County Commissioners Go Through a Considerable Batch of Business.

MATTERS AROUND THE COURT ROOMS.

State Land Board Hearing a Contest—Superintendent Park Moving in the Lafayette Monument Fund.

The county commissioners met at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Messrs Armstrong, Hawkins and Hall and Clerk Dunbar being present. Last week's minutes were approved and the following business acted upon:

Hudson Smith asked that his title to lot 1, block 18, in Fusion addition be cleared. The property had once sold for taxes on account of a double assessment.

Stuart North asked for similar relief with reference to a part of a lot in plat A.

William Nagle and others registered a protest against the change in the ballot system of Mountain Dell cast. Martin Corn addressed the court in opposition to the petition, which he contended did not state facts. He said that 2-10 of the signers of the petition knew nothing whatever of the road and never thought of the matter.

Commissioner Hawkins, who seems to be well acquainted with the road and kind conditions, said he had visited in question, went into the history of the matter pretty thoroughly and the result was that the road will be moved to a location to suit all parties.

Harris Appleman asked for relief from a tax sale and abatement of subsequent costs on lots 32, 33, 34 and 35 in Dow addition.

H. A. M. Friesch asked the commissioners to purchase copies of his new state map of Utah.

The Utah State Fish and Game Protective association requested the assessor to be aware of a representative to the annual meeting of the association on Oct. 12.

The Highland Boy Gold Mining company called attention to the bad condition of some of the culverts on the county road below Murray, and asked that the same be placed in good condition.

Geo. E. Lee, justice of the peace at Bingham, asked for a copy of the State law code.

F. B. Hanfire resigned from his appointment as registrar of district No. 34.

County Clerk Dunbar submitted the following statement of fees collected in the county clerk's office for the month of September:

District court department	$ 178.40
Marriage license	235.00
Incorporations	121.75
Public fees	164.75
Merchants' license	150.00
Miscellaneous	1.00
Total	$1,300.90

Land Contest.

The state land board was in session today hearing the contest of Milando Pratt against Frederick H. Hewson. The latter claims the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 36, township 1 south, range 2 west, and the hearing will probably occupy two or three days of the board's time.

Highway Case.

An amended answer was filed in Judge Miller's court this morning in the suit of Salt Lake County against Geo. Davis. The action is brought by the county to secure the condemnation of a piece of Davis's land east of Holladay for highway purposes. A corner of the land belonging to Mr. Davis is in the line of highway 48 and the owner refused to relinquish the necessary strip for the building of the road.

Supreme Court.

In the Supreme court today arguments were had in the case of the Victor Gold & Silver Mining company against the National Bank of the Republic, on appeal of Brown and Henderson from an order of court allowing costs; also in the case of Nikolas Sandberg against the Victor Gold & Silver Mining company on a similar appeal. Both cases were taken under advisement.

It Was Chilly.

The court rooms and offices in the city and county building were uncomfortably cold this morning, and the clerks were busily running their fingers to secure warmth except when a fire in a grate imparted comfort. Notwithstanding the fact that the day was a cold one there was no steam heat on in the building.

Hams Coming In.

The office of the county collector is beginning to do business in consequence of the early payment of taxes by some property owners and the county's "wad" is consequently swelling.

Livery Concern Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation of the Bingham Livery and Transfer company were filed with the county clerk this morning. The incorporators and their stock holdings are: George E. Chandler, Boston, 996 shares; A. V. Andrews, Bingham, one share; W. C. Sprague, J. M. Stewart and Walter Wolf, Salt Lake City, one share each. The principal place of business is to be Salt Lake City, and the object of the company is the transaction of the livery business, with a capital stock of $1,000, divided into 1,000 shares of the par value of $1 each.

LAFAYETTE MONUMENT.

The Movement Among the School Children to the Patriot's Memory.

Dr. John R. Park, state superintendent of public instruction, has received the following letter from Commissioner General Peter Hansen, W. Pope, with reference to the proposed erection of the Lafayette monument:

"A special commission has been formed in the commissioner general for the United States to the Paris exposition for the purpose of securing by popular contributions funds to erect a suitable monument to General La Fayette whose remains now lie in a practically unmarked grave in the Petit Picpus cemetery of Paris.

"It is now planned that the monument be built in Paris for unveiling and dedication on United States Day, the Fourth of July, 1900, at the Paris exposition—thus making the day a great memorial one, both for America and for France.

"It is proposed that in the raising of funds the schools of America be utilized as the agency for reaching the people and procuring the contributions, and to this end I urgently request that you ask as early as convenient that the teachers and officers of your schools, colleges and universities (public and parochial) recognize October the 6th, (the date of the fall of Yorktown, to which La Fayette contributed so greatly), as 'La Fayette Day,' and that they devote a part of the day contributed to a relation of the Historic events pertaining to La Fayette and the early days of our Republic.

