AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use by Physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, prove them to be the best and most effective purgative pills that medical science can devise. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use. In intestinal value and curative power no other pills can be compared with them, and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them, when needed, to keep the system in perfect order, and maintain in healthy action the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effective, they are especially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derange the bowels of which they prevent and cure, if timely taken. They are the best and safest physic to employ for children and weakened constitutions, where a mild, but effectual cathartic is required. For Sale by all dealers. d417

THE scarcity of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine. Dr. Aug. Kaler's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but the opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a fan.

EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, June 29, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

A Quarterly Conference of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will be held in the Large Tabernacle, on Saturday and Sunday, July 5th and 6th, commencing respectively at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. of those days.

ANGUS M. CAMERON, DAVID O. CALDER, JOSEPH E. TAYLOR, Presidency of the Stake.

Z. M. S.—Zion's Musical Society will meet at the Social Hall on Monday evening, June 30th, at 8 p. m. All members expected.

Held Over.—The answer of President John Taylor, et al., and the answers, in the suit now pending in the District Court, has been held over until Monday, or further.

Returned.—Miss Mary E. Cook, the popular lady educator, has returned from a year's sojourn in Southern Utah, having established graded schools throughout Washington County.

Lost.—Between Main street and the First Ward, a fancy basket containing a small mirror, etc. Will the finder please return it to this office and confer a favor on the owner?

Sunday Services.—Sunday schools in session at 10 a. m., in the various wards; meeting in the Tabernacle at 2 p. m., and in the several wards as usual in the evening.

Home missionaries will visit the outer wards and settlements.

Bad Bridge.—Our attention has been called to the bad condition of a bridge which lies at the intersection of the four roads in the vicinity of the Deseret Paper Mill. At the urgent request of persons living near there we respectfully refer the matter to the proper officer.

"The Fireman."—To-night, Mr. Horley's band will take place, when the above thrilling drama, never before produced here, will be put upon the boards. To render the fire scene more realistic, the assistance of a portion of the Fire Brigade has been obtained, to appear on the stage in full uniform. The laughable farce of the "Spectre Bridgeway" will follow the play. Mr. Horley's essaying the eccentric character of "Dickory." The prizes of gold and silver watches to be given to the lucky holders of tickets, will also constitute a rare attraction. Give friend Harry a "pumper."

"Who Wrote That?"—A common error with some unthinking people is to seek to pry into the mystic of the editorial sanctum. "Who wrote that article?" and "Who was it that put that in the paper?" are questions with which every editor, or employee at a newspaper office, may expect to be assailed, before he has finished his earthly career. The most amusing part of it is, that these disciples of curiosity actually expect to be answered promptly and without equivocation, whenever they are pleased to put forth their exasperated queries, as though it were a branch of their prerogative to know the name of the writer of every piece that goes out to the public, and the duty of every editor to yield obedience to their requirements. Never was error more egregious. The names of the editors of a respectable journal generally may be ascertained whenever it is necessary, and they are the ones who father and assume the responsibility of the matter which finds its way into their columns, unless such matter be communicated, in which case either the writer's name or a nom de plume is used. This is all the intelligent public need to know of such things, and all that the other class, the fault finders ever will know, if a newspaper man correctly understands his business. We will answer proper questions, put in a gentlemanly manner with pleasure, but impertinent demands entirely outside of the realms of competency, we shall treat only with the disregard they inspire and deserve.

Almost A Fatal Accident.—Yesterday, a little child of Mr. George Chugg, conductor on the Utah Central freight train, came very near losing its life. It happened at its residence in Ogden. His wife wishing to go to a neighbor's, left the child, which was only between 13 and 14 months of age, under a shade tree near the house, expecting it would remain there until she returned. But she was no sooner away than the little thing began creeping toward a tub of water, a short distance away, and when the mother returned, had fallen head first into it with its head underneath the water. When rescued, the infant was black in the face and it was not until the most strenuous efforts had been used, that it showed any signs of life. At last one eye opened and soon afterward a faint gasp gave evidence of restored animation. This morning the child was getting along finely. This narrow escape should serve as a warning against leaving children, unattended, in the vicinity of similar dangers. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Chugg that the termination of the case was so fortunate.

