STAGE POLITICS.

A Proposition to Employ the Theater for Partisan Purposes.

KANSAS POPULISTS' CAMPAIGN.

The Idea is to Depict the Woes and Ills of the Working Classes in Order to Gain Votes.

TOPEKA, Feb. 17.—The Populists compass a novel way of campaigning. They will organize a theatrical company of young people of the capital to tour as an adjunct to the state campaign, and send them over the state, giving plays depicting the woes and ills which afflict the working classes. A number of plays of this character have been written. It is believed the scheme will make a great hit. Governor Lewelling is said to have approved it, and other leading Populists agree with him. The proposition has been mentioned in Chairman Davidson, and will be acted upon at the next meeting of the state central committee.

POWDERLY'S LATEST.

Has Levied Against the Knights of Labor for Salary.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.—John W. Hayes, general secretary and treasurer of the Knights of Labor, today issued the following notice to the order:

"T. D. Powderly, not general master workman, A. W. Wright and John Devlin, late general executive board, have entered suit against the order for balances of salary which they claim is due them. Notice is published to prevent any evidence being given on reliable statements that may be made in the public press. If by decree of the court it is believed that the order is indebted in any way to these claimants the order is and will be fully able to meet any just claims.

JOHN W. HAYES,
"General Secretary and Treasurer."

WRIGHT'S STATEMENT.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18.—A. W. Wright, ex-member of general executive board, Knights of Labor, made a statement tonight concerning the suits brought against the order by the ex-general officers. "It," said he, "demanding our money months after it is due, is evidence that we are disloyal to the order, was Hayes's course in drawing every cent due him up to the minute, evidence of his care for the order's welfare?

"Admit if it were true that Powderly has done anything to injure the order since he went out of office, Wright and he did not doubt that members were willing to Powderly as they were willing to him, asking questions, as we, if foolishly answered, would get the writers of the letters a very poor opinion of at least one who holds a high position in the order. He did not think that Powderly answered the letters foolishly, but telling the truth in a case of this kind is at once the right thing and the best thing for the order.

"IN THE CURIOUS."

Strange Letter Written by a Hermit and Suicide.

CANTON, Me., Feb. 18.—Charles D. Fenton, a peddler and hermit, blew the top of his head off today. He left the following letter:

"To the Curious:—Feb. 18, 1894.—In the morning I shall be dead, shot through the head with a big charge of lead (no pun intended) and be on the spook trade in the kingdom of souls. Disease and poverty are the causes. However, some knows that I am in a desirable condition, but I am just the same. Sore, tired, lame, lazy or need my carcass to the phosphate factory, just as the same strikes you. I am weak, lonesome and hungry, but I know how to cancel all my engagements with Mr. Trouble and Mr. Misery.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES D. FENTON."

Concerning Placer Claims.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 17.—The decision of the general land office has been materially changed by the decision of the secretary of the interior in the case of E. O. Farrel et al against William L. Hogel et al of the Helena, Mont., land district, on appeal from the decision of the land commissioner. The secretary holds that each twenty acre tract of any placer claim must show the discovery of minerals in order to obtain a mineral patent. Whether the claim is surveyed or not makes no difference in the rights of the locators. Accordingly a location made on a small amount of land is void except as the twenty acres immediately adjoining it. This is a reversal of the views of the land office.

The Navajo Chief Dead.

DURANGO, Colo., Feb. 17.—A letter dated Farmington, February 10, says: Manuelito, chief of all the Navajos, died two days ago, and his wife a day after. His successor will not be known for several days yet.

THE VACANT BENCH.

The President May Nominate Congressman Wilson This Week.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 17.—The New York delegation in Congress is moving quickly, as a result of the rejection of Peckham for the Supreme Court bench, and already three prominent New York men are being actively considered. The New York delegation is not aware the recent discords over Hornblower and Peckham to recall in making the appointment outside New York, but it is known that the President now considers the work done to him from which to select a justice.

In case the selection goes outside of the House of Representatives William L. Wilson is mentioned.

A Cable Car Ride.

KNOXVILLE, Feb. 18.—For months plans have been on several cable car lines on the Tennessee river in this place, and work is continually delayed from a lack of a distance of 2000 feet where the river being a particularly swift and deep one. This afternoon without a moment's warning, while the cars with eight passengers was near the bluff on the opposite side of the river, the cable broke and the car dashed down the incline at a frightful speed.

The critical motion of the car caused the cable to wrap around it, and when within about 200 feet of the ground it checked so as though it were an iron clad. Outside of the collapsed attach Dave Lodgepoole, a prominent young attorney, had only on the back, suffering slim injury. The band started from the wreck, somewhat scattering the clothing of the remaining occupants of the car, frightening them so badly that they attempted to jump out of the windows into the river, but were restrained by the trainman.

Finally a tug was secured and we chored silently beneath the daughter car, and the sufferers were rescued by means of a rope, each descending hand over hand.

At the coroner's inquest tonight it was discovered that the cable has been partially severed by an unknown instrument.

The Deadly Gas.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 18.—Eight men were overcome by gas in the basement of the power house of the Fifth street cable in Kansas City, Kan., tonight, and one is dead, Superintendent C. F. Morse, may die.

Shot in the Back.

DENVER, Feb. 18.—Detectives this afternoon arrested a man as he got off the train from the west, and in the afternoon a warrant was sent to the platform and was charged, according one of the detectives in the case.

Still Not Better.

BUFFALO, Feb. 18.—A special to the Express from Niagara Falls says Bill Nye, who became ill there yesterday, is somewhat improved. Best will bring him around all right in a short time.

