
OUR NEW ILLINOIS

The battleship Illinois which was successfully launched by Miss Leiter a few days ago at Newport News, in the presence of a great crowd, is now getting ready for the high seas. Though complete in construction, her armament is yet to be put on. She is a beauty, with a speed superior to any of the battleships now afloat, except perhaps the Oregon.

A CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK.

Jesse James Jr. Arrested for Complicity in Hold Up.

Said to Have Guilty Knowledge of the Recent Missouri Pacific Train Robbery.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 10.—At 10 o'clock this morning a writ of habeas corpus was granted in the case of Jesse James, son of the noted bandit of that name, arrested yesterday on the charge of having guilty knowledge of the recent Missouri Pacific train robbery. Young James was taken to by the local police yesterday afternoon, but his whereabouts were kept a secret. This morning F. C. Farr, an attorney and an old time friend of the James family, appeared before Judge Henry, of the county court, for the writ. It was immediately granted and a warrant for the prosecution of young James issued for service.

The writ directed Chief of Police Hayes and Detectives Harbaugh and Furlong to deliver Jesse James to the court immediately. However, it was not expected, the judge stated, that young James would be brought into court before this afternoon.

In Judge Harriman's division of the circuit court about the same time James Cole, lawyer for John Kennedy, the former suspect, took the same action for the release of Andy Ryan, who was also arrested yesterday.

The grand jury met today and Lowe, the self-confessed robber, was taken before it, together with several witnesses. The object of the police, it was said, was to secure the indictment of James and others before the writs could be served upon them.

Cass Stone, 45 years of age, who, the police say, kill the robbers' horses on the night of the hold-up, and Charles Peck, a clerk at a meat packing house, who lived with Stone, and were included in Lowe's confession, were arrested. The police, it is said, are looking for a sixth man.

James was brought into court about 5 o'clock this afternoon and after some argument on both sides, was released on $1,000 bail.

Stone and Peck were held only a little while, then released. All the witnesses yesterday have been made without warrants and as soon as arrested each suspect has been carried away by the police and hidden from even their closest relatives.

Chief of Police Hayes still refuses to make known the nature of Lowe's confession. When asked today to divulge the alleged evidence against James and the others, he simply said:

"Wait."

Chief Hayes with Detectives Sandersen and Kerkhoff, were called before the grand jury this afternoon to tell their evidence of the guilt of Jesse James and the other suspects.

Before the chief went in to testify he was asked what actual evidence he had to connect Jesse James with the robbery.

"We think we have a good case, or we would not submit it," he replied after hesitating. "Did Lowe make a confession?"

"Yes."

"Has the confession been complicated?"

"Yes, it has."

"And Jesse James has been complicated beyond a doubt, you think?"

"Well, I'd tell you," said the chief after reflecting a moment, "I am sorry he got into this trouble. Now you know what I think about his complicity."

"Will Lowe go before the grand jury?"

"He most certainly will."

Sportsmen Step Down.

Santiago de Cuba, Oct. 10.—A dispatch from Manzanillo to the office of the Associated Press here says now that the American flag is flying over the city the Cuban sportsmen have gone to the surface. The people are assuming a enthusiastic The mayor and councilor had both received instructions not to turn over their offices to the Americans except under protest and in the presence of the consul and a notary.

In the office of the collector was Mr. Moore, the chief of customs at Havana, notifying him that the military occupation of the Americans was not to affect the civil administration, which is still under the Autonomous government, and to send regularly all funds to Havana by a trusted messenger. The mayor, or alcalde, had similar instructions from the minister of justice.

But Col. Ray, the American military commander at Manzanillo, is not the man to stand nonsense. He immediately suspended the protesting officials and temporarily appointed others. Not a cent, however, was found in the treasury.

Heavenly Star.

New York, Oct. 9.—Thomas W. Cragin, third secretary of state, and Miss E. Marie Tillinghast, were married at the Lexington avenue Baptist church. Dr. Parker Morgan, of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, officiating.

Natural Gas Boom.

Boston, Oct. 10.—Hibbin, Peabody & Co., who are back of the movement to develop one of the natural books of this city, have issued a circular letter to the stockholders of the Chamberlin, Brown and Howard Natural Gas company, informing that the offer of Sept. 26, 1895, to purchase stock will be withdrawn Oct. 12, 1895, and that after that date no stock will be purchased from them under that offer. This announcement is taken to mean that the promoters of the new plan already have secured more than the necessary two-thirds vote of the stockholders of those banks in favor of the proposed, and it is understood that similar actions will follow in respect to the other banks.

