, beginning on the 19th and continuing for three days.

PROVO.

Sunday School Conference—Indignation Meeting—Another Temperance 13 Have.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, June 12.—The annual Sunday school conference of the Utah Stake of Zion was in session Saturday and Sunday. Superintendent presided. There were present Apostle George Teasdale, Assistant General Superintendent Karl G. Maeser, and Elder George Reynolds, President Ben Stake officers and wards. Reports showed that there was an increasing interest attendance of teachers and pupils in the study of the Bible. The only changes in the stake officers was Superintendent H. H. Hill resigned and Miss Ida Stephens was appointed in her place. The program consisted of musical exercises by the people of all grades.

INDIGNATION MEETING.

The non-"Mormon" citizens of this city were well represented at a meeting held Saturday night, which was called to order by Judge Lewis, who acted as temporary chairman, and Mr. Ballard was elected secretary. The object of the meeting was to take some action in regard to a book entitled "The Price of Peace," written by Mr. Ballard, formerly a county attorney here, but now resides at Chicago. The book is in the form of a letter addressed to the members of the Mormon Church.

Attorney J. M. Wilson called the meeting to order and stated the object for which they had met.

Charles Ferguson was appointed chairman and J. W. N. Whitesides, secretary.

It was decided to appoint a committee, to investigate the book to ascertain if it contains any libelous matter, and if so, to see if the author can be made to answer for it, and if not, what some action will be taken. The committee appointed consisted of M. M. Warner, J. W. N. Whitesides, Jacob Beck, J. M. Stone and W. H. Howe.

"SILVER TIP" CALLED FOR.

Sheriff Jesse M. Tripp, of Grand county, arrived in Provo last evening for the purpose of taking into custody Joe Hawkins, alias "Silver Tip," who for last reported done south and who has a reward of $100 hanging over his head.

GOT FIFTEEN DAYS EACH.

A. Jorgenson and Peter Gleim, the two Russian tramps arrested at the Rapid Transit Friday for breaking a seal off a car, D. W. Jack was arraigned before Justice Kelly Saturday afternoon and sentenced to fifteen days in the county jail.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

A fire-proof tie vault has been issued to David Jones Stock, 21 of Manti, Idaho, and Ellen Jones, 18, of Provo.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Charles H. Ward and Miss Martha Jane Stephens, which took place at the home of the bride's parents.

A very interesting game of tennis was played Friday afternoon on the Brigham Young University campus, between the Y. B. U. team of Salt Lake and the Provo team. The score at the close of the game stood at 30 to 15 in favor of the Provo team.

LOGAN.

Personal Property of Orson Smith Sold—Tabernacle Services.

Special for Deseret Telegraph.

Logan, Cache County, June 11.—The sale of Orson Smith's property to settle the claim of Mrs. Smith for $5,000 for her share of the property, resulted thus: Everything brought good prices and the sale was satisfactory to both parties. Everything was disposed of, including the entire stock of goods, fixtures, horses, cattle, etc., largely owned by the family. Furniture and household effects, including, to be disposed or at master commissioner's sale.

The sale of the Second district court appears now assured.

The new organ recently sent to the Weber tabernacle seems not quite to have every stopper removed and working, John Hill, the Tabernacle organist, or Oliver Ellsworth, city governor, both, praised, and it does to a musical amateur of appreciation, courses was not heard in sickness, disease and malfunction