

GEN. WOODGATE DIES OF WOUNDS

British Commander Who Received
Injuries in Battle at Spion Kop.

CONFIDENCE IN ROBERTS.

Boers Rallying at Various Points—
News of Renewed Activity in All Directions.

[Afternoon Dispatches.]

London, March 24.—Advices received here announce the death in the Mool hospital yesterday of Gen. Sir Edward Woodgate, who was wounded in the engagement at Spion Kop on January 24. 2:40 p. m.—Lord Roberts' dispatch saying he has nothing special to report is generally interpreted to mean that he hopes speedily to announce some intelligence gratifying to the British. The optimists even deduce from the number of minor items of news received that Lord Roberts has satisfactory news of the advance of the flying column from the southward by a detour towards Mafeking.

In the meanwhile, Col. Plumer's position is becoming steadily more precarious. He has with him three long trains of supplies for Mafeking, the loss of which would be serious, and further information about Commandant Eloff's movements is awaited with some trepidation in view of the report from Pretoria that he was isolating Col. Plumer's forces near Gaberone.

Well informed people in South Africa are, however, more hopeful than the inhabitants of this city. The former are awaiting all kinds of celebration to take place on the announcement of the raising of Mafeking's siege. A sword of honor is in readiness for presentation to Col. Baden-Powell.

A dispatch from Maseru, Basutoland, under yesterday's date, seems to dispose of the story that Gen. French was fighting yesterday, but it indicates that a battle is imminent.

From elsewhere come stories of the Boers rallying at various points. Kromstadt is well entrenched and Gen. Joubert is preparing to make a determined stand, while the Boers in the eastern districts have been asked to rally at Ficksburg, northward of Ladybrand. In the Orange Free State, doubtless with the view of attempting to intercept the junction of the forces commanded by Lord Roberts and Gen. Buller.

Another Boer force at Fauresmith, southwest of Bloemfontein, is in a defiant mood, so the southern part of the Orange Free State is not yet subdued.

Sir Charles Parson, commanding a column in the western district, composed of Canadians and others, has arrived at Van Wykesdorp, between which and Kanharndt a force of insurgents is reported to be entrenched.

Col. Herchmer, commanding the Canadian mounted rifles, is convalescent at Carnarvon, and will rejoin Parsons Sunday.

COLONISTS WORK A SCHEME.

Bloomfontein, Friday, March 23.—Advices from Thabaneu, between Bloemfontein and Ladybrand on the Orange Free State border, dated March 21, say Gen. French's force is resting there and distributing Lord Roberts' proclamation.

Brand, a son of the former president of the Orange Free State, Sir John Henry Brand, continues his duties as land drost. He appears quite willing to co-operate with the new regime. The people generally outwardly express satisfaction with the advent of the British. The insurgents in the northern part of Cape Colony have been detected in an ingenious swindle. It appears that before the departure of the Boers they purchased quantities of the notes of the Boer force which they are now presenting to the British authorities, demanding compensation for property alleged to have been requisitioned or damaged. The loyalists, who are the actual losers of the goods, are infuriated.

Memorial to President Grant.

Washington, March 24.—The resolution of Mr. Cummings (N. Y.) requesting the secretary of state to inform and correspondence relative to the "open-door" in China, was agreed to. "A Good Paymaster Starts Not at Assurances."

There is one good paymaster who is around on time, gives full value, and never fails in his duty. It is your privilege to select him, and his name is pure, wholesome blood. This paymaster makes the rounds of the body, visits brain, stomach, kidneys, liver, heart and head alike. Hood's Sarsaparilla acts as a guarantor that this paymaster will do his duty.

If the blood is impure, it cannot do its duty, and you are the sufferer, but you need not be. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, retines and enriches the blood. It never disappoints.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

The charge against James Ryan, that of vagrancy, was continued until Monday, on account of the absence of Detective Sheets, the arresting officer in the case.

