DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 29 1906

months' visit at Ocean Park and Idaho and a tour of the Yellowstone.

Misses Georgia and Daisy Savage will leave in the near future for Washing-ton, D. C., where they will spend the Miss Helen Critzer has returned from Denver, where she has been visiting with friends for some time.

Miss Ellhor Stewart has returned to New York, where she will enter school for the winter.

Miss Winifred Woodmansee returned from California this week, and is at home again on Arlington avenue.

Mrs. C. R. Pearsall left this week for Butte, Mont.

Mrs. Eliza O'Reilly left this week for Montreal, where she will remain some time on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynne left the city Sunday for Los Angeles. 14 8 8

Lucien A. Ray is in Butte, to be gone about a week on business. Mrs. Virginia Snow Stephens has taken apartments at Whitehall, where she will be at home for the winter. Mrs. Joseph Siegel is here for a part of the winter, and is at home at the Knutsford.

8 4 8 Mrs. Marie Gerrans has moved to 66 west Third North street.

Today Misses Althea and Georgie Wheeler entertained at an informal tea in henor of their neices, Mrs. De Long and Mrs. McRoberts of Chicago, who Mrs. Arthur Weeter, of Park City, is are visiting in the city for a few days. | Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Masson

EVENING COAT OF LUSTROUS VELVETEEN.

for a brief visit in southern California.

Mrs. Mose Christenson of Bolse is in Salt Lake and will visit with her moth-er, Mrs. C. S. Nichols, for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Welby and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norton of Denver, passed Sunday in Salt Lake, receiving their friends in Mr. Welby's private car,

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb will shortly be at home in the Canning flats.

Mrs. W. E. Terhune left Thursday evening for Long Beach to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Wall.

35 FDDING

Mrs. William Earley announces engagement of her daughter, Carrie L., to Mr. J. George Barrett. The wedding to take place the early past of November.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Daynes announce the engagement of their daughter Stella to Mr. Christian Christensen, the wedding to take place the early part of the winter.

A number of interesting weddings have taken place this week, among them that of Miss Margaret Donnellan and Robert W. Glendinning both of this city, the event taking place at Pacific Grove, Cal., on Wednesday, with Miss Lena Meyers, a cousin of the bride, in attendance and Karl Scheid of this city best man. The young peo-ple laft later for a wedding trip, which will probably include Salt Lake, where they will be welcomed by a host of Their future home will be in riends. Mexico.

. . . Miss Rachel G. Chapman and Lewis C. Reilly were among the week's bridal couples leaving after the reception for a trip to the Northwest after which they will go to filinois to reside.

Rev. E. I. Goshen officiated at two pretty weddings durin ethe week, both on Wednesday night, that of Miss Fearl peirce and Howard Eugene Smith at the Congregational church and of Miss Sarah Ackerman and C. and of Miss Sarah Ackerman and C. E. Reed at the bride's home.

A pretty wedding of the week that of Miss Alta Brown and Mr. W H. Childs, which took place on Wednesday ight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kearens, the marriage having been solemnized in the temple during the The rooms were decorated in a profusion of flowers, the parlor in plnk and white roses, the hall in red zenias, and the dining room in yellow nasturtiums. The bride wore a gown of white net over taffeta, and carried roses. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. D. C. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hampy ton, and assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Charles Peabody and Miss Lillian Olson. Mr. and Mrs. Childs will be at home to their friends after Oci. 1, at 1089 south Eighth East St.

OGDEN.

Wednesday in the Sait Lake temple Miss Marion Olivia Lindsay was mar-ried to Vernon Hobson. The happy X ried to Vernon Hobson. The happy young couple returned to Ogden on And Deve Source the evening train. They were given a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lindsay on Madson avenue Wednesday evening which was attended by the relatives of the contracting parties and a few in-timate friends. A bounteous wedding repast was served in the dining room, the tables were decorated with cut

Nelson officiating. About a hundred and seventy-five guests were in attend-ance and enjoyed a most enjoyable eve-ning, devoted to wedding festivities and extending congratulations to the happy couple. A delicious collation was served.