A New Silver Plan.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Yesterday Representative Hines of Pennsylvania introduced a bill which he believes will be an excellent plan for the settlement of the silver question. It proves that any person may deposit with the government $5,000 worth of silver bullion and by depositing with it 25 per cent of the value of the bullion in United States government bonds as a guarantee against any depreciation of silver, he may receive $20,000 in legal tender notes, redeemable in gold.

A "FRIENDLY" SCARRING MATCH.

But a Harvard Student is Dead as a Result.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 18.—A. H. Lehmer, the Harvard student who combined hitting to a deadly sparring match Tuesday, died today. A medical examination will be made tomorrow in the interests of the profession, as this is considered a remarkable case.

Dead or Alive.

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 18.—Governor Hughes yesterday offered a reward of $5,000 for Kid, the renegade Apache, dead or alive. The governor, for the last three months, has been devising means by which he could be taken.

Joy Turned Into Sorrow.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 18.—News comes of a double murder at a wedding in Alleghany county. Daniel Slaughter married Miss Hayes, and Slaughter danced for the door. On the way he stabbed Ed. Long, killing him instantly.

A HORRIFYING SPECTACLE.

The Official Account of the Brandenburg Disaster.

People in an Engine Room Scalded to Death by Escaping Steam—The Cause Not Known.

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The emperor is sending a large wreath which will be displayed at the funeral of the victims of the Brandenburg disaster.

The Reichsanzeiger published the official account of the explosion. The account says the accident happened through the breaking of the apparatus for turning on steam on the starboard engine, and the steam from all the boilers found ingress into the engine-room, filled with people. The steam scalded them and penetrated through the door leading to the port engine-room, and thence through the stairways into the upper rooms, continuing the work of destruction. Almost every person busily at work in these rooms must have met with instant death, as the steam was pouring from the boilers at a temperature of 340.

Nothing is yet known as to the cause of the breakage.

A dispatch from Kiel tonight says the engineer on board states that at the moment of the explosion 7,200 horse power was in reserve. The engineer adds that on previous trips as much as 10,000 horse power had been reached.

The spectacle in the engine-room after the disaster was horrifying. The dead were heaped, some upon another, dewold at obtaining the peeled flesh hanging in rags, while none was to be seen at their months.

Government Troops Defeated.

BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 17.—Advices received from Rio state that the insurgent squadron has suspended the bombardment. Five thousand insurgents from the Southern part of Brazil have entered the state of Sao Paulo and are marching in the direction of Rio. They have had several skirmishes with government troops, and in each instance have assisted them.

Anarchists in London.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The arrest of a prominent member of the Anarchist group of anarchists in London has caused the apprehension of late member and seized a number of his private letters. He at first makes show of being indignant, but finally did not deny the charge.

The widely announced meeting of the Anarchists today, under auspices of the International Workers' Union, was attended by only fifteen persons, of whom fourteen were detectives. The whole function was unsuccessful. The speakers announced that no account. After waiting for two hours, with only one Commonwealth Hungry, made a speech in which he stated "don't in fighting we go, and left up Vaillant, Pallas and other martyrs as worthy of emulation.

Hundreds were ready to sacrifice their lives in the great cause. He found was perfectly prepared to obey. They had nothing to use up, but were simply the slaves of capitalism. Diseases were useless and physicians was unknown. When the government and Anarchists succeeded the making of Marlin guns for use against the people, the latter would relinquish the manufacture of dynamite bombs. He advises the workers to read books upon chemistry, which they would find in the public libraries, and learn the use of dynamite.

Other speeches, in twelve languages, were made and the audience wildly elected the sentiments of the orators. Many—evidently in disguise—clashing wire pieces.

The Pope's Jubilee.

ROME, Feb. 18.—The closing ceremony in connection with Pope Leo XIII. jubilee took place today, and consisted of mass, celebrated by cardinals, followed by a "Te Deum."

The mass was celebrated at the tomb of Peter. Leo was borne in the sacred chair, preceded by a cortege of cardinals and prelates.

The cortege of the pope was announced from the dome by a blast from a silver trumpet. As the procession of the bears, Leo intoned a "Te Deum" which was chanted by the whole congregation. The pope then re-entered the sacristan, with the cardinals his bearers, blessed the assembly. He then retired into the Chapel Della Pieta, amid prolonged cheering. The pope appeared considerably improved in health and intoned in a strong voice.

Tonight the facades of St. Peter's and other churches, all Catholic institutions, and a great many houses, were brilliantly illuminated. The pope's physicians say he is much better, but have advised him not to overtax himself.

Against the Lords.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Four thousand persons assembled in Trafalgar Square today to answer to an appeal to a resolution against the house of lords for destroying clauses in the parish council bill. The meeting adopted resolutions condemning the lords for their action in the matter. The speakers were Joseph Arch, Dr. Charles E. D. Tanner, the Irish nationalist, Dadabhai Nawoji, the well-known Indian merchant, and five other members of the house of commons.

Arch said Lord Salisbury had done a wonderful service when he made a date wherewith to hang the lords and put the rope to the opposite beam.

The meeting adopted resolutions declaring the house of lords a nuisance and makes institution and demanding that it be abolished forthwith.

Strangers Becoming Jealous.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The Herald's dispatch from La Libertad says: It is said that President Vasquez of Honduras, who is being besieged by the allied armies of Nicaragua and Honduras insurgents, is in the capital city, Tegucigalpa, his holding several hundred prominent revolutionists as hostages. He hopes thus to prevent actual assault upon and the sack of Tegucigalpa. The cause of the city continues stationary, though most of the provinces of the country have declared in favor of the provisional government, established by the insurgents, whose leader is General Policarpo Bonilla. Both sides are now almost without ammunition and Nicaragua is becoming anxious to have the war brought to a close as soon as possible.