"In the higher grades an appropriate program of exercises may be evolved, to which an admission fee should be charged, or where collections may be made the proceeds to be turned over to the school in the La Fayette Memorial Commission for the purpose mentioned.

"In the primary grades it is suggested that the children be requested to solicit from their parents or acquaintances a small amount—from one to ten cents—to be used for the same purpose.

"In furtherance of the work I take pleasure in appointing you a member of an honorary advisory committee, to consist of the superintendents of education of the various states and territories, and bespeak your hearty co-operation to the end that this beautiful and significant movement may reflect the greatest of credit upon the youth of our country, upon their patriotism and the gratitude of our people.

"I should be pleased to at once receive such suggestions as may occur to you as would facilitate the work. It is desired also to secure the full and correct name of your governor and yourself, as it is proposed to decorate one of the panels of the monument to a member of the entire and honorary members of the organization of the committee.

"The distinguished gentleman whose name was given in a previous paragraph comprising the executive committee will have charge of the application of the fund and the erection of the monument."

Dr. Park has had this letter printed in a circular for distribution in Utah, and in addition thereto is sending out to school superintendents, principals and teachers the following letter, signed by himself, for the introduction for the project here:

"Will office cooperative with some representative school of the frequent calls upon our public schools for contributions in aid of certain schemes worthy, the plan of presenting patriotism in the rising generation. It is believed to believe that the frequency of these calls arise rather to suppose that spirit of national devotion, than to foster it, besides interfering seriously with the progress of the schools. I am, however, just now confronted with an appeal so strong in its spirit of patriotism and of love to country, and so highly and honorably commended and promoted by the chief legislative and executive officers of our nation, that I am induced to submit its purpose and plan to the public, private and denominational schools of Utah for their favorable consideration and action.

"I furnish you a copy of a letter I received from the commissioner general of the United States to the Paris exposition of 1900 and endorse also a prospectus of proposed La Fayette Monument, which will explain fully the purpose in view, and the plan suggested for securing it out."

AMUSEMENTS.

Tonight the doors of the New Grand will be thrown open to the public for the theatrical season of 1898-9. The attraction provided by Manager Mulvey for the occasion will be a laughter provoking farce comedy from the pen of George R. Edgren, under the title of Two Married Men. There are crowded many bright specialties, including music and dancing by several lady artists of ability. The New Grand is a comfortable little theater and will certainly do its share of the season's business.

The Empire Stock company, a new local dramatic organization, will appear Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week at the Salt Lake Theater in The Cotton King. This play is a thrilling melodrama and one of the best produced in years. It will receive its initial presentation here by the New Empire Stock Co. The sale of seats opened at the box office this morning.

The Queen's Lace Handkerchief will be presented by the Salt Lake Opera company on Saturday afternoon and evening of this week with performances on the Monday and Tuesday evenings following. As the other operas presented by this company achieved instantaneous success, it is certain that the Queen's Lace Handkerchief, the most ambitious effort yet attempted by the company, will also meet with approval.

The Cotton King which will be seen at the Salt Lake Theater Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, October 5th 6th and 7th is one of the modern melodramas. The scene is laid in one of the great manufacturing centers in Lancashire, England, and the hero of the piece is a young American. New scenery and stage effects have been specially prepared and the production promises to be a good one. The great elevator sensation will be given as in the original production and the scene showing the Adkins mills at night with the angry crowd of mill workers intent on violence will be produced on an elaborate scale. Popular prices will prevail for the benefit of Conference visitors.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Poisoned by Ivy

Was in a Dreadful Condition

Happened to Read About a Similar Case—Followed the Other Man's Example and Was Cured.

The following incident is given by Charles Morris, general jobber, 31 Lexington Avenue, North Cambridge, Mass.:

"Several years ago I became poisoned by ivy. I tried many medicines, spending a large sum of money without obtaining a particle of good. My children were also afflicted with the same disease. We were all constant sufferers with an awful itching sensation, and it seemed as if I should tear myself to pieces. I picked up a paper in which I found printed a testimonial from a man in Vermont who had been similarly afflicted and had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla with benefit. I bought a bottle, which we took and it did

Me and My Children

so much good I purchased another supply. We continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla until we used five bottles and I can truly say that neither myself nor children have any signs of the poison. It has entirely left us and we are perfectly cured. We give the whole credit to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before coming to this medicine I was reduced in weight, but now I weigh 175 pounds. Hood's Sarsaparilla has not only done much good but has been the means of saving me a great deal of money. I would not be without it in my house and I heartily recommend it to all who are afflicted. I have written this statement for publication, of my own will, as I want others to know what has done for me." CHARLES MORRIS.

Hood's Pills act the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

WONDERFUL SUGAR RECORD.

The Lehi Factory Turns Out 136,000 Pounds in 24 Hours.