Andrew Lindquist was of the opinion that he was not drunk yesterday, and therefore the man who said he was was decidedly off. It was shown, however, that Andrew prowled around the Short Line depot last night in a decidedly drunken condition. The court remarked that the offender would pay a fine of $3 or "labor hard" for three days. As the words "labor hard" fell on the judicial Innomie Mike Boyle (Mike happened to drop in after being out three hours and ten minutes) he picked up his ears and rubbed his eyes and then sighed.

Next came Mike's turn and term. Mike only got out yesterday, but was out long enough to get full. His portion was twenty-five days.

John Quinn—"Say, yer honor, this is the first time and if yer'll let me go I won't stock up in front of yer no more."

"Was it a still jag?" inquired the court of an officer. "It was," replied the bluecoat fearlessly. Then said the judge: "With the understanding that you will not come back here for twenty-two months I'll let you go."

J. J. Holland was accused of pulling a pistol from his pocket and threatening to shoot "Miss Mills," an inmate of a Commercial street joint, last night. The defendant denied the charge. The court adjudged him guilty of carrying a concealed weapon and fined him $10.

Judge Hiles today decided the case of M. A. Faldmo vs C. C. Johnson finding in favor of defendant. The parties to the suit formed a partnership last year for the purpose of carrying on the photograph business. They went to the Klondike and missed each other. Faldmo claiming that Johnson skipped with the whole outfit. Upon returning to Salt Lake and finding Johnson had no intention of proceeding for a dissolution of the co-partnership and for an accounting. Johnson claimed that Faldmo promised to put $400 into the business, but never kept his word.

HEWLETT BROS. CO.

Hoeff, a woman of refined appearance, but very much agitated while upon the witness stand, testified that she married the defendant in Jamestown, S. D., on August 3, 1897. They afterwards went to Anconada, where she was compelled to leave her husband on account of his dissolute habits. All he had given her in two years, she said, was the paltry sum of $2. Plaintiff is a sister to Mrs. Fritz Reppen, at whose house she has made her home since she came to Salt Lake. There are no children.

The case of Neal Rasmussen vs W. H. Cronar et al was continued last evening by Judge Cherry until Monday morning, 10 o'clock. At the conclusion of the plaintiff's testimony, counsel for defendants moved for a non-suit which the court overruled.

In Favor of Mrs. Dallas.

In the case of George P. Felt vs Mattie King Dallas, Judge Hiles today rendered a decision finding the issues in favor of defendant. This action involved the foreclosure of a mechanic's lien. Plaintiff claimed there was $246.32 due him for shingles supplied defendant. The latter set up a counter-claim for damages for $100, alleging a breach of contract and claiming the shingles were not No. 1 as represented.

Portrait Presentation.

Will be Made by Hon. Spencer Clawson to the University.

Another evidence of the public spirit of Mr. Spencer Clawson has been manifested in his placing an order for a portrait of the late Orson Spencer, first chancellor of the board of regents of the University of Deseret, which when completed will be presented to the University building on the east bench of the new college in Utah as a bit of interesting history relative to the initiation of the institution and installation of its officers.

On the 28th of February, 1850, about two years and a half subsequent to the settlement of Utah, the Legislative assembly of the provisional government was ratified by the Legislative assembly of the Territory of Utah, October 4, 1851. According to the charter thus obtained, all authority in respect to property, government, and administration was vested in a chancellor and a board of twelve regents, who were appointed by the Governor of the Territory to hold office for a term of two years and until their successors were qualified. The first meeting of the board of regents, presided over by the chancellor, Orson Spencer, was held March 12, 1850.

In making a gift of the portrait of the first chancellor to Utah's chief educational institution Mr. Clawson will establish a happy precedent which will doubtless be followed by other similar bequests during the existence of the University, and which will be an appropriate honor to the men who may hold

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

A runaway was very narrowly averted on upper East Temple street this afternoon. A countryman was driving a horse hitched to a light spring wagon, and when in front of Cutler Bros. the animal became frightened at a street car, and began rearing and plunging. The farmer, however, had a cool head and a brassy arm, and after guiding the animal past the monument, where the road was clear, he succeeded in convincing the fractious equine that a continuance of the performance would be exceedingly detrimental to his jaws, so he finally quieted down. During the horse's antics several ladies and children barely made their escape from being trampled upon. The farmer's wife was in the seat by his side but she sat still and didn't try to grab the reins.

