DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, March 5, 1896.

Salt Lake Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of this Stake will convene in the Assembly Hall, Salt Lake City, on Saturday, March 7th, at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.; and in the Tabernacle on Sunday, the 8th, at 10 a.m., and 7:30 p.m.

The officers and member of the Stake will please govern themselves accordingly.

Your Brethern,
ANDRW M. CANNON,
JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,
CHAS. W. PENROSE,
Presidency of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion.

Suing for Divorce.

Sarah E. Olger has filed an action for divorce against George W. Olger, on the grounds of infidelity to procreate. In addition to this Mrs. Olger prays for $75 to defray the expense of the action.

Stoutt vs Brigham.

The case of Joseph M. Stoutt vs Nat M. Brigham, which has occupied Judge Hiles' attention in the Third District court for the past two days, came up again this morning.

Mr. Stoutt claims that on October 4, 1893, he was entitled under the terms of a chattel mortgage to immediate possession of certain personal property situated in the Morian block, the mortgage having been executed by J. A. Morian and wife, and upon the same date Marshal Brigham levied upon the property under an execution in favor of the American National bank and against J. A. Morian and wife, and sold the same to plaintiff's damage to the sum of $1,718.53.

Mr. Brigham alleges that the chattel mortgage was made for the purpose of defrauding Morian's creditors and that no consideration passed for the execution of the mortgage.

Passed Away.

Mary Louver Page, wife of J. S. Page, after an illness of about three months, passed away quietly at her residence in Payson at 5:45 Wednesday morning, March 4th, 1896. Funeral services will be held at the Tabernacle at Payson, Sunday, March 8th, at 1 o'clock p. m. Friends of the family are invited.

Again in Bereavement.

MESA CITY, ARIZONA,
February 14, 1896.

To the Editor:

At Mesa City, Arizona, there died of pulmonary consumption, on Feb. 12th, George William Ingram; born 17th of May, 1867, at Wheatfield, Jasper county, Indiana. Bro. Ingram was religiously inclined from childhood and in early youth earnestly applied himself to the study of Bible religion, to qualify himself to become its exponent and defender. He joined the Christian church and at the age of 19 was preaching repentance and baptism for the remission of sins, and at 23 had become prominent as a preacher and was called by the mission board of his church, with salary of $1,000 per year, as mission president, to organize, increase and take charge of all the branches and interests of that church in both New Mexico and Arizona, with headquarters at Phoenix. He visited J. S. Coxby, a fellow laborer, then pastor of a church of the same church at Tempe. He was then investigating the claims of "Mormonism" and presenting the subject to Elder Ingram, he also gave himself to its investigation, became convinced of its truth, and at once threw down his other calling, and on the 14th of June, 1890, with Elder Coxby and others, was baptized and confirmed a member of the Church. It was a nine-day's wonder to all the region round about. He was ordained an Elder and with Brother Coxby and others soon visited St. George for Temple blessings; after which Brother Ingram engaged as school teacher and in other industries, to obtain means wherewith to return to his native state to acquire a more thorough education. To this mission he was set apart by President Cannon and much at the Pioneer conference July 4, 1892. From there he returned to his parents at Valparaiso, Ind., attending the college there for over two years, and being outstripped in education by none. He was respected by all and believed by all who really knew him, but he made the mistake feared by those who knew him best—he wore himself physically too weak to stand the strain he had undergone. After attaining all hoped for in scholarship, he returned to his friends here to grieve them with his worn and broken physical condition. He was invited to a chair and salary in the Latter-day Saints' college in Salt Lake City, which, while waiting improved health, he still hoped to accept. As home missionary, we leather in the various callings, and as a true Latter-day Saint he was vigilant in all duties, and an example to all, and he died in full assurance that to his calling as a Seventy a broader and more glorious field of missionary labor awaited him on the other side of the vail, in the society and under the direction of those who have gone before.

COMMISSIONERS ASSEMBLE.

The Minutes of Monday's Meeting Disclose Chief Pratt's Rejected List.

An Attempt Made to Drop Dock Sergeant Livingston Instead of Sergeant Mcintosh—Other Matters.

Pursuant to adjournment the fire and police board held a meeting yesterday afternoon commencing about 5 o'clock. The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting disclosed Chief Pratt's retrenchment schedule, which was almost wholly ignored by the board in cutting down the force and is as follows:

I herewith comply with your request that I make suggestions in relation to the reduction of the police force of this city, by men, to conform to the ordinance that was recently passed by the City Council.

I wish to state that after a careful consideration, keeping in view the efficiency of the department, I respectfully submit the following list of names to be dropped under the retrenchment ordinance: Duty Sergeant J. N. Risinger, Dock sergeant C. Livingston, Patrolmen F. C. Brown, J. J. Duke, T. J. Everitt, L. S. Larsen, W. Oarman, F. L. Johnson, E. M. Yocum.

