PARKER ACCEPTS SUM OF $1,000.

Compromise of $15,000 Damage Suit Against Salt Lake City.

WAS INJURED IN A TRENCH

Suit Against the Cottle Estate on Trial—Mrs. Bitter Wins 10 Damage Case.

The $15,000 damage suit of Charles H. Parker, a laborer, against Salt Lake City, which was set for trial in the law department of the Third district court today was compromised, before the jury was sworn, by the city confessing judgment for $1,000.

In August 1898 Parker was engaged in the excavation of a trench, near the mouth of emigration canyon, when the earth caved in completely burying him and fracturing the bones of both his shoulders, as well as breaking a left rib bone. In his complaint he alleged that the extent of his injuries were such as to prevent him from doing any further manual labor.

The negligence complained of against the city was the failure of the foreman to properly timber or brace the trench, which was eleven feet or more deep and about four feet wide.

The city was represented today by Assistant City Attorney C. S. Stewart and the plaintiff by Attorney Joseph Lippman.

THE COTTLE ESTATE.

Trial of the Husband's Suit Against Administrator for Moneys Expended.

The case of Harry E. Cottle vs A. W. Harbould, administrator of the estate of Lucy E. Cottle, deceased, came on for trial before a jury in Judge Cherry's court this afternoon. The plaintiff was the husband of Lucy E. Cottle and he brought this suit to recover the sum of $[illegible] which he alleges he spent for the improvement of her property, during her life time and before the defendant was appointed administrator.

The defendant filed an answer and counter-claim denying the allegations of the complaint and setting up a claim of $[illegible], which, it is alleged, the plaintiff failed to account to the estate for.

Lee & Hillis appeared for plaintiff, and Pierce, Criticher & Barrette for the defendant.

Probate Orders.

Estate of John S. Lewis, deceased; hearing on petition for confirmation of real estate referred to Clerk Blair.

Estate of Charlotte Talcott Young West, deceased; order made to sell personal property.

Estate of Maria Jane Holes, deceased; John Hosse appointed administrator under a $25 bond.

Estate of Alexander Garrick, deceased; order made for distribution of estate; George E. Blair appointed special trustee to receive distributive shares of John Garrick and Agnes Garrick Bradley, absent heirs.

Mrs. Bitter Wins.

The jury in the damage suit of Elizabeth Bitter vs E. E. Rich returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff this afternoon assessing her damages at $[illegible]. The plaintiff, an elderly lady, sued to recover $[illegible] damages for injuries received by falling over a truck handle in front of defendant's store, in July, 1898.

Anna Marks has commenced action against Thomas E. Taylor et al to recover the sum of $1,000 on a promissory note secured by a trust deed.

SAM GRICE AGAIN HELD.

Charges of Theft as Long as the Beef Investigation.

The notorious Samuel Grice was brought before Justice Parder again this afternoon at 2 o'clock to answer to the charge of burglary. The complaint was sworn to by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Chumnock April 7, who charged Grice with entering the barn of H. C. Mentzer at 324 west South Temple street and stealing one single harness.

W. O. Odell, a driver for the Atlantic Tea company of which Mr. Mentzer is proprietor, testified that on the night the harness was taken he hitched it up in the barn mentioned and the next morning it was gone. Deputy Chumnock said he found the harness among that which was located at Amos Pendlebrooker's farm.

Chas. Carter testified that Grice brought the harness to the said farm, the day previous to his (Grice's) arrest.

J. M. Hamilton, who defended Grice, was willing to submit the case and Grice was sent back to the county jail in default of a bond of $[illegible].

PRESIDENT'S DAY.

The Event Pleasantly Celebrated by the Woman's Club.

A memorable club event occurred yesterday afternoon in the celebration of Presidents day at the Woman's club in the city and county building.

The room was bright with early spring flowers used to decorate the room for the occasion and now as tributes to the guest of honor Mrs. J. C. Hoyle, and the president of the club Mrs. J. T. Gilmer, each of whom were presented during the meeting with a fragrant bouquet of sweet peas.

Mrs. Hoyle today introduced by the president spoke of the "Growth of Club Life in Salt Lake," from its beginning twenty years ago, in the initial organization of the "Blue Tea," up to the present time, with its splendid accomplishments, alike throughout the state, together with the ever-widening aims of these organizations.