The officers' meeting of the Y. M. C. A. of the Salt Lake Stake will be held Saturday, March 24, in the Fourteenth ward Relief Society hall at 3 p. m.

Corresponding Secretary.

BANK CLEARINGS.

While the clearings for the country show a falling off from the same week last year, Salt Lake's totals show a handsome gain, the figures for the six days ending yesterday being $2,253,769, increase of $10,000 over last year. The total for the country was $1,599,253,218, a decrease of 14.9-10 percent. Salt Lake's totals bring her in advance of such cities as Atlanta, New Haven, Rochester, Peoria, Port Worth, Springfield, Mass., Portland, Ore.

UTAH SUGAR.

The work on the railroad switch at the Bingham Junction plant has begun actively and the material will be commenced to be laid on the ground at once. The board of directors will meet again on Tuesday next, at which time the reports for the stockholders' meeting on April 6th will be made up.

The price of refined sugar has advanced 10 cents during the week, and as both Lehi and Ogden have large stocks on hand, a strengthening effect has been imparted both stocks. Ogden, however, still remains rather weak owing to the uncertainty of the dividend date. Mr. George Hagan, the sugar broker, when asked today what the eastern condition of the sugar market was, said that the war still continued between the "Trust" and the independent refiners, and it was probable that both continued to do business at a loss. The Trust stock had declined from $181 to below $100 since it cut its dividend in two. He said if normal conditions prevailed, sugar would be quoted at 6 cents per pound in this market today, instead of 5.50, where it now stands.

Z. C. M. I. DIVIDEND.

The stock transfer books of Z. C. M. I. will be closed on Monday, and not reopened until April 5th. The sales of the past week therefore carry the dividend. This dividend is 4 per cent on the amount to over $45,000 and with it the institution will have paid to its stockholders a total of $2,421,338.50 since it commenced business thirty-one years ago.

The other concerns which are to pay dividends during April are as follows: Deseret Savings Bank, 2 per cent, $2,000; State Bank, 2 per cent, $5,000; Zion's Savings Bank, 2 per cent, $4,000; First Nat'l & Sav. Bank, $5,000; First National Bank, Ogden, 3 per cent, $4,500.

The rush of work in Architect Kietling's office has delayed the completion of the foundation plans of the "News" building, but the details were all finished this afternoon, and a force of men will resume work on Monday morning.

The Type of the Prevailing Grip.

"Although Grip prevailed in mild form during the late autumn months, it has now taken on an unmistakably virulent type in the extent and character of its new invasion. During the last fortnight thousands who have escaped heretofore have been stricken, and the disease is plainly epidemic over a very wide section of country.

The type of the disease is essentially catarrhal and chiefly manifests itself in inflammatory affections of the membranes of the nose, throat and upper air passages. The attack is quite sudden and there is generally a high temperature, with pain in the forehead, hacking and irritating cough, with general muscular pains and prostration.

It is the attention to little things—the avoidance of draughts, the cultivation of habits of temperance in eating and drinking, the obedience to all hygienic rules—which can make any one reasonably safe.

Dr. Humphrey's Specific "Seventy-seven" meets the exigency of the prevailing epidemic. "77" restores the checked circulation (indicated by a sudden chill), the first sign of "King Cold," starts the blood coursing through the veins and so "breaks up" the Cold. RICHES OF THE PHILIPPINES.

Native Women Pan Aluvial Sands and Secure from $3 to $5 a Day.

A correspondent of the Butte Miner in a letter dated last week refers to the placer mines of the island of Luzon as follows:

Placers and quartz claims must be marked by center and corner stakes as in the United States. The apex of quartz veins may be followed into any other land underground, provided no wall is broken. The rich deposits on this island lie about seventy miles north and east of Dagupan. There is abundant water power for sluicing, and hydraulic saw mills, etc. Sweet potatoes and rice grow everywhere, respectively on high and low lands; chickens can be purchased for 5 cents; American money each from the Igorrote who are very friendly to Americans, but kill Spaniards and Filipinos wherever they find them. The native women in that country pan the alluvial sands with wooden bowls, frequently taking out $3 to $5 a day in gold.