MILITIA SHOOT

And Ex-Police Lieutenant Preston is Fatally Wounded.

Virden, Ill., Oct. 10.—A detail of militia at 10:30 tonight killed ex-lieutenant of Police Tom Preston of Chicago at the stockade. He was standing outside the stockade as guard. The militia gave the by-standing mourners the command to halt, and Preston stepped back to the gate. The militia fired and he was shot in the stomach. He was carried into the office in the stockade where he expired.

Battery D of Gatlingers, Ill., under Capt. Craig, numbering 100 men, arrived here tonight from Pana.

Adjt. Gen. J. C. Sprague came from Springfield with the militia tonight. He said that ex-Lieut. Preston was not killed by the militia. He said that when the guard ordered the crowd back behind the entrance at the middle aisle of "Hands up," a revolver shot was fired from the darkness and Preston fell fatally wounded. Gen. Sprague said the militia did not fire a shot, and Preston was killed with a revolver in some one's stockade.

PRES. C. W. LOUCKS TALKS.

Position of Company Has Been Declined by the Press.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—President C. W. Loucks of the Chicago-Virden Coal company, who arrived at Springfield from the scenes of the trouble, made the following statement to the Associated Press:

"Our position has been defined right along by the press, so the public can ascertain, and we simply desire to state that our employes arrived at Virden at about 12:00 today. We stopped the train opposite the gates so that the men could go from the train into our works, where immediately the men lined from all directions and, very naturally, our men defended themselves. The consequences is that we do not know positively as yet.

"As to our future action, we propose to follow in the future as we have in the past, legal procedure in the obtaining of our legal rights, and shall take proper steps to secure the indictment of all who, prompted, aided, abetted or participated in the riot of today, whether the government of this state or the city of Virden, or any other incorporate municipality, can, with impartiality and whether the colored citizens of this state are to have the rights under the Constitution as under the white and pleasure of the government of Illinois. We shall determine for ourselves and others the path we will take for a greater gain annual and leads the dollar placed upon him or the constitution and statutes of this state."

Battery Ordered from Pana.

Pana, Ill., Oct. 10.—Battery B of Gatlingers, only company of Lt. Kilgore, is commanded of Capt. C. G. Craig, have been sent to Virden. Company H of Assumpt will remain here.

Cavalry for Virden.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Col. Young of the First Illinois volunteer cavalry, received orders tonight to report at Springfield immediately, with troops A, B, C and D of his command. The troops will leave in the morning.

Railroad Extension.

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 10.—James G. Hagerman of Colorado springs is authority for the statement that the Pecos Valley & Northeastern, the principal stock of which is controlled by him, will be extended to Brownfield, on the Santa Fe, and will be completed in connect with the Mexican Northern, which is now being pushed from the south to the same point as soon as the gap between Howard, N. M., and Amarillo, Texas, shall have been completed. The road will be a through main line from Chicago and Kansas City to the City of Mexico, several hundred miles shorter than any other.

Mrs George Held.

Canton, O., Oct. 10.—Mrs. George was held to answer to common pleas court at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing today and has gone with the indictment to the next grand jury. The presiding justice of the peace began the case and there was sufficient evidence to hold Mrs. George and Mrs. George with the crime to justify holding her for the investigation of the higher courts. She is held on the charge of murder in the first degree and cannot be admitted to bail.

Volunteers to Secure.

New York, Oct. 10.—Red Cross Agent Barnes says there is no foundation of the executive committee here that all volunteers in Porto Rico have been ordered home and that regulars will be sent from the United States to take their places. He states that the work cuts will cause that of the present government of Porto Rico to be days after their arrival, and states that he sends a large amount of stores for them and to stock the women starting work with troops.

The Windward Overdue.

St. Johns, N. F., Oct. 10.—Some anxiety is beginning to be felt here because of the disappearance of Lord Percy's Arctic steamer the Windward, which is now due to her return from Herschel Island, where she was left last year, when it was planned that she should land Lord Percy and the members of his expedition.

Captain John Barnier, in command of the Windward, sailed in his brigantine for the auxiliary steamer, from which he was to take the expedition ashore to work in Liddon Island. But he reported to bring the Windward back about the first week in October.

Herschel Island is about 1,500 miles north of Dawson, and, about 200 miles further north than Lount, Fitzgerald's previous anchorage. On August 15 he was at Rock, near the entrance to Bailey's Island. He is fairly well on in first date he seemed to imply that he was about to proceed up the coast.

