OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, MAY 28, 1895.

Tough Sentence.

Judge King was on the bench in the Fourth district court yesterday and passed two heavy sentences. This was in the case of George Sullivan, a notorious man, for robbing Charles Graves, of Brownville, on Twelfth street. Judge King sentenced him to six years in the penitentiary. The case of Marion Kennedy, a young man in years of age, charged with the offence of an assault with intent to commit an outrage, Kennedy had been employed at Harris C. Christensen's and his wife Caroline, an aged couple at Slide Springs, Box Elder county. On February 1 Kennedy took their young daughter and with Fannie Christensen concealed her, when, it appears by the father he had the latter in a drinking condition and upon the latter's return to the mother found upon her and she did not feel kindly. He has served a month of some many from the county. He was sentenced to seven years in the pen.

Damage Suit.

A suit was filed yesterday by Marks, Marquis & Weber against Mr. Carter, agent Nat. D. Atkinson, U. S. marshal, and Charles Robertson, deputy U. S. marshal, for $10,000 damages for false imprisonment. This is the outgrowth of the suit of Ney vs Carter for illegal seizure of property. Carter was held by the marshal and judgment of the court against him for $7,000.

Licensed to Marry.

A marriage license was issued to Sidney G. Dugdale, 24, of Ogden, and Miss Annie A. Peterson, 17, of Peterson, Morgan county.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, MAY 28, 1895.

Pleasant View Resting House.

The resting house of the Pleasant View ward was dedicated yesterday afternoon. Among those present were Elder Edward Partridge, David John and Hugh Saxon, of the Church Church presidency, Bishop Gillespie, of the ward, and his counselors, Elders Conrad and Elder, Thomas Sadler and Chancelor Watson, of the Fourth ward. There was a large attendance of the members of the ward and visitors from other wards. The Fourth ward choir assisted in furnishing the music.

The dedatory prayer was offered by Elder David John, and appropriate remarks were made by Elders Saxon, Partridge and Gillespie. The meeting was administered to by the gospel and local Church authorities were assisted.

The building is a fine brick structure which has been erected at a cost of about $1,500, and is a credit to the good people of the young ward.

Notes and Personals.

Mayor Holbrook made a call upon the citizens to turn out Tuesday and Wednesday to clean up the county in preparatory to the celebration of Decoration Day.

The committee having in charge the memorial day celebration are preparing a very interesting program for the occasion.

The first home grown early potatoes were shown Monday by Mr. J. P. Carter of the Tater ward.

At the memorial services in the Stake tabernacle on Monday the addresses were delivered by Hon. W. H. King and Bev. Joseph Wiles, the latter of the M. E. Church. The services were attended by the G. A. R. veterans of the W. L. Sherman post and company M of the N. G. U. to uniform.

The Red Signal Light Secure.

The red signal lights are now secured at Lincoln's Vice of cut-off, and have arrived in Provo's station. The secure of a which is and good signal, and each day here. The red light is a place, so that by night one sees of them. If there is spot, [illegible] the signal lights, [illegible] with the [illegible] complete. They can be seen and [illegible] 12 or 15 miles each. [illegible]

"Old Reliable Brown"

"Old Reliable Brown" is an [illegible] [illegible] Brown's Cough Cure and Lung Compounds is a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]