PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - SEPT. 18, 1894.

First District Court Notes.

The postponement of the W. D. Davis murder trial for one week was rather a surprise to the members of the bar and others, as it was fully expected the case would have been proceeded with when court opened yesterday morning; but George Sutherland and Arthur Brown, counsel for plaintiff, claimed that witnesses whose testimony was erroneously ruled out on the last trial could not be here till that time, hence the continuance was granted. The following business was transacted:

CRIMINAL CASES DIS.

The following criminal cases were nol'd:

United States vs Alma Hage, embezzlement, October 8th.

United States vs Alma Hage, making false entries, October 8th.

The People vs Alma Hage, embezzlement, October 8th.

The People vs John Gregg and John Macomb, robbery, October 8th.

The People vs Dougal McMurphy et al, gaming, October 8th.

The People vs R. Underwood, embezzlement, October 11th.

The People vs John Hill, embezzlement, October 11th.

The People vs Hugh McCartney, assault with intent to kill, October 11th.

The People vs Arnold Castor, grand larceny, Oct. 12th.

The People vs Dennis Manhard and George Penny, grand larceny, October 12th.

The People vs B. D. Lauder, appeal, October 12th.

The cases of the People vs Anne Marks, resisting an officer; the People vs Farrer Leach, grand larceny; the U. S. vs Samuel Parker, embezzlement; and the U. S. vs T. F. Lehman, in cont, were continued till the first and second days of the November term.

OTHER BUSINESS.

The R. G. W. Ry. Co. has taken an appeal to the First district court from the decision of Commissioner Dudley's court, in the case of Elizabeth Laird vs the R. G. W. Ry. Co. Plaintiff was awarded $1(4.8) for a horse killed by the defendant corporation.

Geo. A. Dusenberry has been cited to appear in court on the 20th of this month to show cause why he should not comply with the order in the court made April 16th, 1894, to pay alimony and attorney's fees to his divorced wife, Ina M. Dusenberry. She has made affidavit that the order has not been complied with and that there is now due her $175 alimony and $40 attorney's fees.

In the case of the National Bank of the Republic vs William Groesbeck et al, demurrer overruled, defendant given to September 27 to answer.

John H. D. Davis, of Vernal, was excused from further attendance as a juror.

The following aliens were admitted to citizenship: Thomas Hill, Hans Hansen, James L. Anderson, Thomas Smith, Juan Narwood.

Notes.

The tabernacle choir contemplates giving a ball at an early date. The proceeds will go to buy coal for the tabernacle.

Deputy Marshal W. D. Norrell has returned from a month's prospecting tour in southeastern Nevada. He believes he has discovered some good gold property.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Smoot celebrated their the wedding Monday evening, a large number of relatives and friends being being from Salt Lake City attended and a most enjoyable time was spent.

The city council have under consideration the question of disposing with Provo's one policeman. If the proposition should be adopted the city marshal and chief of police will have no trouble in keeping his department in order.

The Utah County Teachers' association program for Saturday, September 22nd, promises to be particularly interesting. Miss M. Adelaide Hollon, of Salt Lake City, is expected to deliver two lectures before the association. The teachers meet in the Parker school building.

J. W. Cloff, president of the city council, has returned from a month's visit to the East. While away he attended a reunion of the Fleming family in Muncie, Indiana, of which he is a member on the mother's side. Nearly seven hundred members of the family attended the reunion.

The tabernacle choir will give a concert Saturday evening, September 29th. Among other interesting numbers Mr. Arthur C. Lund, lately returned from a course of musical study in Germany, will render several Wagnerian selections. Mrs. Julia Sirrerwood, of the Salt Lake Tabernacle choir, will also appear.

The complaints in Justice Wedgewood's court, made by J. H. Denhalter against six boys for stealing soda water, and by S. H. Jeppesen against C. H. Nelson for permitting a lot of dirty cloth to be on the premises of Jeppesen, have both been dismissed upon motion of the prosecuting attorney for want of evidence.

Edwin Sumner, a 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sumner, of the Third ward, died last Sunday. He was buried yesterday from the Third ward meeting house. The little fellow complained of a pain in the head some days, supposed to have resulted from his energetic football playing. The pain left him but returned Sunday evening, and soon after he died.

Charles Schafer, proprietor of the Geneva resort, appeared before Precinct Justice Wedgewood yesterday afternoon to answer to a charge of selling liquor on Sunday, September 16th, preferred by Sheriff Brown of Utah county. Mr. Schafer pleaded guilty; he did not, however, think that he was violating any law, as the Salt Lake resorts were selling on the sabbath day. Justice Wedgewood admitted that he supposed that the people of Salt Lake county were not opposed to the traffic. Sheriff Brown and Prosecuting Attorney Stahl both admitted that this state of things existed in Salt Lake county, and they believed Mr. Schafer did not intend to violate any law. Mr. Schafer further explained that he would not have had any excursion to his place last Sunday were it not that the men carriers, under whose auspices the excursion was given, could not get away any otherdays.

Justice Wedgewood fined Mr. Schafer $25 without any costs.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Feb. 16, 1894.
PUTNAM NAIL CO., Boston, Mass.
GENTLEMEN:—Replying to your favor of the 14th inst., will state that I have used the Putnam Nail with Sunol, during her runs to the point with no low wave; I will not allow any other nail to be used than the Putnam Fine Forged Nail if I can prevent it. Which time will be which is good, I know what these are and manufactured. Very respectfully yours,

Chas. Marvin

The Putnam Nail is the only exclusively Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed nail.

Look in your smith's shoeing box. If the nails have smooth edges for the whole length they are the PUTNAM, for they are Hammer-Pointed and are not shaved.

The above picture, from a photo representing Mr. Bonner in his own driving brougham, & Putnam nail, while superintending the shoeing of Sunol, will be sent to the firm of a half dozen nail, 100, 101, on Stock, white paper, with a margin, on receipt of 1 cent stamp for postage, etc.