Benefit Concert.—On Wednesday evening, July 2nd, a grand combination concert, by the 11th Ward choir, assisted by members of the 6th Ward Dramatic Company and others, will be given in the 11th Ward school-house, for the purpose of raising means to help in emigrating Brother Joseph Adams and his family from London; he having labored faithfully for many years as leader of the London Conference choir.

The first part of the programme consists of choruses, songs, duets, trios, quartets, recitation, etc., and the second part of the laughable farce, "Two Gay Deceivers." The conductor of the concert is Mr. Chas. Danney; the organist, Miss M. H. Meads.

Doors open at 7:30, performance to commence at 8 o'clock. Admission 25c., children 10c.

The Provo Excursion.—The coming excursion which seems to be attracting the most attention, is that which will leave this city at 7 o'clock on the morning of July 4th, for Provo and Springville, and return to Salt Lake at 6:25 the same evening. Graves' Pleasure Gardens, and the grand celebration at Provo, will be among the inducements; and another is, that beyond Springville, half fare tickets can be obtained to go over the road further south. By making arrangements with Mr. Baxter, at Wallin & Pickard's, excursion tickets can be made good until Sunday, the 5th prox. A good chance for a day's enjoyment.

George Reynolds.—Word has reached this city that papers ordering the return of Elder George Reynolds to Utah have been issued from the executive department at Washington and sent to Detroit, and that word was returned that no such person as George Reynolds was confined there. Another message was then dispatched from the capital, ordering the papers forwarded to Lincoln, Nebraska, where Brother Reynolds is in prison. A private dispatch received from the last named place this morning, says that George Reynolds was still there, and that no orders had yet been received for his release.

Fall Wheat.—Brother William J. Gardner, of Pleasant Grove, writes under date of yesterday, that he was then harvesting wheat which he sowed on the 8th of last October. It is thought that fall wheat is the more profitable, as it escaped the ravages of the grasshoppers.

The Demi Monde.—The police made a raid on four houses of ill fame this morning and arrested fifteen of the inmates, four of whom were fined $75 each, two $25 each, and the remainder $50 each.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet in the Council House, on Wednesday evening, July 24, 1879, at 7 o'clock. WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

"PLUCKING" A POULTERER.—"You have some fine turkeys this morning," said a schoolmaster to a poulterer. "Yes, sir—all fresh from Norfolk to-day." "What is the price?" "You can take your choice, sir. I have them at all prices." "Well, I want to give my boys a treat; but I do not want them to be too tender. There are a dozen here—pick out four of the toughest." The poulterer obeyed. "Here, sir, you have four of the toughest birds in my shop." "Thank you," said the schoolmaster; "I'll take the other eight."

OBITUARY.

Died at his residence in Farmington, Davis County, Utah, June 16th, 1879, of old age, HECTOR CALSB HIGHT. Elder Hight was the son of Caleb Hight and Katharine Hight. Born January 17th, 1810, in Windam, Green County, State of New York. He was one of the early western pioneers, moving from New York to Northern Illinois in 1837. In 1845 he moved to Nauvoo and joined the Church at that place. He was driven out with the Saints, wintered on the Missouri River, following the pioneers, and arrived in Salt Lake Valley in September, 1847, wintered in the Old South Fort, in Salt Lake City. In the fall of 1848 he settled at Haight's Creek, "Late Side." He was a member of the 13th Quorum of Seventy; went on a mission to Denmark in 1850, returning in 1852; he has served as sheriff, assessor and collector, and was probate Judge of Davis County for three terms; he was also Captain and then Mayor of the Silver City.

He was an active and energetic man, and was a public spirit and enterprising, ever on hand to make improvement. Strictly moral and temperate, kind to the poor, just in his dealings, his whole life has been one of usefulness.

The funeral services took place at the meeting-house, on the 16th inst. A very large meeting of relatives and friends were addressed by Bishop Mann, Elders J. T. Smith, E. T. Clark and T. Grover. He was interred in the cemetery at Salt Lake City, June 17, 1879.

Dissolution of Partnership.

THE partnership heretofore existing between William Hill and Regio Hawkins, under the firm name of Hill & Hawkins, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Regio Hawkins retiring. The business will hereafter be conducted by Mr. William Hill, who will collect all outstanding debts and pay all demands against the late firm. The gentlemen desire to return their thanks for the liberal amount of patronage they have received from the public, and especially solicit a continuance of the same for the establishment in the future.

WILLIAM HILL, REGIO HAWKINS.
