SOME COURT ECHOES.

The Darkies Held.—Dave Jodan Goes Free.—Release from the "Pen."

Having had a preliminary examination before Commissioner Greenman late yesterday afternoon on a charge of a felony (the complaint preferred by the husband of the woman), Artie Jones and Frank Richards (colored) were held to await the grand jury's action in a bond of $500 and $500 respectively. Failing to obtain the required sureties they have gone to the "pen," until again wanted. A witness for the prosecution named W. H. Knox was also bound over to appear before the grand jury in the sum of $500, to answer a charge of perjury.

Dave Jodan, an employe of the Union Pacific Railway Co. at Coalville, who assaulted Homer Warren, another railroad man at a masque ball, has been discharged upon the payment of costs. The facts were reported in yesterday's NEWS. The complainant withdrew from the case.

John H. Burke, W. L. Crump and John Kane have been released from the penitentiary. Burke and Kane were sent up from the third district court on June 15, 1891, for two years for burglary, and Crump on March 16, 1892, for one year for assault.

Fred Wanless, administrator, has filed an action against W. H. Wilkinson in Justice Hall's court to collect a merchandise bill of $62.65.

Smith & Shipp have filed a suit against James Dwyer in Commissioner Ferguson's court and demand a judgment for $130.40 for services alleged to have been rendered.

The case of Charles Miller vs. the Inland Crystal Salt company, in which Commissioner Mayer rendered judgment in favor of the plaintiff recently for $125.70, will be appealed to the Third District court by the defendants.

He Does Not Favor It.

Governor A. L. Thomas is in receipt of a letter from Governor Markham of California, stating that at the last election the question was submitted to the voters of California whether or not they favored an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of United States senators by popular choice. The result was that 117,000 voters favored such an amendment and 15,000 voted against it. The Governor of Utah says he is not favorable to the election of United States senators by popular vote.

MR. R. C. CHAMBERS' BIRTHDAY

His Friends of the Utah World's Fair Commission Remember Him.

Secretary McDonald, of the Utah World's Fair Commission, during yesterday notified all the commissioners to be at his office at 8 o'clock prompt last evening, special care being taken to have President R. C. Chambers there. The request met with a universal response, and the "unconscious" president himself was one of the first to arrive. Meanwhile Commissioners Mackintosh and Empey, with their wives, Miss Edith Weller, private secretary, and Miss Emily C. Clowes, chief clerk of the bureau of information, effected an entrance to Mr. Chambers' private rooms, which adjoin the departments of the Commission on the fifth floor of the Dooly block.

The president having been sent for, he was astonished to find a number of lady friends there. He was immediately showered with congratulations on the occasion of his birthday. Refreshments were next in order.

Vice President Mackintosh, in behalf of the commission, presented the president with a magnificent book of engravings entitled "American Art." All present inscribed their names on the fly leaf in commemoration of the event.

Mr. Chambers suitably and feelingly replied, and assured his friends that he appreciated their kindness far more than feeble words could express.

The company included Governor Thomas, Commissioner Lannan, Mr. and Mrs. Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Mackintosh, Mr. and Mrs. Empey, E. A. McDaniel, J. E. Dooly, Miss Edith Weller, Miss Clowes, Miss Blanche Mackintosh.

The ceremony proper over, a pleasant time was passed.

Not a Bright Prospect.

Last night the subjoined communication came to hand from Eureka regarding the closing down of the Bullion Beck & Champion mine: "The Bullion-Beck mine at Eureka is practically closed down, the miners having refused to accept the terms of the company for a reduction of 50 cents per day in their wages. It is stated that the miners offered to accept the reduction during the low price of silver if the company would secure the old rate when silver would reach a better figure, but that such assurance was not given. The prospect for a resumption of work is not believed to be very bright, unless some compromise is effected on that basis."

Polytechnic Society.

The regular monthly meeting of the Polytechnic society will be held at their rooms, 612, 613 Progress building on Friday evening at 8 p. m., Jan. 20, 1893. The principal topics of discussion will be, "The Advisability and Utility of a Great Public Driveway or Boulevard Around Salt Lake City;" "Palaces on Our City Streets." Other matters in their order.

To this meeting the people are invited as well as members.