Speaking of the exclusive spirit of the first club Mrs. Hoyle told of the broader aims that had actuated the organization of the Ladies' Literary Club, the second woman's club of Utah, the first being devoted to the culture of the few, while the latter aimed at the education of the many. From that initial effort towards broader aims in club work, has evolved the present advanced system evidenced in the club organizations throughout the state. The women's club in particular was noted in a pretty compliment from the Ogden club, as broad mottoes and principles, standing amongst the most progressive and useful societies of the state.

Following her Mrs. C. E. Allen spoke of the importance of the club offering to its members, public and social practice, yet amongst women and preparing them to take part in solving the great economic, political and social problems with which the near century must deal.

Mrs. Wm. H. Jennings spoke of the prominence already attained by social clubs, reading as illustration extracts from Mrs. M. A. Crely's "History of the Woman's club movement in America," in which the names of a number of Salt Lake clubs were mentioned, together with those of the founders and prominent workers in the organizations showing that Utah has been in the world's attention, through the important club organizations it contains.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walker and Mrs. M. T. Maynard made interesting addresses, the former upon the subject of the "Progressive club methods and systems in California, with the purpose of applying the same in Utah's new university and the latter upon reminiscences of the "club mothers," Mrs. Lucy H. Hosmer of Michigan and Mrs. Caroline Severance, both of whom enjoyed the high distinction, with Mrs. Hoyle, of being original founders of women's clubs in their respective States.

At the close of the exercises refreshments were served, a pleasant informal chat and reunion closing the delightful and interesting event.

THE NEW BOOK ON UTAH.

Published by Union Pacific on State's Resources and Attractions.

Judge Colborn's Broad Minded Treatment of Social and Political Conditions—Loyalty Everywhere.

The long awaited book on "Utah, its resources and attractions" announced some time ago by the Union Pacific as being in the press is just out and a copy has been furnished the "News." The work is done by Rand McNally and company, Chicago, and the author is Judge E. F. Colborn of this city. The enterprise of the Union Pacific in preparing the book cannot be too highly commended. It is a work which will be invaluable to people who seek information regarding our State and an examination of its pages shows that there is little left unsaid regarding our agricultural and mineral resources, stock raising and manufacturing industries, our institutions, our attractions, and our climate. It will form a veritable guide book to the traveller and be certain to have immense circulation. Every county in the State is given a place within its pages and all the resources of the State are up to the present time are fully treated of. An interesting feature being the many historical facts which have been grouped together; the broad mind and the trenchant pen of Judge Colborn are well illustrated in his treatment of "the Mormon question" without which of course, no pamphlet on Utah would be complete. A quotation from this part of the work is as follows:

"The Mormon question belongs to the past. It is no longer discussed in Utah. It is of no importance in connection with present conditions in the State, and will in no manner affect the State's future growth or prosperity. The halcyon and unchristlikeness once provoked by it no longer exists in Utah, and but for the fact that there are in the East persons who still believe that it is a factor in the social, religious, and business life of the State, the discussion of the question might well be eliminated from every published book and article covering Utah. It is considered that during the first thirty-five years of Utah's territorial existence the relations between the "Mormons" and the Gentiles were more or less strained. How could they well have been otherwise? The "Mormons" had fled from what they believed to be the persecutions of the Eastern people, and, unmindful of the lessons of the effort, had moved 1,000 miles into the wilderness, there to build up a commonwealth wherein they could control the affairs—business and governmental. Naturally, they felt a proprietorship over the region they occupied, and looked with disfavor upon the coming of those who brought other beliefs and methods more different from their own. * * * National politics at this time received no attention but two political antagonisms—The People's Party, representative of the Mormon element, and the Liberal party, representative of the Gentile element—for over thirty years contended for political mastery. The Mormonites opposed to their political party were not to be discussed here, for they have long since passed away. For many years before the Liberal party closed it was apparent that these antagonisms were decreasing, and that the Gentiles, instead of being a factor in drawing nearer together, "Time signs reduced the beginning of the end, and the end came when the "Mormons" gave up the dominant party, surrendered polygamy, and assented to the dissolution of Church and State. These concessions were at once received by the mass of the Gentiles because of the spirit with which they were made. The Liberal party disbanded with but one dissenting vote, and amicable relations, hands, old hatreds were dissipated, and there began in Utah an era of peace and good will far more perfect than could have existed had it not been preceded with years of strife and conflict. Today no one well informed about Utah will dispute from the editor's statement that there is not anywhere in the United States a more united, loyal, progressive, and law-abiding people than the people of the "Mormon" faith. The name 'Gentile' and 'Mormon' are seldom now heard in Utah. The two classes commingle in social and business affairs, and religious belief has long since ceased to be a factor in politics.

