SECRET SOCIETIES.

Odd Fellows, Sons of Temperance and Knights of Pythias

NOW CONDEMNED BY THE POPE.

No Catholic Allowed to Retain Membership in Any of These Organizations.

WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 26.—Bishop Curtis issued the following letter to all the priests in the diocese of Wilmington:

"Reverend Father:—As soon as practical you will read on Sunday, at least once, the following document, and you will, I am sure, to the very utmost of your ability endeavor to procure from all whom the decree of the holy see may concern, a prompt and loyal obedience to this decree. When Christ speaks through his vicar and in such words there can be no question as to the purport of the utterance. A Catholic, cannot himself now be may, yet cease to be a Catholic if he fail to conform himself thoroughly and at once to that utterance.

Very faithfully your servant in Christ, "A. M. CURTIS,

"Bishop of Wilmington."

The enclosure was as follows:

"Most Reverend and Illustrious Sir—Your excellency cannot fail to know that the archbishops of over the various ecclesiastical provinces of the Republic of the United States have, in more than one of their assemblies, been counsel with respect to the societies which have grown up in the aforesaid Republic, namely: The Odd Fellows, the Sons of Temperance and the Knights of Pythias. And you must be aware that the aforesaid bishops unanimously decided that the whole question as to the societies should be committed to the judgment of the apostolic see. His holiness, therefore, committed this question to the Most Reverend Satolli and the cardinals-general.

"These, in general congregation held on Wednesday, June 20, 1894, confirming a decision previously made as to the aforementioned societies, decreed that all the ordinaries throughout the United States must in every way strive to keep the faithful from becoming members of any of the said societies and must not fail to admonish their people to that effect, and that any thus admonished must be debarred from the sacrament should they fail to abandon or keep aloof from the same societies.

"This decree his holiness confirmed and gave it complete effect. It is therefore communicated to your excellency, that, through you, it may be transmitted to all the archbishops, bishops and other ordinaries of the United States, and for the due custody of the souls of the faithful, may be, by these ordinaries, carried into effect. Meanwhile, I beseech Almighty God to bestow all benefits and blessings.

CAUGHT AT LAST.

An Alleged Defaulter After a Long Chase.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—William August Lippert, alias William Layrd, arrested in Cincinnati today, has led the officials a long chase. In August, 1893, Lippert, formerly a merchant in Capetown, South Africa, left England a confessed absconder, and located in Germany. The British authorities worked assiduously in searching for him, and had reason to believe that Lippert had fled to this country. Investigation went so far as to indicate that the absconder was in Trenton, N. J., and the British consul general placed the matter in the hands of detectives. Every possible effort was made to locate Lippert in Trenton, but in vain.

Recently Percy Sanderson, British consul in New York, reopened the search. He thought he had proof that the absconder was living in Cincinnati and detectives were sent from this city there. Lippert was located in Cincinnati December 20. He had been living there for some time under the name of Layard. Great care was exercised to prevent Lippert's friends from learning that his whereabouts were known, as there was some delay in having the proper papers forwarded to New York from London.

The day before Christmas the papers were ready, orders having been cabled to the consul at New York, and he went before the United States court and had a warrant issued for Lippert's arrest. This was placed in the hands of Deputy United States Marshal Edward W. Bostwick of New York, who arrived at Cincinnati on Christmas. Today as Lippert was leaving his boarding house he was placed under arrest. He made no resistance and at once acknowledged his identity.

Marshal Bostwick started at once for New York, and the prisoner will be taken to England for trial immediately.

WINTER AT LAST.

Severe Snowstorm and Frost in Eastern and Southern States.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 26.—Louisville is experiencing the heaviest snowstorm that has visited this section in some years. The snow began falling about 1 o'clock this morning and continued incessantly ever since. It is estimated at midnight that fully ten inches has fallen and it is still snowing.

Reports from Henderson, Owensboro and Paducah say that the snow is heavy and still falling. Lexington reports heavy snow throughout the Bluegrass region.

Cattlefeeding reports a heavy fall and still snowing there and at points up the Big Sandy.

MEMPHIS, Dec. 26.—Three inches of snow fell in some sections of Tennessee and Arkansas today, the temperature falling fifteen degrees in the last few hours, the thermometer reading 10 at 7 o'clock tonight.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 26.—A snowstorm began here this evening which bids fair to break the record. Eight inches have already fallen, almost completely stopping street cars.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 26.—Zero weather is reported tonight at all points of a line drawn from Alberta, N. W. T., to the northern boundary line of South Dakota and from there northeasterly through Duluth, the mercury ranging from zero to 22 below over the territory indicated.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 26.—This section of the state was visited last night by a heavy snow storm and today there has been a rapid fall of the temperature.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—At 5 o'clock this evening snow began to fall. The velocity of the wind increased until at midnight a hurricane was blowing with the snow falling thickly.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—A violent snowstorm accompanied by high winds and hail is raging here tonight.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 26.—The first severe storm of the season appeared here today.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—A heavy snowstorm began here this afternoon and when evening came about an inch of snow covered the ground.

