PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - SEP. 11, 1894

THE GARDEN CITY.

District Court Business—Preparation for Republican Convention.

The First district court opened yesterday morning and the following business was transacted:

Emma M. Redmal, of Vernal, was granted a decree of divorce from Samuel Redmal. The ground was failure to provide.

In the case of Jacob Johnson vs Christian Madsen et al, a decree of foreclosure for $700 and costs was ordered.

Hearing in the matter of partition of the J. M. Drake estate was set for Monday Sept. 24th.

In the case of the Nephi Irrigation Co. vs Richard Jenkins, defendants were allowed to file exceptions to the report of Master in Chancery S. S. Thornton.

In the case of Noble, Wood & Co. vs Mount Pleasant Equitable Co-op. all the parties allowed till Sept. 24th to file exceptions to final report of Receiver F. Modesh.

The First National Bank of Provo was granted a decree of foreclosure against Albert Brown et al for $612.50 and $50 attorney's fees.

Frank Merryweather, John Ross and Thos. S. Ross all of Scofield were admitted to citizenship.

S. A. King, Esq., appeared for Frank Hughes, of Vernal, who is now in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury on a charge of robbery, and succeeded in having his bonds reduced from $2,000 to $1,000.

Court adjourned sine die.

The First National Bank of Nephi has commenced suit against Dennis Sullivan, of Eureka, for $597.55, secured by a chattel mortgage on fifty head of cattle and fifty head of horses.

Notes.

The Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association have resumed their regular sessions, after the summer vacation.

The Stake Sabbath school conference held last Saturday and Sunday was well attended and many valuable instructions were given to Sabbath school workers. The reports from the various schools in the Stake showed large attendance and an increased interest in the work by officers, teachers and children.

The county court was in session yesterday. Among other business brought before that body were a number of petitions from men who have made payments on lieus of school lands, asking that the money be refunded, as the ruling of the Supreme court makes the leasing of school lands by counties illegal. Referred to the county attorney.

Great preparations have been made to entertain the Republican Territorial convention and the Republican league convention, which both meet in this city today. The Opera house has been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The citizens have generously responded to the calls of the committee on entertainment for lodgings of the visitors, and everything possible has been done to make the occasion a success. Many delegates from the north came in last evening.

Mexican Mission.

The Quarterly Conference of the Mexican Mission was held in Juarez, in the school house on the 27th and 28th of August, 1894. Elder Geo. Teasdale presiding.

On Saturday, at 10 a.m., after remarks by Elder Teasdale, Counselor Jos. H. Jones of Diaz ward, Bishop Frank Scott of Chuves ward, Bishop Winslow Farr of Dublan ward, Bishop J. N. Smith, jr., of Pacheco ward, and Bishop Geo. W. Seery of Juarez ward reported the condition of their wards, all of them being in a prosperous condition, Diaz ward being especially blessed this year with grain and abundant crops.

At the afternoon meeting Elder Teasdale announced the death of Elder John Morgan, and spoke of the faithful labors of the deceased. Elders Miles P. Romney, C. Heaton and Franklin Spencer occupied the time.

On Sunday 26th Elders A. F. Macdonald and Henry Lunt occupied the afternoon.

In the afternoon the speakers were Elder W. R. Howell, Henry Eyring and Geo. Teasdale.

At 7:30 P. M. Elders John Jacob Walser, Peter A. Dillman, Philip Hurst and Geo. Teasdale addressed the congregation, and the benediction was by President Geo. Teasdale.

The subjects dwelt upon during the conference were: Faith, unity, charity, home manufacture, and the necessity of good examples by living a Godly life. The spirit of the Lord was enjoyed abundantly by both speakers and hearers, and the result no doubt will be renewed diligence by the saints in faith and work. The choir was appreciated by all present. J. J. Walser, the leader, is a hard worker, and his choir is considered a credit to the mission. All the societies held their meetings as usual, and were attended by President Teasdale and his companion.

Fine rains are falling, making the hills green and beautiful, gladdening the hearts of both man and beast, and as we are in Mexico, feel that we have much to think the Lord for in having such peaceful surroundings.

MARK E. ROMNEY,
Clerk of Mission.

OBITUARY NOTE.

DEATHS, Salt Lake county, Sept. 7, 1894.—The funeral services over the remains of Isaac Catherine Conrad Smith, wife of A. W. Smith, were held in the ward house this morning at 10 o'clock. The speakers were Bishop Joseph E. Taylor, Bishop James Jensen, Peter N. Gerff, Lorenzo D. Smith, Bishop John Sudweeks, Sister Emma Terry, Hannah Hawkins and Oliver Smith, all of whom were acquainted with the deceased during her journey, and in an interesting and affecting manner spoke of her ardent love for God and for the people of God, and her great love for her religion.

Sister Smith was born in England January 10, 1818, she joined the Church in 1846, emigrating to Utah in 1854, she is the mother of four children. Since her arrival in these valleys she has devoted her whole time in the service of her religion, having acted as the president of the Primary association for over twelve years, president of the Relief society for eight years and as nurse worked in the Sunday school. The people have learned to appreciate her labors in their behalf. There was not a home in Draper but has received her aid in time of sickness or need. She shared her love with all, and through her cheerfulness and untiring efforts she has won the love of not only the little children with whom she was so closely associated, but young men and young ladies all loved her. She was indeed a true mother, one who perceived the importance of heavenly mission, and possessed the determination to do her part in every sphere, the many which was a Pioneer who endured many trials and hardships, and has at last been called to another home where she may still pass onward, doing good by the way and glorifying her Maker. She has lived to a ripe old age, and remained a faithful Latter-day Saint to the end. Her example is worthy of consideration by all.—[Com.

MARY H. MALMQUIST.

Died at Vermillion, Sevier county, Utah, on September 3, 1894, Mary Hattie Malmquist, wife of Edward Malmquist and daughter of John E. and Elizabeth Stoddard.

Mrs. Malmquist was born in Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, Utah, on May 26, 1866. She leaves a husband and six infant babes, and also her parents and several brothers and sisters to mourn her loss, besides a host of other relatives and friends. Of her it can truly be said that she was one of earth's noble women, a loving wife and an affectionate and dutiful daughter to her parents. She was kind to all she met in life, and died as she had lived, a faithful Latter-day Saint. She was a faithful member and worker in the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement association, and was also an ardent worker in the Sabbath school. To know her was to love and respect her, and the sympathy was felt by all who knew her. The bereaved husband, parents and other relatives have the sympathy of all.—[Com.