The Utah Sugar company again broke its record on Saturday, having turned out 1,136 bags of sugar in twenty-four hours. This was so far ahead of the highest previous record, of 1,107 bags, that the superintendent could not accept it as one until he had personally visited the factory. The factory is now considerably over the two million pound mark, and has only been running twenty-two days. The company paid its dividend of 50 cents per share to stockholders on September 30th, and the stock has sold since the dividend was paid at $11.40 per share.

Death of a Pioneer Woman.

On Saturday evening, October 1st, at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Elizabeth Harris Ball Broom McBride, a Pioneer of 1847, died in this city in the 87th year of her age, at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Sarah R. They lived for a time on the Jordan river and then moved to the Seventeenth ward where they resided for several years. Then they moved to Provo and from there to Kanosh, in Millard county, where her husband was Bishop for a considerable time. Mendon, Utah and Pima, Arizona, were other places of residence. At the latter place the deceased's health so impaired and so that account and by reason of advancing years she was induced to come to Salt Lake City and spend the evening of her life with her daughters, which she did. Her husband preceded her to the spirit world several years ago.

The funeral will be held from the Fifteenth ward meeting house commencing at two o'clock. Friends of the family are invited.

Dr. Cooke at the Grand.

A good crowd of the curious attended Dr. Lloyd Cook's performances at the New Grand last night. The all was hardly what was expected, but those who paid their "small" admission fee, were forced to confess that the doctor was quite clever in slate writing, mind reading, thing and mixing keys and crowning the climax of the bandage of a pair of handcuffs. An examining committee, consisting of Messrs. A. J. Dorsey, M. Kopp, J. H. Nichols and A. M. Davis, closely scrutinized the doctor's manoeuvers, but they were mystified, despite their attempts to "catch on" to his capers. Regular prices prevailed.

Death of Miss May Fjeldsted.

Preston, Idaho, (Standard): The Standard is once more called upon to record one of those sad occurrences which have been so frequent in our community of late. The death of a bright and estimable young lady—Miss May Fjeldsted—occurred on Monday morning last at 7 minutes to 5 o'clock, of that dread disease, typhoid fever, which is often so epidemic in Preston. The deceased was born in Logan, Utah, aged 17 years of age the 8th day of last February.

May was a most promising young lady; was modest and unassuming and highly respected by all her acquaintances both old and young, and the announcement of her taking off was received with profound sorrow and regret by every one who knew her, especially among her young lady associates.

The funeral was held in the Preston meeting house on Tuesday at 1:30 o'clock, a number of sympathizing friends being present. Tributes were made by Elders J. G. Nelson, E. F. Woolley, Joseph H. Hickman and others. The remains were accompanied by ten young ladies, dressed in white, six of whom acted as pall bearers. It was a pretty though sad sight.

To add to the distress of the surviving home a brother of deceased, Edgar, is suffering from the same disease that caused the death of May, the mother is quite ill and the grandmother an invalid.

Brother and Sister Fjeldsted are entitled to and have the sympathy of all, and the Standard hopes they may find relief in the comforting influence of the Holy Spirit, and realize that God does all for the best.

Hon. Gov. Burke of North Dakota, United States inspector of land offices in Oklahoma territory, is in the city on an official visit. During the past six months he has been traveling through the south. There are quite a number of Utah people in Utah who are always pleased to welcome an old friend in "Honest Andy," as he was popularly called in his northern home.

Personal Paragraphs.

Capt. Elias Wright Terry, the new commander of the Iowa, was in charge of the transport Benefit in the Red river expedition and received the highest praise in Admiral Porter's dispatches.

Work has commenced upon the foundation of the statue of Gen. Sherman, which is to be erected on a vacant lot of the treasury building in Washington. Three years will elapse before the statue will be ready for unveiling.

Sharon Spinks of Newport, Ky., who is supposed to have been accidentally drowned last week, had an insurance of $12,000 on his life. He owned several pieces of property in Newport, and was one of the wealthiest citizens of northern Kentucky.

"Have you renounced Populism?" was a question put to Senator Pettigrew one day, and this was his reply: "Any man who will spend six years in the United States Senate must give large and know more, either that or grow into nothingness. I don't know that I have changed my views, but I know more."

Much of ex-Secretary John Sherman's wealth was made by fortunate investments in Washington real estate. He purchased years ago a small German bought what was then the Stone farm on Columbia heights, now the fashionable residence district of the city. They bought six acres at about 4 cents a square foot and soon sold a portion of it at three or four times the cost. Now much of the land is worth $2 a square foot, and it is estimated that Mr. Sherman still owns about $100,000 worth of the property.

TEETH FALL OUT.

Dentists and physicians maintain that if mankind always ate soft food, teeth would finally drop out. Reasonable resistance to grinding food, strengthens and adds to the life of the teeth.

