THE WORK RESUMED.

Coeur d'Alene Miners Given Employment at Reasonable Wages.

A THOUSAND MEN MADE HAPPY.

Rejoicing in Several Mining Towns.—Prospect of More Mines Reopening.

BUNKER HILL, Wash., Sept. 25.—Operations have been resumed at the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines, Coeur d'Alene, under the terms offered by the company, $3.50 per day for miners and $3 for carmen and shovelers. One hundred men were employed today, and the force will be increased to 400. The Gem, Helena and Frisco mines at Gem will resume work within a few days, employing 300 men at the same wages.

All the other mines in the Coeur d'Alene are expected to resume under the arrangements, the Knights of Labor and Miners' Union having sanctioned the action of the men in returning to work. Within a week over 1000 men now idle will be at work. A jubilee is in progress in several mining towns tonight.

Chinamen Mobbed.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 25.—An armed mob of 200 men marched to the Chinese quarters last night, and after knocking down houses marched the Chinamen to the city limits and ordered them to leave. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of the ringleaders.

About thirty Chinese sought refuge in the house of Chinese Missionary Tramble. When the mob demanded his delivery Mrs. Tramble appeared with a Winchester rifle and announced that the first man to enter the house would be shot.

Accused of Robbery.

A Bond Robber Identified.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Sept. 25.—Dr. J. M. Bateman of Versailles arrived here today. He viewed the remains of Frank E. Schlosser, the dead robber, identifying him as his son. The old gentleman was overcome with grief. He was afterwards taken to the jail and Shoney was brought into the room. The meeting was very sad, neither showing that they were more than acquaintances.

Stung Wants to Be Pardoned.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 25.—Colonel H. Clay King, the slayer of David H. Poyntz, who is now serving a life sentence in the Tennessee penitentiary, has issued an address to the public, in which he charges that his conviction was brought about by a conspiracy. King wrote the card for the purpose of arousing public sentiment in his favor, in the hope of securing a pardon, but it will probably fail, as Governor Turney was a member of the supreme court when King's sentence was affirmed.

The Religious Congress.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Professor Philip Schaff of New York was the principal speaker in the parliament of religions today. Among the other speakers were Rev. Thomas Bickey of New York, Rev. Caution of China, President Williams of Colby university, and Professor Toyenoeni.

His Life for a Meal.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 25.—Last night Thomas Wynne, a brother-in-law of Andrew Carnegie, the Pennsylvania iron king, was struck on the head with a club by John Garcia, a restaurant waiter. Wynne's skull was fractured and he died this afternoon. Wynne refused to pay for his meal, and when ejected from the restaurant attempted to force his way in the door. When Garcia struck him.

Ordered Deported.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 25.—Judge Ross ordered the deportation of three more Chinamen this morning. Among them was Chew Yale, the notorious highbinder of Bakersfield, who has served two terms at San Quentin.

On the Cherokee Strip.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Sept. 25.—The scheme planned by Cherokee allotees and E. McCabe, the colored ex-secretary of state of Kansas, to establish the town of Liberty in the Cherokee strip has crystallized. The Perry people are greatly excited over the matter, and some bonfires have threatened violence.

The anglers who were the killing of John B. Hill at New Jersey by Private Shaup, Third cavalry, has not abated. Hill was a wealthy scholar and scientist. He was one of the early partners in the Standard Oil company, and acted as counsel for that corporation. He was out here with his nephew, for whom he dealed a claim.

A World's Fair Protest.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The World's Fair commissioners and American exhibitors are protesting vigorously against the adoption by Congress of the joint resolution offered by Congressman Durborow, which gives authority to the board of lady managers to confer upon expert workmen, in addition to pecuniary awards, a fair quota of medals and diplomas. The executive committee of the national commission formulated a resolution declaring the adoption of the resolution unfair and unjust to all exhibitors, as it would greatly impair, if not wholly destroy, the value of all original awards and diplomas awarded. A protest is attached to the report, addressed to the Senate and House, representing that the resolution is dangerous to the interest of exhibitors and inadequate for the proper recognition of inventors, and therefore remonstrating against its passage.

Removal of Captain Higginson.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 25.—Secretary Herbert today gave to the press the correspondence relating to the removal of Captain Higginson from command of the United States steamer Atlanta. The statement that Secretary Carlisle apologized to Captain Higginson for removing him from duty and offered to restore him to command on his own application, is not borne out by the facts, and is expressly denied. Captain Higginson is entitled to the credit of having directed to the department the condition of the Atlanta when the report was ordered to sea. Secretary Herbert at once approved and supported the action of Captain Higginson, and says he concedes from the matter will not prevent no being endorsed to such duty as his rank and ship may in perform, when regularly fitted.

