POST OFFICE ROBBERY.

A Bad Theft of a Horse and Cart Belonging to Fred Wilson.

In the Police Court—Two Battery Men Sentenced—Interesting Local Items.

Sheriff Lister was notified yesterday by telegram from Corinne that the robbers from that place had robbed the post office. The left some horses out, and stole the cart of one and fill in grain sacks with the robbers gained entrance to the building by trying open a window. The name of the company to whom the horses belong is not known, but it is supposed that the thieves drifted into Ogden during the day or evening.

A BOLD THEFT.

Last Tuesday night Fred Wilson drove up to a store in Ogden and went inside to buy some groceries for his family. He had his horse hitched to a cart in front of the store. While he was in the store some person or persons unhitched his grocery team, and drove off and sold the package to a man who said he was a stranger in the city and who said he was going to Salt Lake. Mr. Wilson, having lost his team, had to walk to the post and the grocery team, which was valued at $100, was not found in the city. It was supposed that the thieves had taken it to the place from which they had come, but the sheriff was notified and have had that to be on the lookout for the team. The team was a very valuable one, and great pains were taken to find it. A thorough search was made that night, but nothing of the team could be found. It was thought that the thieves would be found in the Corinne district, but the team was not seen in that vicinity. It was thought that the thieves would be found in the city of Ogden, and the sheriff was notified of the loss of the team.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

In the police court, the case of Jennie Ivie, charged with assault and battery, was dismissed.

The case was given five days and a fine and costs in the case of Frank Thomas, charged with the same offense. The men are said to be drunkards. The case of Frank Ivie, charged with the same offense, and Theodore Tracy, charged with the same offense, were both fined $10 and costs.

FARMINGTON.

Missionary Social—Citizens Municipal Ticket for Forthcoming Election.

Special Correspondence.

Farmington, Utah, Nov. 1.—A very pleasant socialite was given last evening by the girls of Farmington to some of the young men of the town. The object of the social was to raise money for the Y. M. M. I. A. association, who intend to go to England on a missionary tour. An enjoyable time was had, and a material gain accorded to Elder Combs.

CITIZENS' MUNICIPAL TICKET.

The citizens of Farmington City, in a mass meeting recently held in the court house, resolved to put forward the following ticket for the coming city election: For Mayor, Lewis E. Allred; councilmen, Lewis H. Orwell, Spencer Hales, Ed. Hales, Jr., James Smith, Daniel Dunn, Arthur Hess, Geo. W. Fullmer; recorder, Lewis H. Orwell; treasurer, Geo. W. Fullmer; marshal, Ezra F. Richards; city attorney, Joseph Cottle.

Of the candidates, the mayor, one councilman, the recorder, treasurer and marshal are Democratic, and the remaining five candidates are Republicans. It is to really a citizens' ticket, but will be so regarded, for the Democratic ticket, Farmington has always had a non-partisan list of officers. As the last election the candidates were voted for as the Republican ticket.

Disparaging remarks and ridiculous statements have been made concerning the non-partisan ticket recently published in these columns. The list as published is what it is, and is the representative element of Farmington, and is manifestly before the public for consideration and action. It is to be hoped, that no more honorable men and women are to be found in Farmington.

CENTREVILLE.

Farewell Social Given to Edwin George Harker, and Frank Rigby.

Special Correspondence.

Centreville, Davis Co., Utah, Nov. 1.—A farewell social gathering tendered to Elders George Harker and Frank Rigby, who have been called to labor in the Eastern States mission, was held last (Saturday) for missionary labor in Great Britain, took place in the meeting house here in Centreville. The young men are to leave for their mission in the oriental frontier. Miss Harker and concerts, and Mr. Fish rendered some selections. Elder Harker and Brother Rigby spoke in the evening, and returned from a mission before the "Ward" session. He was composed of a good social time was had, and to each of the departing Elders, farewell and safe arrival were served. The young men are to be accompanied by Elder Thomas Hatch coming with a few appropriate remarks. All the speakers expressed the feeling in which the young men are to be held in the ward.

Jonathan and Elias Clark and wife had their seventy-third years in the ward, and Mr. Clark is 90 years of age. All the leaves behind her a husband and a host of children, grandchildren and nieces and nephews, who will long remember and cherish her memory.

STRIKE ON THE RAILROAD.

There is some excitement in town this afternoon, caused by some of the men working on the D. & R. G. R. R. attempting to stop the strike on Monday's pass. This company is now here being going down the line in the morning, and returning back in the evening, passing and repassing each other. This morning they took the train as usual, and returned back on the train as usual. After working about two hours the boys came along and had a motor car, and they went down the line, stopping a number of men at 25 cents per day on each day's wage. Morris and picks were stopped and the men working on the line were discharged on the spot, and the men were ordered off the road.

BRIGHAM CITY.

Missionary Send Off—Victims of the Grim Reaper.

Special Correspondence.

Brigham City, Nov. 1.—A farewell meeting was held in the Tabernacle here in honor of Joel Johnson, who will shortly depart for a mission. A fine program and dancing were the features of the evening.

Grim Death claims two more of our citizens. Sarah Wight, wife of Charles Wight, Sr., departed this life Wednesday morning, Oct. 25th, after a lingering illness of consumption. The deceased had been married one year and a half and has one a grief stricken husband and many friends to mourn her untimely death.

