A Nasty Case.

Mrs. Louisa Brown was adjudged guilty in the police court today of disturbing the peace. The case was a series of family quarrels that have been ventilated in the police court of late. The testimony showed that there had been a great deal of billingsgate and the foulest kind of language used. Sentence was set for Monday at 10 o'clock.

Arrest At Toquerville.

Editor Deseret News:

At about 10 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, the 10th inst., Marshals McGarry and Low arrested Elder Levi Savage at his residence in Toquerville, Utah, on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. The case was examined before Committing Magistrate J. Y. Lauder, Silver Reef. Brother Savage was held under $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury, at Beaver City, Utah, on the 14th of September next.

HORATIA.

TOQUERVILLE, August 16.

A Pleasant Call.

Judge William Thomson of Burlingame, Kansas, and his estimable wife and daughter are among the visitors to our beautiful city. The Judge gave us a pleasant call this morning and expressed himself as entirely delighted, as well as agreeably surprised, with what he had heard and seen since his arrival in the capital of Utah. He wished it understood, that so far as he could see, there was nothing whatever in "Mormonism" since polygamy had been abandoned, but what deserved encouragement and even admiration. The city founded here on what was once a desert plain, and the Tabernacle with its grand organ, the judge said, are noble monuments to the genius of Brigham Young, the man who was the chief instrument in laying the plans and foundations for what we see here today. Judge Thomson in these sentiments expresses the thought of many visitors from our own country and from abroad.

HOME MANUFACTURE.

It Will be Under the Efficient Supervision of W. H. Rowe

AT THE TERRITORIAL FAIR.

Efforts of Dr. John Park to Make the Educational Exhibit the Best the Territory has Given.

One of the most important departments in the approaching fair is that of Home Manufacturers, under the supervision of William H. Rowe. He offers cash premiums and gold and silver medals for collection of assorted colored flannel, cassimeres, dress flannel, white flannel, white and colored linseys, white and colored blankets, cotton yarn, batting, cotton goods, wool yarn, knit socks, over and undershirts from home made material, suits of clothes made from home made material. Sheepskins, colored mats, calf skins, kip skins, vaqueros, English and American saddles, bridles and whips; common sense boots and shoes, men's wear; youths' and boys' school shoes; misses' and children's school shoes; fine boots and shoes; trunks and caps and paper boxes; refrigerator; safe; book case; home-made brooms; school furniture; wood turning; scroll sawing; fancy cabinet work; fine shafting; ornamental iron fence; horse shoes; couplings; molasses mill; mining car; waterwheel for irrigation.

It is the intention of many manufacturers who have never exhibited before to do so now and make a show entirely worthy of Utah and her varied industries. Mr. Rowe has all the experience necessary to this important undertaking, and will use it to the best advantage. Since last years' exhibition many new manufacturers have started up, and they will all, no doubt, be on the fair.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The educational department will also be almost a new and novel one as the character of exhibits has been changed and differ from our heretofore given. Besides those named in our record of the premium list we find that premiums have been offered for

Dr. Park has charge of this department, and he has been working hard to make it a great exhibition, and is using every means to awaken an interest. He has sent the following circular to school departments:

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,
August 20th, 1892.

Dear Sir:—I send you today copies of the premium list of the Utah Territorial Fair for 1892, with additional pages of class M contained therein, representing the educational department, for distribution among teachers and others of your county most likely to take the greatest interest in the exhibition.

I hope you will examine the scheme for this department and that you may approve it and will use your efforts to make at the fair next fall as good an exhibition of education from your county as possible.

You will please bear in mind that the fair opens on the 4th of October next and that it is the last opportunity our Territory will have before the World's Fair at Chicago next year to show its ability to make a creditable display at that exhibition.

May we not rely on your county to make a good exhibit at our home fair? Though it should be as complete and as good as you would wish, it will contribute at least a valuable element to the general exhibit, and enable our commissioners for the World's Fair to know somewhat definitely on what they can rely.

For further information regarding this matter address John R. Park, Supervisor Educational Department Utah Territorial Fair.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Alexander R. Mitchell Instantly Killed At Sandy, Last Night.

There was a very sad and fatal accident at Sandy last night about 8 o'clock. Alexander R. Mitchell, a poultry raiser was sitting near the door of his house at that time. Leaning against the casing was a loaded shot gun. A sudden gust of wind blew through an open window closing the door with such force as to knock down the fowling piece. The weapon was discharged and its contents blown into the head of Mr. Mitchell killing him instantly. Coroner Harris of this city was notified and the body was brought to Shaws' undertaking establishment where an inquest was held this afternoon and a verdict of accidental death rendered.

The deceased was unmarried and thirty-one years of age. He came to this city from Milwaukee where he had some relatives who have been apprised by telegraph of his tragic and untimely death. He was a native of Canada. Funeral services are expected to be held tomorrow.

A YOUTHFUL PRISONER.