IN BEHALF OF DISCIPLINE.

After the minutes had been corrected and approved Commissioner Cohn arose and asked if it would be in order to reconsider the action taken on Monday night, as he desired to change one nonsensible list—that of Dock Sergeant McIntosh, for Charles Livingston. Mr. McIntosh, he said, was one of the most efficient men in the department and had inaugurated a system of bookkeeping that was perfect. He thought it was a mistake to discharge him as he believed Mr. Livingston could be better spared. He therefore moved, if it was in order, that Monday night's action would be reconsidered and that the name of C. Livingston be substituted for that of W. W. McIntosh, on the list of men ordered discharged.

Chairman Varian contended that the motion was out of order, under the rules of all parliamentary bodies, and under the rules of the board the only way to consider it was to ask unanimous consent of the members to the change.

Commissioner Cohn then asked for unanimous consent, but as the members of the board considered Monday night's action an actual discharge, they did not care to acquiesce in the request, although the prevailing opinion seemed to be that a mistake had been made in allowing the head of Mr. McIntosh to undergo official decapitation.

REFERRED TO THE CHIEF.

The action of the board in conferring special police power on A. F. Cummings was rescinded, as the law says that power onto the chief, and the communication making the request was referred to the proper authority.

TALBOT TEMPORARILY DROPPED.

On motion of Commissioner Cohn, Chief Pratt was instructed to dispense with the services of Officer Talbot, who had been engaged to patrol Liberty Park during the summer, and who was doing regular police duty at present. His lay off, however, is only temporary until such time as his services are required at the Park.

Building Inspector Folsom asked for assistance from the fire department, in tearing down a condemned building at 61 west First West street, which the owner, R. B. Anderson, had refused to take action upon. While the ordinances provide for such assistance from either the fire or police departments, the board was afraid of establishing a bad precedent and therefore took the matter under advisement.

THE CITY ATTORNEY CENSURED.

Then Commissioner Cohn, at the request of the City Council, took occasion to censure City Attorney McKay for the loose way in which the records of the police court had been handled since the new order of things had been brought about. Said he, "When Mr. James was clerk everything was kept in the best possible style, but since his resignation things have been pretty much allowed to run themselves."

The members did not feel inclined to interfere in the matter, thinking perhaps that the City Council which confirmed the appointment of Judge McKay as city attorney was in duty bound to see that the officials, whom they were the instruments in appointing, should properly attend to the duties devolving upon them.

AS TO THAT BILL FOR AN ACT.

Then another matter was brought up by Commissioner Cohn, who, arising to his feet, faced and addressed Commissioner Jennings in the following manner:

"I understand there is an amended bill being prepared for presentation to the Legislature to legislate this board out of office and give to the Governor the power of appointing a new board. Is that so?"

"Yes, sir, that is true," replied Commissioner Jennings, adding, apparently at Commissioner Cohn, "such a bill is in course of preparation, but it is not yet completed. When it is finished I shall take it upon myself to see that each member of the board is supplied with a copy."

At this juncture Mr. Cohn took his seat, but not without an expression on his face, however, that told louder than words that he would do all in his power to defeat the measure which he recited to think Mr. Jennings is some way responsible for.

Adjourned until 3 o'clock today.

Spanish Fork Eisteddfod.

The fourth annual Eisteddfod of Spanish Fork Cymrian Association was held on Monday, March 2nd, 1896, at the Young Men's opera house. Mr. J. O. Thomas, of Spanish Fork, was the president of the Eisteddfod; Prof. H. E. Giles of Provo the master of ceremonies and conductor; Prof. A. C. Morris of Manti, the accompanist of the occasion. Mr. T. C. Mansell of Spanish Fork, had the honor of being the adjudicator of the poetry, recitations and speeches; he did his work with a clear conscience and to the satisfaction of the people.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the first session commenced with a Welsh air by the Spanish Fork brass band under the leadership of Mr. Rees D. James. Introductory remarks were made by John O. Thomas, and the Eisteddfod was opened to compete for the prizes according to the program.

Singing the male chorus, "Soldier's Victory March" (Gwenli), for six to (twelve voices), the Spanish Fork male chorus under the leadership of Wm. H. Davis, was the only party singing. The tea silverware set donated by the Spanish Fork Coop. was awarded to the choir and the baton to the conductor.

Welsh recitation; two competing, the prize, $5, was given to Henry E. Giles Jr., son of Prof. Henry E. Giles, Provo; he is a promising young musician.

Base solo, Let All Obey; two competing; the $5 prize was awarded to Reuben Evans, Scofield, who sang well and possesses a splendid voice and will make his mark in the musical world.