RAILWAY ECONOMICS.

Roadside Volume Issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The department of agriculture at Washington has just issued a little book entitled, Railway Economics, which gives the principal facts that exhibit the position of railway transportation in the present industrial life of the United States. The book is from the pen of H. T. Newcomb, L. L. M., chief of the section of transportation in the division of statistics of the United States department of agriculture, and instructor in economics and transportation in Columbia University. The book is a compact and readable volume, filled with substantive statistics, with incisive comment, and philosophical deductions. A review of the work will appear in the "News."

Wool Moves Slowly.

There is pretty strong competition among the railroad men in hauling and handling wool, but not much movement as yet. Perhaps two cars a day are moving now, as compared with about twenty per day at this time last year.

Salt Lake and Ogden Line.

Mr. Bancroft, president and manager of the Salt Lake & Ogden road, accompanied by Engineer Yoh, left for over to the Lagoon in Farmington to-morrow to look into some contemplated improvement work there.

COLLECTION OF CURIOS.

Harold M. Pitt Sends Them to Joe Enzenspergerr from Manila.

Mr. Joe Enzenspergerr, the proprietor of the Oxford saloon on Second South street, is the recipient of some of the most interesting and unique collections of curios ever sent to Salt Lake. The souvenirs were sent to Mr. Enzenspergerr from Manila by a former Salt Lakeer, Mr. Harold M. Pitt, who at present is the secretary of the Broadstreet's mercantile agency in this city.

One of the most attractive of the articles is a Spanish flag, which is about three feet wide and about four feet long. This flag was found in the residence of General Rios, who commanded the Spanish forces at Iloilo, although Mr. Enzenspergerr is a Spanish adherer of the Spaniard, he thinks a good deal of the flag in his possession. There is another flag, which, he said, must be worth at least one hundred dollars. It had reference to a beautiful vermont lady who had a brother and who was captured in the great rebellion and was rescued by the Filipino soldiers after the victory over the Spanish July 12th, 1898. The volunteers of vermont and a friendship followed. There also is a pair of brass slippers, worn by Filipino women, that resemble those of Scandinavia first gear. Four packages of very hard looking tobacco, and a long, slender and black cigar made of the tobacco, are also in the collection. A gentleman who was examining the weed remarked: "By thunder, I'm more than thankful that I can not in the Philippines, if I had to smoke that truck!" A copy of "La Revolucion," the official organ of the Filipinos, published tri-weekly at Jaro, completes the outfit.

WANTS OFFICE BADLY.

Disguised Man from Missouri Wants to be Deputy Marshal.

One Jerome B. Page, of Independence, Mo., who claims to have aunts, uncles, and twenty-three cousins in Missouri, is now in the city and has filed an application with Deputy Marshal Glen Miller of this city for employment as a deputy marshal. He mentions among his qualifications 15 years experience among the Mormons, that he has served warrants on those high up in their harem to 1's jake of their footsteps." Like the editor of the "Tribune, he says, "There are some things pertaining to that people that I am satisfied will make trouble for this government." He adds that "if the priesthood of the harem droped (dropped) onto me that they would have my scalp inside of two days and I know I'd have to leave the State in the loss time that it takes to tell it." but, he goes on to say, "I am single and know how to deal with them did." He wants to be a county marshal in order, he says, to let the government "know the private workings of that Mormon harem in the west."

BANKRUPT DISCHARGED.

In the bankruptcy case of Wm. L. McCabe, the petitioner was this afternoon finally discharged from all his debts.

BROUGHT FOUR THOUSAND.

