Matters at Basin.

MANTI, Sanpete county, July 18.—All day on Monday the court listened to the evidence of witnesses in the Strall-Pearson case. The plaintiff alleged that defendant had stolen some of his sheep, and brings a civil suit to recover. On Tuesday morning the case was given to the jury, who returned a verdict of no cause of action. This disposed of the criminal case, for as it was impossible to show that defendant took any of the plaintiff's sheep, it would be impossible to obtain conviction.

J. M. Martin, who pleaded guilty of polygamy last week, appeared for sentence. He had with him a marriage certificate to show that he had done all he could to make his wrong right, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $5.

The case of the People vs Carlos Young was or ered recommitted to the next grand jury.

The case against Edward Mortimer was dismissed for lack of evidence.

John Scott was ordered to give bail in the sum of $300, and that Hatmer Pratt appear on the bond.

Theodore Buttock vs Nathaniel Edwards et al. Albert Tuttle was added as a defendant, and the case continued for the term.

Z. C. M. I. vs Anderson Bros. Un-dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

D. A. Spalsier vs Swen J. Nelson; dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

The People vs A. S. Davidson was one in which defendant is practicing medicine without a license. On account of a mistake in the complaint the jury was instructed to return a verdict of not guilty.

Lizzie McCartney vs Stephen L. Voorhees. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,955.-00.

The People vs Abner Kofford was one in which defendant is charged with stealing sheep. The evidence was at variance with the allegation, and the jury was instructed to bring a verdict of not guilty, the indictment to be brought before the next grand jury.

NOTES.

A celebration was held last night upon the signing of the meeting house.

The summer school is now in good running order. LAGO.

Idaho Items.

SHOSHONE, Idaho, July 17, 1894.—Leaving Salt Lake City and rising through the settlements I could not but observe how the Lord is blessing the people in their crops. I traveled with Brother Clark. He informed me of a large field of wheat that would give some fifty to sixty bushels to the acre. This is the son of Bishop Clark, formerly of Charleston, which place was named after him. Utah, I should say, by the looks of her grain and vegetables, is as near the garden of the Lord as any part of this globe. Although hard times have come to us, the Lord is protecting Zion, and giving unto inhabitants an abundance of this life's goods.

While stopping at Pocatello, about 11 o'clock on the night of the 16th, the alarm of fire was sounded. The whistle of the engine before the sound of a horse cart bells was ringing, with credit is due to the fire brigade men. The fire was in a car of merchandise. The supply of water was short and the fire had a good hold at all the entries inside, but when the big hose was applied the stream soon put it down and weakened the fire.

Many of the mechanics at Pocatello are out on strike. There are many idle men around. Men are hoping for the time soon to come when they can return to work.

Owing to such small number of passengers passing through Pocatello they have reduced the size of their number at the O. S. hotel. Times in Pocatello are very quiet, not much more in the workshop.

The town of Basalt is but small, only about twenty-five families, but the folks feel well and rejoice over the good crops, all through the valley.

There was married on June 27, at Logan Temple, Otto Christensen, of Idaho Falls, to Miss Annie Amon, of Basalt. The young couple have the good wishes of all.

Died, on July 15, near midnight, Sister Ann Wolfmill King, aged 72 years. The cause of death was heart disease and dropsy. She was the wife of George King. Her end was peace. She was well-beloved by all. She left many relatives and friends who mourn her loss. She was the first mother and sister in the Gospel to be buried in the new cemetery. The funeral service was held at the family residence and was largely attended. The speakers were Elders John Crofts, J. H. Berg and Bishop A. O. Ingebretsen. LOBENZEN.

She Kept the Money.

A well dressed woman with "nerve" and two small children gave a display of check that excited the great admiration of a large number of passengers on a Washington street car yesterday afternoon. When the conductor came around to take up the fares she handed him an emerald transfer ticket. He declined to take it and demanded five cents. The woman insisted that the ticket was good for herself and family.

"Why, madam," remonstrated the paragon conductor, "it's as good as earth. Five cents, please!"