He is Brought From Logan and is Now Languishing in Jail.

Deputy United States Marshal Corey came down from Logan last evening having in charge Alfred Brooks, the 11-year-old highwayman, charged with house-breaking this time.

On Tuesday last Mrs. Brooks sent the lad to the house of a Mrs. Neilson to procure the daily supply of milk. Not finding any one at home, Alfred entered the house and began to go through the drawers in the bedroom. He succeeded in finding $12 in silver, part of which he secreted under a fence on the premises and placed the balance snugly away in his trousers. The money was missed and the boy's arrest followed immediately after. When questioned, he revealed the hiding place of the stolen property.

It will be remembered that some time ago young Brooks was arrested and arraigned before Judge Miner, for stealing a horse, and on account of his tender age was released with the understanding that better government would be maintained by Mrs. Brooks over her son.

The lad will remain in the Ogden city jail until Judge Miner's return from the north, when, beyond the question of a doubt the hospitable portals of the Reform school will be thrown open for his reception.

COAD VS. KESLER.

The Former Will Prosecute No More Violators of the Sunday Liquor Law Before the Police Justice.

Another internal imbroglio is now on in the Police court. Kesler and Coad are again pitted against each other. Mr. Coad occupies the position of assistant city prosecuting attorney and as such he has been called upon to prosecute all violators of the Sunday liquor law. He considers, however, that he has been playing to a losing course in that respect for some time. He has become thoroughly disgusted and all such cases that he will be required to deal with hereafter, he says, will be tried before some other justice.

WILL IT BE PICKARD?

It Is Reported That the Ex-Councilman Will Succeed Ewing.

There is considerable speculation in municipal circles as to who will succeed Mr. S. C. Ewing as councilman from the Second precinct. There are numerous candidates for the position and the filling of the office will probably be warmly contested by the official friends of the councilmanic aspirants. The man most prominently mentioned and the most likely to get the successful nomination appears to be ex-Councilman Pickard. It is authoritatively stated that he has already announced himself as being in the hands of his friends.

SCARCITY OF MONEY.

It Causes the Ogden Chamber of Commerce to Make Appeals for Merchants and Taxpayers.

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Ogden Chamber of Commerce was held last evening at which the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce and citizens in public meeting assembled hereby request the City Council of Ogden City to repeal the ordinance whereby merchants are required to pay for license for doing business in this city.

Whereas, Money is exceedingly scarce in all of the inter-mountain country, and

Whereas, To proceed with sales for the collection of taxes is a great injury to the farming community and all business men in Weber County and no benefit to any person except speculators who purchase tax titles, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the tax collectors of Ogden City and Weber County, and also the board of county selectmen and the City Council are hereby urgently requested to extend the time for the payment of taxes for 1892 until April 1st, 1893.

Whereas, Through the good offices of the City Council of Ogden City the Chamber of Commerce is now occupying splendid quarters in the City Hall, and

Whereas, On several occasions the mayor and City Council have supported measures of interest and benefit to the city of Ogden, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be and the same is hereby tendered to the Mayor and City Council of Ogden city by the citizens in general meeting assembled and be it further

Resolved, That all courtesies of the Chamber of Commerce be extended to the Mayor and City Council individually as a mark of appreciation by this body; and,

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this chamber.

P. VOLLE, one of Halsean's victims charged with keeping an unlicensed dog, was discharged without prosecution.

WEAPONS OF WAR.

Another Shipment of Ordnance From The National Navy Yard To The Coast.

It is stated that advices have been received by the railroad officials and quartermaster's department that active preparations are being made at the navy yard in Washington, D. C. for the shipment of the ordnance outfit of the coast defense vessel Monterey across the continent to San Francisco. This will be the largest single shipment of ordinance material ever made in this country and will require a complete train of cars to carry it. During the Chilean controversy, when it was thought the "Monterey" would be needed for service against the Chilean navy, one of the two twelve-inch guns to be mounted in her forward turret was shipped to the coast and preparations were made for hurrying the rest of her battery along as rapidly as possible, work being pushed on her guns at the Washington yard to the exclusion of other work in the shops. Then came the Chilean apology and the rush work was stopped.

Since then all the guns and mounts have been completed. The second of the twelve-inch guns will be shipped on the special car built by the Pennsylvania railroad company expressly for carrying heavy guns for the navy. The two ten inch guns for the after turrets will be loaded on two extra strong freight cars. Still other cars will be filled with the hydraulic mounts for the heavy guns, the smaller guns and all sorts of ordnance stores and supplies, making a complete train that will run through from Washington to San Francisco without being broken. All the cars are equipped with air brakes and it is expected very little time will be lost on the trip.

When the mammoth steel rifle arrived in Ogden last spring considerable excitement was caused and hundreds of interested spectators viewed the "peacemaker" as it lay upon the special car built for its transportation. The exact date of the passage of the train through Ogden will be duly announced.
