WRECKED STEAMER.

Some Additional Details of the Loss of the Steamship "Suetta."

TWO RAILROAD COLLISIONS IN PHILADELPHIA.

$125,000 Fire at Detroit.—Flood in Wisconsin.—Water Tank Catastrophe.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

The Loss of the "Suetta."

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—Advices by the steamer Mariposa from Australia give the details of the loss of the steamer Suetta, off Thendah Island, March 1st: About 9 o'clock in the morning the passengers were startled by the sudden grating of the vessel's keel on a sunken rock. In less than a minute the Suetta sank out of sight, leaving 319 people struggling in the waves. Some were borne under in the state rooms or caught in the rigging, while others were fortunate enough to lay hold of floating wreckage. One hundred and thirteen lives were lost, the most of them whites. Many of the survivors suffered severely from exposure and injuries.

The rock on which the vessel struck is not on the chart and is in a place designated by the admiralty as having twelve fathoms of water.

Railroad Collisions.

PHILADELPHIA, April 13.—There were two collisions on the Pennsylvania railroad this afternoon, two men being killed, two seriously wounded and another badly injured.

The first occurred on the New York branch, near Ridge Avenue station, where two freight trains collided by reason of a wrong signal. The engineer of one train was killed.

A more serious wreck occurred on the Delaware extension, at Hamburg station, where the fireman of one engine was killed, the engineer seriously and perhaps fatally injured, one brakeman dangerously hurt and another badly injured.

Fire in Michigan.

DETROIT, April 13.—A fire this evening gutted the fourth and fifth floors of the Hotel Plankinton and the lower floors were damaged by water. A chambermaid overturned a lamp and caused the fire. She was seriously burned. The loss is estimated at $125,000; insurance $40,000.

Flood in Wisconsin.

OSHKOSH, Wis., April 13.—Reports from New London state that Wolf River has overflowed its banks and the adjacent streets are flooded. The recent rains melting the snow caused the rise. Persons along the river banks were compelled to move their goods to the second stories.

A Water Tank Falls.

PHILADELPHIA, April 13.—A five thousand gallon water tank, weighing with the contents twenty tons, crashed through the roof of the Park Theater, wrecking half of the stage. The tank went clear through to the cellar, where everything was flooded. The concussion was so great that the window glass and dishes of adjoining houses were broken, and a panic prevailed for a time.

Meeting of Anarchists.

BERLIN, April 13.—A large meeting of unemployed workmen was held here today. Some of the speakers indulged in such violent and anarchial language that the police finally dispersed the crowd.

Portuguese Expedition.

LONDON, April 13.—Advices from Mozambique are that Portugal has dispatched a large armed force up the Shire river with the intention of attacking Mpwanda.

Sullivan's Proposition.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Jack McAuliffe yesterday telegraphed Richard K. Fox: "Announce that I will meet Patsy Kerrigan of Boston for $500 a side on the Police Gazette championship belt. Let John L. Sullivan put up."

Matched.

SYDNEY, April 13.—O'Connor and Stansbury have been matched to row on the Paramatta on June 23rd.

A Ministry Resigns.

LONDON, April 13.—A dispatch from Buenos Ayres announces the resignation of the Argentine ministry.

A Steamer Burned.

ERIE, Pa., April 12.—The steamer Chenango loaded with wheat from Toledo for Buffalo, burned off this port last night. When approached by a life-saving crew no sign of the crew could be discovered. After staying by until she sunk the life savers returned.

Randall's Death.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—5:10 a. m.—Congressman Randall died at 4 o'clock this morning.

Cowhided.

ELBERTON, Ga., April 12.—Editor Harper, of the Gazette, met Hon. Phil. W. Davis, member of the Georgia legislature from this county, yesterday evening and drawing a cowhide laid it upon the legislator's back with energy.

The men married cousins. When Harper had told his story in private to half a dozen citizens they called a public meeting and passed resolutions calling on Mr. Davis to resign his seat in the legislature and to leave the city within six hours never to return. This morning the gentleman is gone. Both men stood in the highest circles.

Opinion is solid against Davis. Col. Davis was elected representative from Elberton County, a prohibition stronghold on the wet ticket election, defeating several strong candidates. Since his election he has been drinking, which accounts for his downfall. His wife is a niece of Harper, the man who cowhided him and both men belong to one of the best families in the State.

Vicious Battle Between Cattle and Hogs.

COLUMBUS, Ind., April 12.—A bloody battle of vicious stock took place in the northeast part of this county yesterday. A heifer with a yearling calf was set upon by thirty hogs and both were devoured. A drove of cattle in another pasture becoming infuriated at the smell of the slain cow and calf, broke the fence down, charged the hogs in their bloody work, and gored them so viciously that eighteen were killed and ten wounded. The battlefield presented a sickening appearance.

California Pioneers.

CHICAGO, April 12.—The New England Society of California Pioneers arrived herson a special train this afternoon on their way west. The party numbered 175. They remained in the city three hours, during which time they were given a rousing reception by the Chicago society. They were taken first to the Auditorium Opera House, which was specially lighted up for them; then to Sie Grand Pacific, where an elaborate luncheon and happy speeches and exchange of reminiscences consumed the remainder of their stay.

Dead Bodies Recovered.

MONTREAL, April 12.—Three bodies were found in a canal this morning. One was that of Patrick Cahill, a well-to-do soda water manufacturer of Point St. Charles, who disappeared St. Patrick's Day. Another was that of M. J. Jolly, lost three weeks ago, and the other that of an old man not yet identified.

A Hungarian Crime.

VIENNA, April 12.—The most remarkable of modern crimes has just come to light at Tenesewar, Hungary. Two villagers named Szapular and Gillie attempted and killed Maretz Husig, a grocer, of Modostor. The murderers were arrested and confessed, but claimed that they had been hired to do the deed by Arsenl Radussen. The latter promptly admitted the charge and said that he had perpetrated the crime because he owed Hanselg 270 florins, and he had discharged his debt by paying the murderers 25 florins to put his creditor out of the way. The payment was made in promissory notes. The wives of the assassins are suing Radussen for the money by civil action.

An Irish Celebration.

DUBLIN, April 12.—Deputies from all parts of Ireland attended the ceremonies of opening the town of New Tipperary this afternoon, but, owing to some neglect in notifying the people, the attendance of peasants from outlying districts was smaller than expected. A procession formed, with the visiting mayors in full regalia, and members of municipal councils, in uniform, at the head. The scene was one of great enthusiasm. Houses were gaily decorated, and pictures of Gladstone, Parnell, O'Brien and other patriots everywhere displayed. Upon arriving at the platform opposite the market the procession halted. Addresses were presented to the English visitors from the town commissioners and the tenants' defense committee. Davitt said the first care of evicted tenants had been to provide for their poorer brethren. That fact would redound to the honor of the Irish name and to the advantage of the national cause.

O'Brien said the scenes they were witnessing had no parallel in the history of Ireland. In eloquent terms he described the people's triumph in this struggle, which had roused the whole Irish race. When the national fight was ended it would be their proudest thought that the men of Tipperary had risked their homes and property, liberties and lives, for justice and this dear land.

A grand banquet was given this evening, at which 600 guests were present. Cannon Othelem presided. Letters of apology for absence were read from numerous English liberals.