She refused, and the conductor stopped the car so it could put her off. One of her children got off.

"Do you mean?" said the indignant passenger, indignantly. "Shall my child and I be put off the car because your old car and go on?" She pushed the child back.

"The indignant husband, placed at the irate female, nervously laid his hand on the bell-rope, and finally signalled to go ahead. He was muffled clear out. But he then to the gentleman.

"Next time you want to ride on this car for nothing stay off," he added. All the passengers smiled, the women openly chuckled, the enclosed husband wiped the perspiration from his brow and the conductor started the car with a throw left. Pretty soon the unwelcome passenger signaled to stop, and she got off, being evidently at her destination.

"Thank you for your very great kindness," she bitterly remarked at the rear conductor, and then she sailed triumphantly up the street with her two pine sticks in her wake.

The conductor with difficulty refrained from getting off to an argument, and the car went on.—Portland Oregonian.

Highest Award

FOR Supreme Excellence, ON THE PUTNAM DROP FORGED AND HAMMER POINTED HORSE NAILS.

At the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago. A medal and diploma awarded "Supreme excellence in material, method in manufacture, and quality of finished product; elasticity and workmanship combined with holding power in clinch. It allows the use of very small nails."

There is nothing issued anywhere more in these modern days comparable to a horse and nails; the material used, workmanship, and "quality of finished product," Putnam Nails, in their "elasticity," give rigidity to the separation and contraction of the hoof while the horse is in motion; the true "assistants," do not enlarge the hole made by the nail, which their "superior combination" to "holding power in the clinch" enables them to hold the shoe in the proper position until worn out.

Be the size of steel shoe, shape horse shoe, clinched and point cured to Brinkerhoff.

This is not to state that the officials of the World's Columbian Exposition, always or when platform go to make up a good horse and nail that can use the "Putnam" nail to the best advantage.

Can a Man do Better

Than to Buy a "STEARNS!"

We made the bold statement, challenging contradiction, in last week's Tribune, that the Stearns Bicycle was the highest priced bicycle to the dealers—and the highest priced bicycle to the dealers was the highest priced bicycle in the world. Have any of the agents of other wheels accepted the challenge? Not a. They know that we have the goods. We know to a dollar what every one sold in this city during the whole long, long year, and they know it. We are using the robbers better value for their dollars in the

Stearns,
Fowler,
Gendron,
Waverly.

Stearns Bicycles are so far ahead of any other that it is hard whatever. Many nice men this year had quite the section of the L. A. W., the first "STEARNS" wheel has finished first, first, first. The first World's Record Broken this year was on Nat Butler, and the "STEARNS" special of 25 pounds, namely, the Great Lincoln road race at Malden, Mass., before many thousand happy people, and the time it was in this, 28 of 30 miles, was hour, eleven minutes and twenty-eight and a fifth seconds, for twenty-five miles. Think of it, on the road. Did the "STEARNS" wood rims and leather weight wheels break down? I guess not.

How about the Fowler?

Good, when, good workmanship. Value for price in every purchase. Try one.

Mr. A. Fisher Fisher Brewing Company, bought two Waverly Belles, one for his daughter and one for his niece. Mr. John Irvine, same company, bought Waverly Belle for his daughter four weeks ago but sale resulted from the first.

Mr. N. A. Naylor bought Waverly Scorcher.

Mr. Thad Naylor bought No. 1 Gendron.

Mr. George Hirschsogel bought Albatross Eagle, and Gendron Gaffin bought Stearns special, 27½ lbs. All on Monday last.

"Fisher" statement that the "Sterling" was the only and first wheel to be ridden up Capitol Hill is an error. A Union and Gendron were both ridden up to the top of Capitol Hill last year before the grading, which has been going on all winter, was done. On Tuesday, Hamilton C. Collin, 11 years old, rode the Stearns special, weighing 27½ pounds, gear 72, to the top of Capitol grounds. Mr. Angell accompanied him on a Fowler geared to 66 inches.