United States Marshal Miller today sold from the front steps of the joint building the Mineral Springs and New-Ton-Dell mining claims, located at Bingham. The property was bid in by the judgment creditors, William Eckman and John Nelson, for $4,000.

POLICE TO CARRY CLUBS.

Salt Lake's "finest" will once more swing their clubs while upon patrol. This morning the patrolmen petitioned Chief Hilton to be allowed to carry clubs as of yore. The chief says he has seen no necessity for the carrying of the more, as he says the billies as carried by the force in the past have not are anything but satisfactory, as they can not be reached when they are wanted in a hurry, and besides they spoil the lines of a suit of blue. A patrolman with a club in his hand can overtake a runner that it is hopeless for him to be quite without any active demonstration on the part of the officer and claims that he is in fact as much of a nuisance to the public as a member of a rival fraternity patrolman by tapping upon the pavement.

CHURCH NEWS.

Great interest is being taken in the lecture on "Anti-Mormonism," which will be given by Mr. Charles Ellis this evening in the Thirteenth ward hall, under the direction of the Church Priesthood. Mr. Ellis's speech was delivered with the subject and his skill as a lecturer, together with the present condition of the public mind, rendering it an important event. Previous to the lecture a recitation will be given by Miss Nellie Bayer. All are invited.

The Hanover Smelter.

Those connected with the Hanover Smelter have no idea, they say, of the length of time the plant is to remain idle, the fires of which were drawn Saturday night at 12 o'clock. The company, however, to regulate affairs by the amount of ore coming in, so that the plant will be running at a very indefinite basis. Those thrown out of employment are now seeking places elsewhere.

MINES AND MINING MEN.

It was rumored today that the owners of the Yosemite at Bingham were about to option the mine for $100,000.

Last evening it was reported that a new strike had been made in the Eagle and Blue Bell at Tintic. Word from the mine today is to the effect that good ore is being found, but no new discoveries have been made.

Jesse Knight of the Uncle Sam and Hunting was in the city today. He reports that the Uncle Sam vein, which says the Mar ing adjoining has a good dump of first-class ore. The Yankee Consolidated he looks upon as a sure winner.

The "News" received by today's mail, a copy of the Mining Review, published by Will C. Hinton and Harry H. Cole, both well known in the mining fraternity of the region. The new paper is neatly made up, and contains much valuable information concerning Utah's mineral resources and ought to find a place wherever the mining industry is recognized.

The letter from Mr. Howells is as follows:

"I feel honored by the wish of the workingmen in having me one of the vice presidents of their Jeffersonian dinner, because my heart is with them in the generous cause of the day, but I fail to see anything useful or hopeful in my joining in the affair and I regret that I cannot accept the place offered me.

Is Found Guilty and Sentenced to Dismissal From the Army.

Washington, April 18.—Secretary Alger today made public the action in the case of Lieutenant Lang, who was charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman, and with neglect of the good order and discipline of the service. The court found him guilty as charged and sentenced him to be dismissed from the service. The President has approved the findings and sentence of the court.

ARMY IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Matters Will be Left Largely to General Otis.

Washington, April 18.—A conference held at the White House today between the President, Secretary Alger, Secretary Long and Adjt. Gen. Corbin, in view of the confirmation of the original decision of the administration to at present refrain from increasing the force of the authorization conferred by Congress upon the regular army of 25,000 soldiers in addition to the present regular army.

Gen. Otis' latest dispatch describing conditions in the Philippines was carefully considered and it was concluded to accept the opinion of the military heads of the case on that as he has already indicated that his present army is adequate for the purposes he has in view the decision is tantamount to a resolve to avoid recourse to the additional 25,000 men. A cablegram was sent to Gen. Otis, however, setting forth more fully the views of the military advisers from the Philippines, again asking him whether he would need more men if he has carried the campaign to the end, and if he has reached the limits of his operations for the present. Gen. Otis is expected to answer in a few days, and it is his views that stand for service in the Philippines.

The matter of returning the volunteers was also discussed. The department is arranging for their return to the United States as soon as the necessary transportation can be secured. To Gen. Otis has been left the selection of the organizations to be sent home first, and it is expected he will follow the plan he has outlined of returning the men who have been longest in the Philippines.