Mr. James Poulton was here from Salt Lake this Realph Poulton Lake this week, visiting his son, Bishop

Monday night Mrs. H. S. Pyne entertained at a family gathering in honor of Mr. Pyne, who left for Washington, D C., this week,

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Smith of Salt Lake visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dus-enberry and family this week.

Mrs. F. W. Taylor gave a pleasant surprise party Monday night in honor of her mother, Mrs. H. J. Richards, it being Mrs. Richard's birthday anni-versary. A number of neighbors and friends joined in extending congratulations and good wishes to Mrs. Richards.

Miss Lucy Gates visited her sister, Mrs. J. A. Widtsoe, in this city during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Whitney of Salt Lake spent part of the week in Provo visiting relatives and friends.

The Sixth Ward Sewing club met Thursday evening with Mrs. Ralph Poulton. After the usual work of the club delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. George Moore is visiting friends in Charleston.

Miss Connie Moore visited friends in American Fork this week.

The Priscilla club met Friday eve-ning with Misses Allie and Fern Smoot. After the usual interesting program, de-licious refreshments were served.

The Pallas club celebrated its first anniversary Thursday night at Miss Alice Brown's. A delightful program was rendered and dainty refreshments were served. . . .

Mrs. N. F. Wilson entertained at dinner Sundey. . . .

Mr. Howard Eugene Smith of this city and Miss Pearl Pierce of Salt Lake were married Tuesday at the Congrega-Lional church in Salt Lake City, Rev. E. I. Goshen officiating. A wedding sup-per was served in their honor at the home of Mrs. M. L. Snow, Mr. Smith is connected with the Teiluride Power company, and is well and favorably known here. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make Provo their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Snow of Salt Lake spent the week in Provo.

Dr. Harry McGraw, formerly of this city, but now residing in Denver, spent the week visiting friends in this city.

The following party enjoyed an out-ing and picnic in Provo canyon Satur-day. Misses Elsie May Smith, Edith Dunham, M. Walley, Edith Sherman dainty lunch was served. and Mrs, Harris.

Mr. Herb Pyne left Provo Tuesday for Washington, D. C., for the purpose of completing his studies. Mrs. John Stewart entertained a num-

A SEPARATE WAIST MODEL.

A pretty and simple design for the modeling of a pale blue orkeda taffeta silk is that of the picture in which the deep U-shoped yoke is formed of finely tucked white net, outlined with a border of hand-embroidered allk in shades, and edged with a fine Mechlin lace of narrow width. The sleers is of elbow length and finished with a three-inch net cuff, trimmed with numerous frills of the lace. The yoke appears in the back but reaches only to the shoulder line.

ber of her friends at her home Monday | down to the long tables which were avening Music, games and a social prettily decorated with flowers and la. evening. Music, games and a social time was enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch den with a bounteous spread. was served. Mrs. Wallace of Salt Lake City was the guest of Mrs. Ester Stewart Sunday.

President Lund of Salt Lake spent a couple of days in Provo, the guests of his son, Prof. A. C. Lund.

of sweet music and social chat. Miss Jepperson was presented with a num-

Acord.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Smith spen; Saturday and Sunday in Provo. Mr. Joseph Nibley of LeGrando, Or., Mr. Brigham Jarvis is visiting friends spent a few days in Provo, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry.

in this city for a few days. Mrs. William Strong has returned from Springdale, where she has passed Mrs. Joseph Kirkwood delightfully entertained at her home Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Florence Jepper-son, who left the latter part of the week for Boston. Autumn leaves and cut flowers made a pretty decoration. About 60 friends enjoyed the evening the summer. .... Mrs. Jennie McFee of Charleston is visiting Mrs. William Strong and fam.

ily. . . . Miss Lettle Strong has returned home, after a pleasant visit with friends in ber of keep-sakes, which will remind her of the many friends at home who Salt Lake. * * * hold her in high regard and esteem. A Mrs. Hugh Dougall and daughter Kitty and Emma of Springville, spen Tuesday with Mr. William Hatfield and Miss Nellie aLrsen of Clear Creek is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Nancy family. * * * Miss Flora Cluff and Mr. Sid Vincent,

The officers of the Y. L. M. I. associapopular young people of this city, were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mr. tion of Utah stake were banqueted at the B. Y. university Sunday by the local officers of this city. About 200 sat Hyrum Cluff. About 150 guests and

E. MEHESY, JR.

About 25 guests enjoyed the hospitallty of Miss Anderson on Tuesday at a bridge tea, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham assisting the hostess. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Ewing. Mrs. Donnell, Mrs. Meyer and Miss Webber.