Chewing is the method nature intends by which the necessary juices can be brought out of the grain. These facts were remembered by the originator of Grape-Nuts, and there was supply the new food will supplement. Nuts, Grape-Nuts and cream, now it is possible to produce a food that is as absolute pleasure to mastication.

And in this a flavor, crisp and satisfying, and a well fed feeling after the meal, and the popularity of Grape-Nuts is a no difficult to understand.

They are made by the Postum Co. at Battle Creek, Mich.

A MILLIONAIRE'S DREAM,

A World's Corner on Worship Building Interests.

Cleveland, Ohio, to be the Base of Operations, According to a Visionary Evening Paper.

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—An evening paper says: One of the most gigantic projects for the combination of capital is being engineered in this city. It is nothing less than an attempt to unite the worship building interests and the stamp plate and gun making interests of the world into one great syndicate, whose headquarters shall be located near Cleveland.

Men of international reputation in the financial and manufacturing world are in the deal.

All manner financiers of wealth and vault have been quietly visiting Cleveland. Their coming and going has been kept as secretive as possible. They have arrived hence, leaving privately being given to their guests.

It is believed that every engineering gun making and stamp plate making firm in the United States has been in the negotiations. The promoters claim they can raise a capital of $200,000,000. One of their lieutenants, which may or may not be mere a ruse, is said to be the securing of a canal from the great lakes to the sea, all on United States territory. The lands are laid out and the canal could then be located on the lakes.

Among the Circumstances who are in the deal is said to be Col. Myron T. Herrick, president of the Society of Savings, and Robert Wallace, president of the Cleveland shipbuilding company. Dr. Gatling, the famous inventor of guns, has been seen in conference with other men in the deal. His new invention, the mitrailleuse gun which was cast in one piece at the Otis Steel works has created discussion in the private circles. The foreigners who visited the city were taken to the Otis works and examined the big giant carefully.

Attorney General Monnett of the gun which bears his name, has also been here. Andrew Carnegie is one of the chief men in the negotiation. Robert Wallace is now in the city with several of the foreigners who visited Cleveland. Before he returns he will stop at San Francisco and the properties of the Union Iron works, which built the battleship Oregon, will be approached as to whether they will come into the deal.

Some time ago Murray Verner of Pittsburg, a promoter who has engineered many deals for Carnegie, was in Cleveland and took up the great project with local men.

The miners strike at Dolgeville, O., and Long Run, has been settled, part of the men beginning to work today and others will go in tomorrow. Over a thousand men were out. The settlement is a victory for the miners as all points but one were gained.

Fred Grile, a saloon keeper at Hokah, Minn., met a horrible death yesterday. In lighting his wife almost his clothes ignited and he was burned to death. A barrel of the liquor exploded and the building is known to burn. Grile was the only person in the building.

Charles Wickes of Philadelphia, assistant foreman of the Pennoyl Bridge company, and with bridge contracts, fell off the bridge near the tower into the Niagara river. After striking the water his body did not reappear.

JOHN C. GRAY.

John C. Gray, one of the early settlers of this valley, passed away yesterday morning at 10:15. For the past six weeks he had been confined to his bed with a complication of ailments, which combined with his extreme age, finally resulted in his death. He was born at Salem, Mass., May 24, 1820, and came of sturdy New England stock famous either for sterling honesty and strict uprightness. His ancestors in the Mormon faith converted in 1842, a year which saw many proselytes by reason of the efforts of Elastus Snow. At this time he left his native town and journeyed to Nauvoo, where for several years he was a prominent member of the Prophet Joseph Smith. After the exodus from Illinois he lived in St. Louis, coming from that place to Salt Lake City, arriving here on Oct. 16, 1848. A carpenter by trade he took a prominent part in the early development of the city. For many years he was connected with Brigham Young's Twelfth ward. Later he served the city in the capacity of city sexton and building inspector.

Mr. Gray was married three times of his status. No landships was too difficult for his iron frame to withstand, nor did he ever worry a hair's breadth from the path of duty. He had his fond lived, a faithful Latter-day Saint, and he passes from this life only to return to his loved ones gone before in the world beyond. May he rest in peace.—[Com.

You need a doctor many times when you don't call one. You suffer pain in fifty forms and yet won't call the doctor, because you know that the pain "will go away before a while." Yet, too, you know by experience, that that first visit of the doctor is generally followed by many others, with the inevitable consequence of a big bill "for professional services." You don't know what to do for yourself or what to take.

But suppose that you could get free, absolutely free, the advice of one of the most

He has an office in the building, he has a staff of correspondents to assist him, and anyone and everyone, who needs medical advice is invited to write to him. If it's baby's health or mother's or the health of any member of the family you may write about it, and by a careful reading of your letter, care of a conscientious diagnosis of your case,