OMAHA, Dec. 26.—Throughout Nebraska a light snow has been falling for the greater part of the day. In some portions the storm assumed almost the proportions of a blizzard. The weather bureau promises a fall of 20 degrees in Omaha by tomorrow afternoon, bringing the temperature down to zero.

JEWS IN AMERICA.

Data Relating to Their History in This Country.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The third annual meeting of the Jewish Historical society began here today at the Arlington hotel, with a larger attendance than usual. Hon. Oscar S. Straus, the president delivered an address of welcome.

The society, he said, had enjoyed a general and healthy growth, and, year by year, the papers read at the annual meetings revealed new data, and the answers of investigation felt deeper into history of the early settlement of the continent. The greatest space particularly of the immigration of Jews to America. They came as fugitives from Spain, in spite of the stringent laws which existed until 1657 against such immigration and was only removed then by the payment of a ransom by the Jews in the American colony.

"I have every belief," said Mr. Straus, "that a careful investigation will reveal a much larger immigration to America and the contiguous islands than history has taken note of. The closing chapter of the history of the Jews in Spain and Portugal are the opening chapters of their history on this continent and closely connected with the early settlement in North America."

A number of papers were read today, including the following: "Jews in Surinam," by Professor Richard Gottheil of Columbian College, New York; "First Jewish Settlers in Albany," written by Judge S. M. Rosendale of New York, and read by the secretary; "The Earliest Rabbis and Jewish Authors in America," by Dr. M. Kayserling of Budapesth, Austria, and read by the secretary; "The American Jewish Soldiers," by Hon. Simon Wolff of Washington. Mr. Wolff presented figures to show that in the War of the Rebellion there were about 7,000 Jewish soldiers enlisted.

RAINIER EXPEDITION.

Another Message Sent by a Homing Pigeon.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 26.—The following message came to Puyallup by a homing pigeon sent by the Post-Intelligencer Mount Rainier party:

"CAMP MOUNTAIN VIEW, Foot of Carbon Glacier, Wednesday, Dec. 26.—While crossing the Winthrop glacier yesterday Major Ingraham made a critical examination of Blaine glacier, by way of which the ascent to the summit was to have been made, and found that the ice and snow was so broken that an attempt to climb up would have proven disastrous. Consequently the summit was not attempted."

The expedition has been an entire success. It has demonstrated that while the mountain has been both smoking and steaming the change is due primarily to tremendous avalanches and not to an eruption. The new peak observed from Seattle is off Columbia's crest, and was formed by equinoctial winds carrying the snow and whipping it into the cone-shaped peak described. The party will be home Friday.

Discrepancy in the Accounts.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 26.—The Herald says: Expert accountants have been going over the books in City Treasurer Adams's office. Their report, which will be presented to the board of county commissioners today, shows a total shortage of $60,848. Of this $35,340 was found in the accounts of the treasurer.

A discrepancy of $24,430 is shown in the amounts drawn by Cashier L. T. Terney for the payment of juries. This discrepancy is against Terney.

Cotton in Washtub.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 26.—George H. Eastwick, manager of the sugar refinery and a member of the firm of Havemeyer & Eastwick, and Miss Celeste Stouffer, the young lady who was engaged to Samuel J. Tilden, and to whom he left $800,000 in his will, were married at the Jesuits' church today.

Supplies for the Indians.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26.—Commissioner of Indian Affairs Browning telegraphed a reply to Agent Day's dispatch this afternoon. The agent is instructed to purchase beef and flour and ship supplies from Ignacio, Colo., as requested, and to submit vouchers for the purchases to the department.

Southern Chief Towed In.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 26.—The derelict bark Southern Chief, which was abandoned last Friday off Cape Flattery, was towed into port today. Her masts and rigging and her cargo of 800,000 feet of lumber are in good condition.

AS A DEFAULTER.

Clerk of a New York Bank Arrested on the Charge.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Edward B. Carter, teller and paying clerk at the National Bank of Commerce, No. 29 Nassau street, was arrested this afternoon as a defaulter. Carter is charged with appropriating $30,000 of the bank's money, and, it is said, confessed his guilt. He is 41 years old.

He lived with his wife and two children, a daughter 22 years, and a son 12 years old, in Brooklyn. For twenty-nine years Carter has been in the employ of the bank. According to the story he told to the police, he began his peculations two years ago, at first taking only small sums. He would say very little about himself to the police, and notwithstanding clients as to what induced him to take the money and what he did with it. To the bank officials he was not so reticent.