A reception was held at Unity hall Tuesday, the affair being in charge of the ladies of Unity Circle, assisted by Miss Flora Baldwin and Miss Blanca Teach with recitations and music, the affair being delightful throughout.

Miss Jean Spencer entertained her club on Tuesday night in a delightful-ly informal evening party, about a dozen being present.

Mrs. Arthur Bird entertained informaily on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Browne en-tertained a number of classificates at their home on Thursday night.

On Tuesday Miss Ruth Beasley gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Jonnia Earls of St. Anthony, Ida, the records being decorated with autumn leaves being decorated with autumn leaves and sunflowers, and a game of cardi-following the luncheon. The guests present were: Miss Carolyn Shemwell, Miss Helen Jennings, Miss Helen Mon-roe, Miss Florence Culmer, Miss Ida McDonald, Miss Carol Evans, Miss Omy Osborne, Miss Edna Schultzer, Miss Helen Burton, Miss June Whitte-more Miss Cliffle Cameron, Miss Hen-Miss Cliffie Cameron, Miss Henrica Wallace.

A delightful social affair of the week was the annual luncheon of the Cleofan given on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. H. Wells, the decorations be-ing in the club colors-blue and whiteand a program of toasts being given.

Miss Alta Brown was guest of honor at a china shower party on Monday given by Mrs. J. V. Hampton, the rooms being decorated in asters and roses, and about 25 being present. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. D. C. Brown and Mrs. E. J. Kearns.

Mrs. C. C. Goodwin gave an informal luncheon on Monday for her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Savage, the table being bright with autumn flowers and covers laid for about a dozen.

Mrs. W. E. Fife entertained at two functions this week in the way of bridge teas, about 25 guests being present at each. The rooms were decorated in autumn flowers and the hostess was assisted by a number of friends.

Miss Della Davis was guest of honor at an afternoon affair today given by Miss Rathbone, about 20 of their mutual friends being entertained.

Miss Florence Kimball was hostess at a matinee party on Wednesday at the theater, given in honor of Mrs. L. L. Savage, her other guests being Miss Bess McIntyre, Miss Mildred McMillan, Miss Jenna Budd Geddes, Miss Eloise Sadler, Miss Bess McMillan, Miss Genevieve McCornick, Miss Pearl Van Cott, Miss Beatrice, Cheerman presents, 8 3 8 Mrs. W. S. Hudson gave a box party-at the Orpheum on Thursday followed by a supper at Franklyn's, about a doz-en friends being entertained.

. . .

being bright with flowers and refresh-

Miss Elsie Parsons was guest of hon-ments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Moore entertained informally at cards on Wednesday night in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Fos-ter Curtis, the amusement being "500," and the prizes being steins.

The faculty of Gordon academy gave a reception last night at the home or Third South street, a large number being present and enjoyed a delightful evening.

. . . One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the reception given by Mrs. Savage in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clarfaculty of the University of Utah last night at the normal building was a deence Petersen who were married at Provo this week. The rooms were decorated in pink and white carna-tions and asters, the table in the dining room being especially effective. A half dozan intimate friends assisted and Deighton, two autumn brides, will be guests of honor at a card party to be given by Miss Louise Holt next Wedabout 100 guests were present.

Miss Cora Snyder was hostess at a luncheon on Wednesday given for Mrs. Arthur Weeter of Park City, the decorations being in red and white asters and covers being laid for about 13

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Anderson entertained at cards last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Palmer of South Bend. Ind.

4.4.4 A large throng went out to Saltair last night for the skating, and a spe-cial feature of the affair was the fancy the most expert. The affair was under the most expert. The affair was under the auspices of the students of the university and High school and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. W. D. Rivers was hostess at a delightful card party yesterday given in honor of Mrs. Walter Frazier and Miss Jeanette Luman, the tallies being prettly decorated and the rooms being bright with autumn flowers.

