John T. Lewis of the Y. M. C. A. athletic team from Grand Rapids, Indiana, says he has been attending the games in Chicago. He comes back and will tell him that during his absence the C. B. C. A. and had chances on the lake. He was disappointed to say he is sure the boys are going to get a crack club at all events.

* * *

Mayor Eckstein, the much mentioned pitcher, has sought pastures new. Telegraphy received a dispatch from Pocatello telling him to join that town with a job thrown in. Eckstein could not or the sake of a salary and shipped to pop and board for bidus last night. The T. M. C. A. team is looking for another pitcher.

* * *

* * *

As each day passes developes more that indicates the head of the Kansas City team, Mr. Selee, Mr. Hanlon, by selling Lowdrie, the Tacoma-Angeles brought the club up to 25 and 25 games ahead of Selee's team. He stood at the top of the column for a long time little by little down to fifth place, and now he is in the second place. At Baltimore he found Dunn was a fluke, sent home from the Pennsylvania which resulted in a hit which has upset the Selee affair way. Cincinnati and New York through timely waiver in the last three issues Philadelphia's defeat by Chicago is put down to the former team having some of the best men on the hospital list. Pittsburg hit the ball hard and stole a game of the game with Washington.

* * *

Manager Tebeau went all the way to Omaha, where Mr. Mike Griffin plays, to the mission was not successful. All now the Brooklyn club may as well resign for a time and let Griffin, Selee, Jeff Bell, V. Smith, Jimmy Bell, Shaw, Gilbert, Gleason, Burns and Griffin.

* * *

The Cleveland club has released Charles Clements, Oliver Pierce and Jim Cleveland. Some new recruits will probably go to Detroit and Minneapolis to Kansas City.

* * *

Hugh Fullerton, Tribune has played a lick this season as regards pitchers. Tebeau, writing home for time for Jones and Cobb failure in the execution of the Fullerton.

* * *

Fuller Sullivan came to terms with the New York club for $1,500 and will join the Giants at Philadelphia. Sullivan adds greatly to the strength of the New York team.

* * *

Fuller Smith, of the Susquehanna University team, May 31, defeated Franklin and Marshall College, who had a hit. He was the best college pitcher this year in the state.

Last fall I sprained my left leg while hunting a wolf in Idaho. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well. I got worse and had to stop hunting and I had recourse to other doctors and I had recourse to other doctors and I tried everything I could hear of, but I could not get well. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and it cured me in a few days. I can recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Tulock, Erie, Pa.