Recitation, Convict Joe; the prize of $2 was awarded to Moe Emeline James, Spanish Fork, who recited the piece in an excellent manner.

Male solo, Welsh air and song, the silver cup and the money were awarded to William T. Evans, Scofield, who sang a love song, Y Gwenith Gwyn, (white wheat).

Adjudication of the poetry, The Rise and Progress of the Eisteddfod at Spanish Fork, five competitions for the gold pen and the money were awarded to John J. Davis (Iowan Dan), Provo.

The harp solo, The Rising of the Lark, was played admirably by Wm. L. Jones, Scofield, who took the prize of $5; Matthew Jones, the promising son (only 7 years of age) played after him and was encored.

Soprano solo, My Western Home, (Stephens), two contestants; the lady's winning case was awarded to Mrs. Mary Ann Rowe, Eureka.

Duet and chorus, Our Home in the Mountains (J. S. Lowly for children from 10 to 12 years of age. The children's chorus of Spanish Fork, Moe Rowe, conductor, and the Lake Shore children's chorus, under the leadership of Mr. Gleason, competing. The prize of $5 was equally divided between them.

Soprano solo—Welsh air and words. The silver cup and money were awarded to Mrs. Mary Jones, Spanish Fork, who sang the love song Adoryan, (Blackbird).

This finished the program of the afternoon session.

Soon after 7 o'clock in the evening the house was overcrowded by patriotic Welshmen and their friends. Ex-Governor Thomas was greeted when he took his seat on the stand. The program was proceeded with as follows:

Music by the Spanish Fork brass band.

Selection, Utah We Love Thee, by the Spanish Fork Choir. This singing was very good.

Address by Ex-Governor Thomas; he greeted the audience as citizens of the State of Utah, who will have a voice in the election of the next President of the United States, and referred to the success of the Salt Lake Grand Eisteddfod, and the loyalty of the Welsh-Americans to this great republic.

Duet, tenor and bass, The Sinking Ship; two parties competing; Harry H. Hughes and his friend were the winners, and were awarded the prize of $5 worthily.

Impromptu speech, five contestants, David T. Lewis, Spanish Fork, took the prize.

Mixed chorus, Moonlight Will Come Again (W. D. Thompson); from eight to twelve voices; the Spanish Fork choir, under the leadership of Wm. T. James, worthily took the prizes, the $10 and one set of silver table cutlery were given to the choir and the baton to the conductor.

Duet, List to the Convent Bells, was rendered by Mrs. Bowen and Miss Mary Rees.

Solo, Hundred Fathoms Deep, sang by Joseph Phillips; encored.

Harp solo, Ash Grove, was played very well by Wm. L. Jones, Scofield, followed by his little son Matthew on the same instrument.

Welsh song, Men of Harlech, sang by William T. Evans, Scofield, the congregation joining in the chorus.

Prof. Giles sang with the organ a Welsh comic song, followed by Prof. Jos. A. Rees with another Welsh comic song.

After Gwilym Jenkins rendered a song the Eisteddfod was closed by singing the solo and chorus, Land Of My Fathers. The Cambrians had a jolly time. PROTEUS.

The Ideal Pancras.

Results Tell the Story.

A vast mass of direct, unimpeachable testimony proves beyond any possibility of doubt that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually does perfectly and permanently cure diseases caused by impure blood. Its record of cures is unequalled and these cures have often been accomplished after all other preparations have failed.

Reed's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter County, California, was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by druggists.

"It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very severe cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I was recommended this remedy. Chas. M. Gatlord of Reedley, Fresno County, California." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs. For sale by druggists.

How to Cure Rheumatism.

ARLINGTON, GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON, November 16, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the shoulder and hand for a month, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint but found no rel ef until she used this Pain Balm, one bottle of which has entirely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it to other troubled. Yours truly, C. A. BULLOCK. 50 cent and $1.00 bottles for sale by druggists.

"Nothing venture, nothing have."

Hon. John Reed, Jr., of Great Falls, Mon., recommends Ely's Cream Balm to any man who can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Free Church, Helena, Mont.

It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and is worth its weight in gold. I can use Ely's Cream Balm with safety and it does all that is claimed for it.—H. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

The blue-bird is hailed as a harbinger of Spring. It is also a reminder that a blood-purifier is needed to prevent the system from the debilitating weather to come. Listen and you will hear the birds singing: "Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla in March, April, May."

"A crick in the back," a pain under the shoulder-blades, water brash, biliousness, and constipation, are symptoms of disordered stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels. For all ailments originating in a derangement of these organs, take Ayer's Pills.

Whiskers that are prematurely gray or faded should be colored to prevent the look of age, and Buckingham's Dye excels all others in coloring brown or black.
