RUSSIA'S PURCHASE OF SILVER

M. De Witte's Proposal and Bulletin Giffen's Comments on the Same.

Yesterday the News in an interview with a prominent mining man of this city, made mention of a heavy demand by Russia for the white metal. Below is given M. De Witte's proposal, as agreed to practically many months since by the Russian Council of State. It is as follows:

"We have got at present in our circulation five hundred millions of paper rubles, the rate being from one up to five rubles only. We propose to coinage these notes and put coined silver in their place. Seeing that our small-est gold coin is to be for ten rubles (five and a half gold dollars), all the notes of small notes will require to be replaced, as fast as cancelled, by paying out coined silver rubles in the meantime.

"Five hundred million rubles represents about 9,000,000 kilogrammes of silver, an amount about equal to all that is produced by the world's mines in two years. Nor is this all, for Russia we are very short indeed of small change. In silver and copper all told the poor money in use does not a ruble per capita (half a dollar). In Germany the small change in money authorized by law and actually issued is 15 marks per capita, or eight times as much silver as we have. Thus to complete our currency requirements we shall need a further 1,500,000 kilogrammes for our small change purposes."

The styer is to be minted in legal tender for all government purchases.

The injured and dangerous diseases are cured at the Keeley Institute, 165 W. Second North. Arrangements have been made by which ladies receive treatment, secluded as to the privacy of their own homes. Address, in strict confidence, Lock Box 450, City, or W. S. Arnold, Manager.

A New Move in the Right Direction.

Arrangements have been made by the manager of the Keeley Institute of this city by which ladies receive the Keeley treatment for narcotic diseases unknown to their most intimate friends, if they so desire. This is a new feature of this commendable work and one that will give many a woman the opportunity to recover the health that has been destroyed by the injudicious or ignorant use of stimulants or opiates during periods of sickness.

40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

Judge Powers Steps Down.

Judge Powers last evening resigned his chairmanship of the Democratic State committee. In his letter of resignation he said: "In the campaign just closed we have been successful. Wm. J. Bryan has carried the State by an immense majority. Judge King has been elected to Congress, and the Legislature is Democratic as just before I took the chair, which I desired to do one year ago. I resign the chairmanship of our Democratic State committee, and to all Democrats I send greeting."

AMUSEMENTS.

The Prisoner of Zenda engagement closed with last night's performance. Another good-sized audience witnessed the decidedly strong scenes of the play and applauded the splendid work of the principals to the cast.

Herbert Hosmer will be the bill for Friday and Saturday nights at the Theater. The play deals with the political system of Russia, showing the conditions of men and things as they are alleged to appear in the czar's empire.

La Lois Fuller comes to the Theater Tuesday, Nov. 10th. La Lois is the great serpentine dancer who has made quite a sensation in Europe and in the United States. Where we shall get this silver, I am not, of course, in a position to say. We cannot, I regret, expect to establish such a comprehensive reform as this in twenty-four hours. But you see that Russia is absolutely destroyed, in the next future, to be a mighty factor in the settlement of the silver question.

"Remembered, with the Trans Caspian railway, we are reaching out for the trade of Manchuria and Northeastern China; and the trade of all that country to the Pacific can be to be transacted in and with silver."

M. Raffalovitch admits that Russia has been waiting for cheap silver to be brought about by our congress throwing down in the white metal and looking for a "bargain counter" sale of our stock of bullion on hand, and then says:

"I may add that the Americans have lost a golden opportunity during the last two years. Never have the leading Executives of Europe been so shaken in their gold faith as since that world-wide disaster precipitated by the Indian government in 1893. We are, and we have been, open to conviction. But we have looked to the great Republic with no little solicitude to lead the way. Possibly with a new administration we may yet hear from America. Otherwise the prospect is gloomy.

"Yet in view of that poison injected by India in 1893 into the body of the United States still remains to her system, Congressional, look to a very low rate of silver exchange with all Asia, is still a terrible menace to all that America exports. Perhaps worse is to follow. Silver may not improbably fall even lower, and in doing so bring down with it all else—cotton, leather and lard included. The Russians are fortunate in one way—from their offerings, if continued long enough."

A Child Shot.

In the shooting bustle of last night a criminally careless young man who was a member of a gang of roughs that marched down east Fifth South street drew a revolver and opened fire in different directions. One of the bullets hit a child of James Stirling's on the side of the head inflicting a painful wound. Fortunately the injury will not be attended with fatal results. The scamp from Goshen, however, is a very close one.

Elder Allen's Return.

Elder A. J. Allen of Hyrum, Cache county, has returned from the mission state where he has been laboring as a missionary. He left this city on his outward journey Oct. 11, 1894, and while absent has traveled among the people of West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania. His report is that the work is progressing slowly in those localities and that the prejudice which formerly existed against the Mormon people is fast disappearing. Elder Allen has enjoyed his labors very much and returns to his home in fairly good health.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - NOV. 4, 1896.

Garden City Notes.

Monday evening between nine and ten o'clock while the family of Mr. Levi Ovenshaw were away from home in the Fourth ward viewing the decorative torch light procession, some thief broke into the house and succeeded in finding $14.70, which he appropriated. He also took some jewelry among which were some bracelets, chains with heart charms and one plain gold band ring, one set with six white pearls and a pink stone, and one with four white pearls and a blue stone.

Marriage licenses have been received by C. H. Campbell, age 23, and Cynthia Fillmore, aged 18, both of Payson; George Smith, aged 23, and Thora Lotzen, aged 18, both of Lake View.

Contrary to the calculations of many who believed the time would be too short, all the votes who decided to vote had an opportunity. Of 2,269 registered votes 2,102 voted.

The W. H. P. R. case still most interesting evening to the Fourth ward Relief society hall. A lecture will be given by Mrs. Anderson and reading by Miss Bury.

LORNA LINE COFFEE.

Not Made of Nature's Poor Grains—A Pure Food.

The ancient Germans with a sturdy race and sound digestion, lived on the great store of grains in their daily food.

Persons who stick to a plentiful use of grains, fruits and nuts are remarkably cute to keep well. Much toilet or sweets should be avoided by the stomach, as it is too delicate and finally to rot. Tea and coffee make themselves full with thousands of Americans of the present day. They cause dyspepsia, as shown in tale experiments, and then full expiation the cause of the serious disorders which frequently come to end and steady tea and coffee drinkers.

A new drink, called "Postum Cereal," has lately been produced by a medical specialist of the green, and it possesses the important elements of being medicine to locks of the finest Mocha coffee, has a fine, pungent flavor and is easily digested by the weakest stomachs. It is comforting and drink of the most perfect nutriment and tempting even into the dyspeptic and into the convalescent. The modern claim that "Oil makes fat and starch makes fat" is false. It is especially good for the production of a clear calm, through which the coming red blood can come in pink and ready for use. Robust, prudential, charming complexions so much admired in the thoroughly healthy women of such.

"Postum" can be used by the children as well as by the adults, and the coffee become very fond of their "coffee." Postum, instead of being coffee, it is absolutely pure and meritorious, a natural food drink and is made by the Postum Cereal Company, Ltd., of Battle Creek, Michigan.

There is but one genuine original Postum Cereal coffee, with a multitude of imitations offered as "just as good."