HAVING MANIAC

He Says He Is Dissatisfied With Cleveland's Administration.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 26.—A. W. Allen, of New Jerusalem, Texas, was arrested upon the charge of insanity. He arrived over the Southern Pacific from Houston, Texas, and claims that he was not satisfied with the way Grover Cleveland was running affairs, and was on his way to Washington to kill him when interrupted by officers.

He was locked up in a cell last night, which he almost demolished during the night. He tore the boards from the wall and did considerable damage. He was almost made insane during the night when the officers removed him from the demolished cell to another.

Allen claims she that somebody is after him to do him up. In his writings he sees all kinds of dreams, and this morning said that he would take the dead and make the sea give up its treasures. He says he has a wife and several little brothers, and thinks they will come to his rescue and release him from jail.

Judge Cole remanded Allen to the workhouse to be examined by the city physicians.

SHE ADMITS HER GUILT.

A Small Woman Under Arrest for Burglary.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 26.—Mrs. Hettie Pike, a small, inoffensive-looking woman, is under arrest in this city on a charge of burglary and she admits her guilt. She made repeated calls to the home of Mrs. James H. Ives, sister of Mayor South of Highlands, in the absence of the family, first entering through a window and afterwards by means of a key, and indeed the place of the portable articles of value.

She took the plunder to the residence of Mrs. Bertha K. Shaw, a wealthy friend with whom she was staying, and packed it in trunks which she took out to the depot. Mrs. Pike alleged poverty as a reason for her crime.

Our "War" With Spain.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Unless the Spanish government within a very short time indicates its purpose to remove the restrictions now placed on American commerce with the Spanish West Indies to the imposition of the maximum tariff on American commodities, it is probable the President will issue a proclamation imposing "discriminating flag duties" upon Spanish, Cuban and Porto Rican vessels coming into the United States. The intention of this purpose on the part of the President is distinctly conveyed in a request received by the treasury department from the department of state to furnish it with detailed information as to the amount of such imports and a list of the vessels carrying the Spanish flag which trade with our ports. It was the original intention of the state department to have recourse to the power of prohibition of Spanish trade conferred by the act of 1890, but as this power has never been exercised, and as it has been deemed best to follow the line of precedent, it is quite clear that the department has taken back upon section 4228 of the Revised Statutes.

Football Game to a Row.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 27.—The football game at Woodland Park between a Rockville eleven and the Rockland team, broke up in a free fight in the second half. One of the spectators from Rockville, of the name of Milne, got into a dispute with a Manchester man and the latter struck him. Milne had a brother on the Rockville eleven and to avenge the blow he struck another Manchester man. The playing stopped and the two sides piled in and fought up and down for ten minutes, and then the spectators joined in. There were plenty of punches faces on all sides.

A number of the Rockland men were injured so badly that they had to be taken home in carriages. Milne's injuries may prove fatal.

FLAGLER'S PLANS.

The Standard Oil Company Has Wanted in Texas.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Henry M. Flagler, of the Standard Oil company, whom the state of Texas wants to get within its jurisdiction to an indictment on the anti-trust law of the state, was too busy last night to discuss the news that Governor Mitchell of Florida has honored the requisition of Governor Hogg of Texas. In answer to inquiries as to what course he proposed to pursue in the matter, his secretary, W. H. Beardsley, said:

"In the first place Mr. Flagler is a resident of New York and of Florida. He has, however, a place at St. Augustine and he intends to go there with his family just as soon as his business will permit. That will be some time next month. No date has yet been fixed. It is his custom sometimes to go early, sometimes late, but he always goes in January. He will not change his plans this year.

When asked if it was Mr. Flagler's intention to resist arrest upon the requisition Mr. Beardsley said:

"Mr. Flagler will use only the protection and rights that the humblest citizen."

The counsel of the Standard Oil company said that if Mr. Flagler was arrested when he reached Florida, he would probably apply to the United States circuit court for a writ of habeas corpus, pending the arguing of which he would be admitted to bail.

NEW YEAR'S CHIMES.

Silver Tongued Bells Will Once More Be Heard in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The Trinity chimes will once more ring in the glad new year. A year ago at the request of prominent pew holders the rector announced that the bells would not be rung as customary. He excused his action on the ground that the noise of the crowd surrounding the church drowned the holiest tones of the chimes. The widespread regret occasioned by this announcement moved the rector to modify his order. He signified a willingness to have the chimes rung as usual, if Superintendent Byrnes would assure perfect quiet on the street below. This the superintendent declined to do, on the ground that it would be impossible to keep a throng of 10,000 or more quiet, especially when the same crowd was lured on making all the noise and noise possible for the human mind to conceive.

This year, however, the silvery toned bells will again extend a New Years' greeting to New Yorkers.

Mr. Byrnes has already modified his request to the head of the police department. If Superintendent Byrnes will assure that he will do all in his power to prevent noise in the street after the hour of midnight, Dr. Huntington will give orders to have the bells ring. The program I have in view will take an hour to render, so that the opening notes will be struck about Third on Monday night.