THE "JOINT" HAVE A TIME.

The Peace Commissioners Devotion at the Thespian Dellies.

Paris, Oct. 10.—The American peace commission, at 5 o'clock today, engaged in its first function outside of purely diplomatic lines. The Paris entertained the members of both commissions with a stage performance, in which Coquelin, Leo Fulier and others took part. The occasion was informal and pleasing.

Alexander Military Out.

Cincinnati, Oct. 10.—The military has resigned. The assembly of Cuba Colliery yesterday adopted a vote of of confidence in the government.

Situation in China.

New York, Oct. 10.—A dispatch to the Herald from Hong Kong says: A dispatch from Chemulpo states that the three accused prisoners were executed at Seoul last night. The men dragged the bodies through the river. There was no violence.

The situation is serious.

Contempt Investigation.

New York, Oct. 10.—The investigation to attempt to prove to the supreme court of the state of New York that the Standard Oil company is in contempt of that court, was begun at the new Amsterdam hotel today. Those conducting it are the attorney general of New York, Frank S. Monell, and special Commissioner Allen T. Brinckerhoff representing the supreme court of Ohio. They are assisting by E. Z. Kinkead of Cincinnati.

BOSENOTON IN BANKS.

Workers in Paris Inclined to Resume Work.

Paris, Oct. 11.—The committee of railroad men, it was announced today, turns out to be equally divided for and against taking part in the strike. This practical disagreement has disenfranchised the strikers, many of whom are now disposed to resume work. A number of building works have reopened today.

The president of the municipal general council waited on the ministers of commerce and interior and urged the claims of the strikers. The ministers replied that he could not intervene to bring about a settlement, adding that the expulsion works are sufficiently advanced to permit them to await the end of the strike. The Minister of public works also declined to intervene in the matter.

LITERARY NOTES.

"The Chance of the Unknown Writer" is discussed in The Writer (Boston) for October, in Bath Hall, who relates personal experiences and gives facts that have come under his own observation. In an editorial on the same subject, the editor of The Writer makes conclusive the fact of literary merit usually does not pay, it does not give its member the advantage of frequent publication, and that, instead of it being difficult for a new writer to get into the leading magazines, new writers write the greater part of them. The Writer Publishing Co., P. O. box 165, Boston.

Nestle has been sent out of a Lothsomely publication which undoubtedly will be received with interest. It is an American edition of Cyrano de Bergerac, by Edmond Rostand. Cyrano de Bergerac has been the sensation of Paris and London for the past year. The translation has been made under the immediate supervision of the author, by his associate, Gustave Thomas, assisted by Mary P. Guillemard. The play has taken its place among the masterpieces of the French literature of the century.

It was given its first introduction in America on Monday last by Richard Mansfield at the Garden Theater, New York, as Tuesday, October 8.—H. H. Russell, 2 West 14th Street, New York.

The Midland Monthly for October has an illustrated article on the Catskill rapid before and after the war, and a number of other articles of local topics.—Chauncy and Essex, 311 Mulberry St., Des Moines, Iowa.

The North American Review for October presents under the caption of The United States and the Far West, two imperial and limits discussion: What Shall We Do with the Philippines? by Karl W. Hasselman, and Our Policy in China, by Hon. Mark H. Dunnell, formerly member of congress, and now United States at Shanghai. The Mission of Municipal Reform is discussed by Clarence Rogers Woolford, ex-secretary of the Municipal Reform Club of New York. Two articles are written upon The Origin of Monsoon, assuming that monsoon, in the sense of the wind, seems to see an effort too, irrespective or otherwise, for simply another sense for the rule of moral applied to human action, and appealing to our moral appetite and desires for the good of the individual, the family and the community. Our National Policy and its Victims is the title of an article from the pen of Major General J. C. Breckinridge, who strongly deprecates the useless sacrifice of soldiers' lives in camp, due, he says, to a lack of military preparedness and legislative in attention policy of the United States. Admiral P. H. Colomb, R. N., contributes an article on The United States Navy Under the New Conditions of National Life.

Among other short articles are: Organized Charity and Its Ideal, by Ansel Ward, by the Rt. Hon. Horace Plunkett, M. P.; Cable Cutting in War, by H. E. Wade; Dangers of Political Study, by Fred Morrow Fling; Year's Work of Science, by Kate Gannett Wells; How Can Homicide be Decreased, by the Hon. Frederick Hill, and Boys' Clubs, by Winifred Buck.