Mrs. Vivian McCune entertained her Club yesterday assisted by her mother, Mrs. Groesbeck, the rooms being dec-orated in autumn leaves and flowers, and about 30 being present.

Mrs. Oscar L. Cox entertained in-

You Will

An exquisite evening coat which will be worn by a society favorite this season is this model of a lustrous, fast-dye, black velveteen, the feature of which is its extreme fullness, stialned by the use of featherbone cords in shirrings run in sleeves and skirt to form narrow puffs. A narrow strip of ermine faces the inside fronts, and down either side of this and around the neck is cascaded a rich cream re pousse lace.

The rooms were prettily decorated, and a large number were present. * * *

Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Allen and their son and daughter left Thursday after-noon for a short stay in Los Angeles.

Wallace Bransford has gone east. and will be away two or three weeks. . . .

Mrs. Paul F. Nolan, who has spent the past five weeks with her mother, has returned to her home in Vancou-

Mrs. A. T. McCanne leaves today for Denver, Manitou and Colorado Springs to spend a fortnight. . . . Judge and Mrs. Alfred Cherry are in Denver for a couple of weeks the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vorse, . . . Mrs. W. C. Mabry is here from her home in Mexico, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mayne, Mrs. Charles W. Fifield and her small son are home afer spending the past four months in northern Mich-

. . . James W. Neill came here Thurs-day from Butte, Mont., and left for his home in Pasadena in the afternoon.

Miss Nora Van Cott left Thursday for St. Louis, where she will re-enter school. 1 1 1

Mrs. George Rust and her little daughter, Virginia, are spending a few weeks in California with relatives, Miss Bess Chandler is down from Bingham for a few days, visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cosgriff have gone cast and will be away several weeks. . . . Mrs. F. W. O'Connor and her daughter. Miss Beatrice O'Connor, have re-turned from a visit of two weeks to the

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cates have returned from a stay of some six weeks in Boston and other eastern cities, and are at their home in Bingham.

Mrs. Edward C. Parsons and her mother, Mrs. Sarah McChrystal, are back from an eastern trip.

Rev. P. A. Simpkin left Thursday for a short vacation at Long Beach.

Mrs. William Egan and her small son left this week for Kansas City to visit relatives. . . .

Mrs. Frank T. Hines, who has spent the summer here with her parents, will return to Jackson barracks early in ....

Mrs. W. T. Payme of Denver, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Rash, has returned to her home. Mrs. Thomas Weir is back from a short trip to New York. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. S. Mixer of Cambridge are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Mixer at 549 Elizabeth street.

Mrs. O. P. Miles and Dr. Luella P. Miles expect to leave early in October to spend the winter at Long Beach, Cal.

Mrs. Sarah McChrystal and daugh-ter, Mrs. Edward C. Parsons, have re-turned from a visit in the east.

flowers and ferns. The evening was enjoyably spent in music and sociality. enjoyably spent in music and sociality. The bride is a charming and accom-plished young lady, and the groom, Ho'sson, is one of the promising young business men of the city. They will make their home at $23 Twenty-third street, where they will be pleased to receive their many friends.

Miss Effie Reast, the popular and talented young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williar Reast, became the bride Wednesday of Mr. J. A. Allen in the Salt Lake temple. The groom is a prominent young man of Huntsville, Weber county. On their return from Salt Lake the relatives of the contracting partles greeted them at the home of the bride's parents on Twenty-second street and spent a very pleasant evening. The young man leaves Ogden Nov. 7, to do mis-sionary work in Colorado. Their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

Mrs. Mary Farley entertained a number of her lady friends Thurs.lay atternoon at her home on Twenty-sixth street. Music and cards made up the afternoon's entertainment, after which a fine dinner was served in the dining room. Roses and asters were the table decorations.

Mrs. Andrews entertained Monday evening at her home on Twenty-fourth street a number of her lady friends at a Dutch lunch.

Mrs. L. D. Smyth returned home this week from a pleasant visit at Bridgeport, Conn.

