Dramatic and Lyric.

Success of Mrs. Windsor—Phil Margetts and Carl Rosa Next—The Stocks of New York—Mr. Frawley's Company—En Tour—Notes.

[illegible]

[illegible]

Next week for Conroy's, [illegible] what Joe Jefferson will do [illegible] Clarke is due to [illegible] Jefferson, the Dream part of Rip Van Winkle, and [illegible] H. S. Willis [illegible] whether it has ever occurred that Mr. Clarke has not [illegible] Mr. Jefferson for the last twenty [illegible] Clarke is due to [illegible] Jefferson, the Dream part of Rip Van Winkle, and [illegible] H. S. Willis [illegible] whether it has ever occurred that Mr. Clarke has not [illegible] Mr. Jefferson for the last twenty [illegible] Margetts all away to the [illegible] Under the Gaslight." The bill [illegible] as follows:

[illegible]

A London letter says: The great event of the forthcoming London season will be the re-opening of Adelphi Fair, when the [illegible] Adelphi Theatre, Mr. Frank Harris [illegible] Mr. Harris's management [illegible] Mr. Harris's [illegible] Mr. Harris's [illegible] Mr. Harris's