Ann Boden died at her home in this city Oct. 31st. She was illness of four weeks. Sister Boden joined the Church with her husband at Aberdeen, South Wales, in 1851. In 1852 she, with her husband, emigrated to Utah. Her husband died on their arrival at Salt Lake City, from a fever contracted on the journey. Sister Boden's sons, who are known as the proprietors of the Boden house, which fell the best in this city for years, were left fatherless at the age of eleven children, six of whom survive her. She also had forty grass children and twenty-three great grandchildren.

HEBER.

Impressive Funeral Services of Mrs. Elmer Clegg—Railway Strike.

Special Correspondence.

Heber City, Wasatch County, Nov. 1.—Today the mortal remains of Sister Clegg were laid to rest in the City of the Dead. The services were held in the Stake tabernacle. The attendance at the funeral services was the largest ever witnessed in Heber City toward at the home of the deceased. For the time the head of the procession reached the Stake house the last of the carriages was leaving the cemetery. The procession was half a mile distant. The two ward Relief Societies headed the procession, followed by the Young Ladies' and Young Men's Mutual. Then the pall bearers with the corpse, followed by some forty vehicles. At the cemetery the Relief Society sisters strewed flowers on the grave, and as they turned the coffin deposited their offerings of flowers on the grave, which the writer counted, one or three layers deep, it was stated to be the largest shown to exhibit the kind.

Service commenced at 1:30 p. m. with the usual order of song and prayer. Bishop Wilson presided. Elders Albert Jones of Provo, were the two first speakers. They both treated the subject of the resurrection in connection with the deceased. John R. Murdock was the other two Patriarchs present, and Bishop Wilson and Bishop Hatch closing with a few appropriate remarks. All the speakers expressed the feeling in which the young men are to be held in the ward.

Jonathan and Elias Clark and wife had their seventy-third years in the ward, and Mr. Clark is 90 years of age. All the leaves behind her a husband and a host of children, grandchildren and nieces and nephews, who will long remember and cherish her memory.

VERNAL.

Old Folks Honored with a Grand Banquet—Politics—News Items.

Special Correspondence.

Vernal, Uintah Co., Nov. 1.—One of the most successful entertainments ever given in Uintah County was that given last night by the ladies of the relief society in honor of the old folks of the county, who are 60 years of age and over. It was a very pleasant affair, and it was a very honor of the occasion had had their troubles for nothing, but he was in no condition to be disturbed. The dance was kept up until 2 o'clock, and a very honor of the old people turned out. No place had been secured to make the affair a success, and it was a cheerful sight to see the old gray-haired veterans seated around the long, well-laden tables, with a crowd of young people and children serving them. The boys band was present and discoursed enlivening music, and a good program of singing, music, and speeches followed the entertainment. The weather proved an entire success, and will long be remembered by the old folks.

Among those present were six members of the old Mormon Battalion, who served in the Mexican war. Their names and ages follow: Harley Moore, 77; Matthew Caldwell, 75; Samuel Bingham, 75; Jesse Smith, 75; Jesse Stoddard, 77; J. H. Oldham, 78. One of these, Matthew Caldwell, was present in Utah when the first Fourth of July was celebrated in Salt Lake City. Jesse Hyde was killed, and was buried in the Indian country, while coming through on his way to Salt Lake City. Mr. Caldwell, who was also present, was married to Hyde's widow, and lived with her a long time. The Indians were very hostile at that time, and Caldwell had a hard time of it.

The Southern Confederacy was also represented in the persons of Mrs. Dan. S. Atkins and her sister Miss Fowler, daughters of General Forest, who served in the cavalry in the war, and who lost his fortune with the south during the Civil War.

There were 4 persons present over 75, 17 over 70, and 37 over 60. The whole thing wound up with a ball in the opera house in the evening.

POLITICS.

There has been a dearth of excitement over the election here, but matters are getting warm, and next Tuesday will probably witness one of the most hotly contested elections for city officers in the history of our town. The issues are purely local, as Democrat on party lines handed here.

MINING PROSPECTS.

Mining claims will continue active. The smelter at Ibex Dear will be started as soon as another out of coke is shipped in, so that a continuous winter run is assured.

There is general rejoicing here when the completion of work at the smelter. Mr. G. H. Cheney will start for Denver early next week to arrange for some additional machinery and the addition will commence at once. Work is already set on the ramp and pieces in sight in the mine if it can only be worked successfully, and the report which has been made to hand is confident of success.

A LIFE LAMENTSHIP.

Mr. C. R. Bartholomew, editor and manager of the Vernal Express, in back issue from Salt Lake City, Oct. 31st, says: "Yesterday the latter place. It was there that Mr. Bartholomew went after his child assistant, Miss Mae Hyde, who persisted in his duties and performance of his job and actions, which we found unfavorable to our and doubtful of a minister's office. It is not to be so doubt but when the publication this Express will be entirely satisfactory.

A MORE EMPHATIC [illegible]

Oh, the Pain of Rheumatism!

Rheumatism often causes the most intense suffering. Many have for years vainly sought relief from this disabling disease, and are luckily worse of than ever. Rheumatism is a blood disease, and Swift's Specific is the only cure, because it is the only remedy which can reach deep-seated diseases.

A few years ago I was taken with inflammatory rheumatism, which became so severe that I was for weeks unable to walk. I used several prominent physicians, but they did me no good. Finally, I was induced to try Swift's Specific, and before I had taken half a bottle I was able to go about on crutches. I continued the medicine until I had taken six bottles, when I was as well as anyone, and have not been troubled with rheumatism since. I have recommended Swift's Specific to many others who have been afflicted with rheumatism, and have never heard of a case in which it did not give relief.