One of the pleasures of the week was the performance of "The Old Bedstead" at the Grand Opera House, by the Salt Lake Press club, which afforded an evening of real merriment.

The home of Miss Ellen Larkin was invaded Wednesday evening by a large crowd of her young friends, who gave her a delightful surprise party. There were about 20 present, who enjoyed themselves at all kinds of games, music and feasting.

Guy Clark, who has been visiting with friends at Provo, returned home Wednesday, Prof. Squire Coop entertained all of his former pupils Monday evening at his studio in the Dooley block. A very pleasant time was had at vocal and instrumental music. Dainty refresh-ments were served throughout the eve-ning. This was the opening of Mr. Coop's studio for the season's work.

Andrew Bowman, Edward Peterson and Frank Snyder of Ogden all left this week for Chicago, where they will enter the Northwestern university.

The Sunday school and Primary as-sociation of the Fourth ward gave a pleasing opereita, entitled "Maud Irv-ing," Thursday evening, at the ward amusement hall.

Henry G. Child of Riverdale and Miss Libble Tracey of Wilson were married this week. . . .

Mark Brown returned to Logan this week to resume his studies in the Agricultural college.

pretty home wedding took place A pretty nome weading took place Monday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Todd, when their daugh-ter. Miss Maud M. Todd, was married to Charles Martin, a popular employe of the Southern Pacific shops, Rev. J. E. Carver officiating. There were about 50 guests present to extend con-cratulations and enjoy the wedding regratulations and enjoy the wedding re-past and evening's pleasures.

George Foley of Croydon visited in Ogden this week.

PROVO.

Miss Eliza H. Stewart and Frederick Weatphal, popular young people of this city, ware married Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter leave today at the home of the groom's parents, Mr.

Knutsford Hotel Building

The Modern Trend

of commercial life is toward specialization -concentration upon a specific thing or related things.

That is the trend which guides the conduct of this shop. Its specialty is fur garments and fur requisites for women and childrenthe biggest shop in the west devoted exclusively to furs.

That it is our purpose to earn and maintain our position is de. monstrated by the extent and diversity of our stock, their high character and by the exceptionally modest prices at which they are offered. Particularly is this so of our.

Seal Skins

THE past week's business demonstrates that our furs are authentically correct and that our prices are much below those of other establishments.

With this assurance we prevail upon intending purchasers to visit our large, magnificent and perfectly equipped fur store. A selection of more than 5,000 embracing distinct models, each one possessing style individuality, for your choosing.

Alteration and Repairing of Furs

Whether it be for the remodelling of a garment or merely alterations we offer you the services of our expert and thoroughtly experienced furriers, together with a collection of altogether new models of garments which may help you to determine the style in which you would have your own coat.

MEHESY THE FURRIER.

(Personally in Attendance) Knutsford Hotel Block

Open Eveings Until 9 o clock.

A Small Deposit Secures Your Christmas Furs,

CARE CARE A DECEMBER OF CARE

Like It As the rolling snowball that grows with every increasing volume with each succeeding revolution, has been the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, for over lifty years. Year after year the demand for it has increased by greater and still greater bounds, necessitating frequent increase in factory capacity.

flavor, which is preserved by the Ghirardelli process of preparation, pleases, and that's why we say you will like it.

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

That's evidence conclusive that the peculiarly rich

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

Mrs. Richard Savage, Miss Pearl Sav age and the Misses Savage have re-turned from the Savage ranch in Wyo-ming, where they spent the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grover Brown have ieft Lake Tahoe, Cal., and are in San Francisco, where they will make their future home.

The reception given in honor of the

. . .

Miss Leone Wiscomb and Miss Ciara

Mrs. C. M. Bell and Mrs. W. L. Green will be hostesses at two card parties

Great interest is taken in the Symphony orchestra concert, and already box parties are being planned for the

. . .

Miss Louise Wiscomb was guest of honor at a delightful affair this week given by Mrs. S. G. Smith and Mrs. R. G. Williams, the affair being enjoyed by a number of the bride elect's friends.

OMING AND ST

. . .

Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton and

Mrs. Kissick have returned from a two lightful affair.

early in October.

nesday.

event