Railroad Matters.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 25.—A Salt Lake, which has been attempted many times before without success, has been accomplished on the Union Pacific, all the large organizations of the system being represented in the consolidation. Its men are confident that General Manager Dickinson will not insist upon the cut. The striked men will not submit to it while the engineers, conductors, firemen, machinery constructors and telegraphers receive the wages as now paid them.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 25.—Judge Jenkins handed down a decision in the Northern Pacific case this afternoon. The decision terminates the lease of the Wisconsin Central railway to the Northern Pacific and gives the property back into the hands of the Central company. The gist of the decision is that the lease and payment of rentals and expenses which is continuous would involve, constituted a lease which the Northern Pacific was unable to lent. The judge and he would now consider the question as to whether the cancellation should take effect at once or not.

DECIDED TO SERVE.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 25.—The Baltimore and Ohio employes at this place have decided to strike against a reduction of 15 per cent in wages. The reduction goes into effect October 1st, and unless the men back down a tie-up will follow.

Sold for a Song.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—An order was entered in court today authorizing the receiver of the Columbian Celebration company, which built Steele Mayo's spectacularium, to sell the structure. The building was erected at a cost of $400,000, and sold for $2,000.

New Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The annual report of Governor W. T. Thornton, of New Mexico, states that the population of the territory has not materially changed during the past year. The total territorial indebtedness is $211,717, and the cash balance in the treasury $151,000, the latter taking the increase, as a result of last year's continuous drought. Many silver six shooters in spite of the decrease in silver value and the consequent greater stringency. The annual product of precious stones is rapidly increasing.

Anti-Silver Men's Dilemma.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 25.—The anti-silver Republicans in the Senate find themselves in a somewhat awkward predicament, and are trying to find a way out of it. It happens that the Republicans most desirous of sending the passage of the Wilson bill are the ones most anxious to prevent the passage of the elections bill and the tariff bill, which may appreciable will come to the fore in the course of time.

This state of affairs gives color to the report which was circulated today, and which is not without confirmation, that some Republican senators have shown a disposition to use their advocacy of the repeal bill to aid them in securing terms on the other bills.

RIO JANEIRO BOMBARDED.

The Extent of the Damage Not Yet Known to the Outside World.

Proclamation of the Leader of the Insurgents to the Brazilian People.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Herald's Montevideo says: The rebel fleet, which has so long been blockading the harbor at Rio de Janeiro, bombarded the city yesterday, under Admiral Mello's orders. The firing was very severe, and the damage done exceeds that of the first bombardment. Several women and children were killed, but the extent of the damage and loss of life is not yet known, as no one is permitted by the government to be sent direct from Rio de Janeiro. Part of Mello's fleet is still keeping up a vigorous blockade of the port.

Copies of Admiral Mello's proclamation have been received here. The leader of the revolters declares that President Peixoto, with the aid of corrupt members of the senate and venal deputies, is overriding the restrictions put upon their powers by the constitution. Peixoto, he asserts, is trying to place Brazil under the rule of absolute tyranny.

"With my aid," the proclamation continues, "in making his stand for liberty our cause shall triumph, I shall hand over the government to the charge of those to whom it owes its gave freedom to our native before."

The Argentine Row.

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 25.—Dispatches received here show that the situation is growing more serious every hour. The rebels are now pressing Santa Fe. It is now said that it was at Cosmos that Mello was interviewed by Captain Dunbrow, which gives authority to the board of lady managers to confer upon expert workmen, in addition to pecuniary awards, a fair quota of medals and diplomas. The executive committee of the national commission formulated a resolution declaring the adoption of the resolution unfair and unjust to all exhibitors, as it would greatly impair, if not wholly destroy, the value of all original awards and diplomas awarded. A protest is attached to the report, addressed to the Senate and House, representing that the resolution is dangerous to the interest of exhibitors and inadequate for the proper recognition of inventors, and therefore remonstrating against its passage.

Bald Heads!

What is the condition of Bald Heads? Why, they are all covered with a growth of hair, or else they are shiny and smooth as a pebble. Which shall it be? Shall we have hair or not? Shall we have a smooth head or a hairy one? Shall we have a head like a pebble or like a lion? Shall we have a head like a pebble or like a lion? Shall we have a head like a pebble or like a lion