The Grey Trial.

Philadelphia, April 18.—The sixth day in the trial of ex-Senator Quay began this morning with a request from the jury to Judge Biddle that he extend the hour of adjournment each day beyond 4 o'clock. With the exception of a brief outing last Saturday and Sunday, under the encouragement of court officers, the jury is being strictly confined to the city rooms ever since the trial of the city hall stalwarts the court in which the trial is in progress. Judge Biddle decided to grant the request.

Mr. Goldsmith, the expert accountant for the commonwealth, was called to the stand, and the cross-examination was continued by Mr. Shields.

Tallahassee Elected Senator.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 18.—Tallahassee was elected United States Senator on the first ballot in the Leon county delegation, the vote being as follows: Tallahassee, 38; Pasco, 28; Call, 6; Clark, 1.

Cotton Workmen Demand Pay.

AD HERHT'S successor.

Davis to Succeed Henry.

Washington, April 18.—It is understood Gen. George H. Davis is to be the military governor general of Porto Rico to succeed Gen. Henry. Gen. Davis's Dutie is a multiplied the Wade court of inquiry.

Sloan Wins Again.

London, April 18.—Sir J. Miller's three-year-old bay filly, Dressale, sided by Tod Sloan, won the Cup Three plate today. The betting was 4 to 1 against Kenoka.

In the race for the Tadworth plate, Prince Soltikoff's four-year-old chestnut colt, Sou d'Or, ridden by Sloan, finished first, but was disqualified on the charge of running and crossing. The race was given to the second horse, R. Rosenfeld's Wylam.

The jockey Tod Sloan's handicap was won by Mr. W. Cooper's six-year-old chestnut horse, Neshaven II.

The steeple chase of the Jockey club exonerated Sloan from blame in connection with the jostling. Rex d'Or ran in front of the leader's betty at the starting. Sloan could not keep the horse straight and the result was that he knocked several of his competitors, including Wylam, whose rider was forced to cane up.

Silver Question in 1900.

Denver, April 18.—United States Senator Henry M. Teller and Congressman John F. Shafroth, in statements published today, emphatically declare in favor of nominating the Silver Republican organization not only in Colorado but throughout the Union. They say that the silver issue will be the paramount issue in 1900.

Mr. Teller says that the Gold Democrats will not be able to control the Democratic convention and that as in 1896 they will support the Republican candidate. He says that the Democratic convention will reaffirm the platform of 1896 and that the party must and will accept the issue. He says the Populist party and the Populist party, both of which will maintain their organizations, will all be for and do as in a victory in the great battle of 1900.

I cannot conceive of a political situation that will induce me to favor a union with the McKinley Republicans," said Senator Teller. "The Republican party is so thoroughly dominated by trusts, syndicates and combines that I have no hope of relief in that quarter. I thoroughly believe that the present administration of the government by the Republican party is now controlled, dominated, by the very existence of free government."

Mr. Shafroth expresses no preference as to candidates but Mr. Shafroth suggests the nomination of Bryan and "Bob" Taylor. He says the Democratic Silver Republican organization in thirty-two States and at least that number will be represented in the national convention.

HOT TIME AT HARRISBURG.

Quay and Anti-Quay Men Almost Come to Blows.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 18.—The Myers resolution calling upon the attorney-general to prosecute all those, including ex-Senator Quay, who had been charged with receiving interest on state money almost precipitated a riot in the senate today. It was a hot time for the Republican factions, and finally the resolution was laid on the table by a vote of 25 to 24, a party division being almost already made. He had scarcely begun his speech when Senator Henry (Anti-Quay) demanded the question. Senator of Lawrence (Quay) turned to Henry and said:

"We do not propose to vote for a lie."

Mr. Grady then proceeded, defeating that the tender of such a resolution while the trial of a great name was pending in the courts, and as an attempt to prejudice the case.

Mr. Brown of Lawrence said it would be better for the legislature to pass judgment on a man whose liberty was now at stake in a court of justice.

Mr. Grady said, "Shall Senator Quay bleed?" said Mr. Brown, "that he has received a cent of interest on state money, and I take his statement as upright all the vile libels of the journals of this State, who have been howling him for years."