Philippine gold averages 18 to 20 ounces. Last week on Wednesday an Igorrote woman brought into town seven pounds of gold nuggets, and Saturday last week two ex-Washington soldiers brought in $2,500 in gold nuggets as a result of their "work" with pan and sluice box from the same district. The rivers are lined with banks of black sand (magnetic iron) carrying fine gold, but small, rough nuggets, from the size of a pin head to three and four sizes. Bedrock averages from six inches to twenty feet and the reason why no systematic work has been done in these fields is because the Igorrote drive out the Spaniards and the Spanish government has never allowed the Chinese and Filipinos to pursue mining as a business, hence the field is new and wonderfully rich.

There is absolutely no reason to doubt that the placer mines of Luzon and Mindanao, which are as numerous as parts of Cebu, are among the richest in the world, easy of access and no hardships to be encountered in reaching them as soon as military government permits miners to enter them; so quartz mining is absolutely undeveloped here, but very rich specimens of white quartz carrying free milling gold have been brought in, however, few well defined veins have been discovered for the country is so rocky, but specimens brought in recently have run as high as $65,000 to the ton in gold and copper. The copper veins in porphyritic quartz in decomposed state, mixed with iron oxides carrying free gold and copper pyrites.

A large number of ex-California and Montana volunteers are outfitting here now, ready for the signal to make a rush for the mountains in search of the yellow metal. Horses for packing can be had for the country at $100 each, and pack men can live for $12 to $14 a week on food obtained from the Igorrote. There is not a real gold pan in the islands but everything in the shape of pans have been pressed into service for prospecting. However, sluicing and hydraulicking will be the order of the day as soon as the mines are opened up. Rivers, streams and little lakes abound, deer and wild turkey are abundant, sulphur springs are not infrequent, and the mountain temperature ranges from 70 down to 45 day and night. There are no dangerous animals on the islands and the only inconvenience one experiences in the mountains arise from the abode maddened and snakes of a score of varieties.

SOME OF THE BEST APPLES.

A List of Favorites for Both Home Use and Market.

From a twenty years' experience in growing apples, D. A. Blacklock, of Illinois, has come to think that only a few varieties are worth planting. In the O. J. Farmer he recommended the following as some of the best:

For summer, Red June, which is the earliest of all. It is of medium size and has a handsome red, the flesh is white, tender, juicy and sub-acid. It is an abundant bearer. After this comes the Yellow Transparent, which is a Russian. This is pronounced by all who have seen it to be the most valuable early apple. The tree is an upright grower and a very early and abundant bearer. The fruit is of good size, pale yellow, and the flavor is acid. After the Yellow Transparent comes the Tetofsky, also a Russian variety, which has proved to be a profitable apple. The fruit is large, yellow, beautifully striped with red, and the flesh is white. Early Harvest is an old variety, but it is always ready to bear every year. Red Astrachan is also a good summer variety.

The following autumn varieties are good for both home and market: Maiden's Blush, Duchess of Oldenburg, Fameuse or Snow, and Rambo. Good winter varieties are Ben Davis, Salome, Belle De Baskoon, Fawcett, Lawver, or Delaware Winter, R. I. Greening, Grimes Golden, McIntosh Red, Streak, or Dominion, Northern Spy, Winesap, and Wealthy. To this list may be added Jonathan, Wolf River, Newtown Pippin and White Winter Pearmain.

The Lawver, or Delaware Winter, is described as an excellent bright red apple, tree a vigorous grower, an early bearer and very productive. Salome is another variety which comes into bearing early; flesh tender and juicy; color yellow, striped with red. Wolf River, fruit large to very large, greenish yellow, shaded with crimson; tree vigorous and hardy; fruit rather coarse, half tender variety, with a peculiar spicy, quince-like flavor.
