Laramie Boomerang. — About the middle of last March D. Harvey Aitkens of Watford, England, a well known scientist and author of that country, paid a visit to Laramie accompanied by B. Langridge, who registered as of Denver. Mr. Aitken came from England as a representative of English capitalists who, it was known, were forming a company with a capital of $1,000,000 for the purpose of erecting lumber works in Wyoming to work the natural soda deposits in various forms. The movement is now taking definite shape for action.

Idaho Democrat. — Frank Drake was in town Sunday to get cheap cattle from the grasshoppers on his ranch. He reports that they are approaching in great numbers, and the outlook for crops is anything but encouraging. The insects are now small, but the ground is black with them. A ditch on the range catches a great many, and on a careful investigation Mr. Drake estimates that 200 hoppers float past a certain point every hour, but this small rate of disappearance has no effect on the numerous multitude left behind.

Topeka Capital special.—Cottonwood Falls, Kas.—Lerty Jones, 13 years old, left home a few miles northeast of Strong City, during the absence of his parents, on May 28, since which time nothing has been heard from him. His mother is sick from worrying over her son's absence, and anyone knowing of the boy's whereabouts, or a clue that may lead to a knowledge of his whereabouts, will render a favor on his mother, Mrs. Mary L. Jones, by addressing her through the Cottonwood Falls, Kansas, postoffice. He took his horse, a three-year-old filly, with him. The parents do not wish to force the boy to return home if he does not want to come, but only desire to learn his whereabouts. Should he see this notice he will bring joy to his mother's bleeding heart by writing to her.

Butte Journal.—Last Friday evening Joseph Williams, who lives on Gray Rock terrace, Centerville, while returning from the Odeson lodge of this city, and when within a few hundred feet of her home, was accosted by a strange man, who demanded money. Mrs. Williams replied that she had no money, and the highwayman said: "If you don't give me money I will kill you." "There is my husband on the porch of our house," said Mrs. Williams, "come over to him if you want money." The man then went Mrs. Williams a terrible blow in the head with some instrument, which filled her to the ground, and ran away.

Butte Journal.—The jury in the famous damage suit of Mrs. Martha G. Nobles vs. the Butte City Street railway, returned its verdict yesterday morning. The suit was instituted to recover $50,000 damages for injuries sustained by plaintiff in an accident which occurred on the street railway, July 4, 1888. The trial began in Judge McHatton's court Tuesday, May 26, and occupied ten days before it was given to the jury. Attorneys William Scallan and W. O. Speer conducted the case for the plaintiff, while Mc-Bride and Haldorn appeared for the defendants. Every point was ably contested, and the entire proceedings were followed with nothing short of tie the public. The arguments of counsel were exhaustive, setting the facts before the jury as viewed by the side of that. The case was given to the jury at 5 o'clock Friday evening, and they wrestled with it all night. Some of the jurors favored a verdict of $20,000, some for $10,000 and a few argued for a merely nominal sum. The seven finally compromised on $4000, and so reported, and the famous trial was at an end.

Helena Journal.—Five hundred tons of steel rails for the Valley railroad have been received during the past week and work on the road from Helena to the Missouri river is progressing rapidly, and it is thought the entire road will be completed by fall. One of the objects of the road is to carry passengers to a great pleasure resort which is to be established there. R. A. Harlow says the company will construct a fine hotel and run light boats on the river through White Rock Canyon to the Gate of the Mountains and to Three Forks. When the proposed dam is put in to furnish electric power and water for Helena a splendid body of water will be laid at several miles in extent. The undertaking is very commendable and will no doubt prove highly remunerative to the promoters.

It is not proposed that the road will stop at the Missouri river, but will be part of a line to connect Castle and White Sulphur springs.

Sanpete Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Snowflake Stake of Zion was held in the Stake house at Snowflake, May 31 and June 1, 1891.

The weather was quite cold and windy for the time of the year.

There were no visiting brethren with us, nor were there many people from the remote wards. This was chiefly due to the busy time of the year, seat Wednesday and St. Joseph the dates have not yet been repaired so as to get the water out.

The speakers during the conference were President Jesse N. Smith, and Lorenzo H. Hatch, Elijah F. Sheets, W. W. Willis, A. A. Wood, S. O. Cadd, James Lewis, L. M. Savage, A. Minerly, A. C. Farnsworth, W. H. Solomon, W. J. Fish and John Hatch.

Many subjects of interest were spoken upon and much instruction given to the Saints which was calculated to strengthen them.

The Bishops' reports showed the different wards in very fair condition spiritually. Some had suffered from high water and the damages wrought not be repaired in time to raise much of a crop this year.

The general and local authorities were presided and sustained by vote of the conference.

There was a Priesthood meeting held on Sunday evening, May 31, at which some good instructions and counsels were given.

The Relief society and Primary association held their conference on Saturday, May 30.

A good spirit prevailed during the conference and all felt that they had been greatly benefited by attending.

The conference adjourned for three months.

WILD RAISING IN ILLINOIS.

Method Pursued in the Bonnet Mole County of That State.

At your request I will give our way of raising onion, and to begin will say that they have been the most profitable crop kept on the farm. This county (Jefferson) has the credit of being the honest onion county of the state, yet no one breeds them extensively. We buy the sets of farmers one or more at a place to be delivered on a certain date, usually in September, and try to buy those that by good farm and out of our best mass at an average cost of about fifty dollars per load. We subset an acre at the same time as we can conveniently, for the more we have further the more time become quick and satisfied with their new home.

After they have been kept in the barn from three to six days with plenty of grain and hay to reach and begin to get quiet over the loss of their mothers, we turn them to grass in the daytime with a gentle mare for company. It is a wild work seeing who will Tennessee come up at night with a score of these mischievous playing, kicking youngsters close around her, claiming already. They are kept in barn at night with plenty of grain and hay until they are about 1 year old, when we can safely turn them out. Then they are turned to pasture and are no more trouble than any other farm stock if you have a good mule team.

Our plan is to feed strongly during only such food as is produced on the farm the second winter, and then are "farmed out" or hired to worthier farmers conditionally, i. e., that they are to be well fed and cared for, broken to work at 3 years old and returned the following summer. If the conditions are not fulfilled we can go to pasture earlier.

Our next feed thing feds us with a bunch about 24 years old ready for the feed pen. It is best to have a good dry barn for this purpose, as they will not eat stalks so much in a barn and their hair gets in better shape. We keep these feed troughs well supplied with corn, cut stalks, tassels, husks and hay, giving as much variety as we can for about 100 days or longer, and then we are ready for market.

Most of these go to the northern tracks, which swallows up each year's supply with a horror other than the one before.—Ludlow Bunge in Breeders' Gazette.

A Suggestion.

If you are troubled with dissemination or a lame back, allow us to suggest that you try the following simple remedy: Take a piece of flannel the size of your two hands, saturate it with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It will produce a pleasant warmth, and relieve you of all pain. Many severe cases have been cured in this way. The Pain Balm can be obtained from Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

For pure Candies and Confectioners go to Arlington's.

Pneumonia and Bronchitis Carry off One-third of the Human Race.

It is not generally known that Pneumonia and Bronchitis carry off one-third of the human race, but such are the facts, and what is more surprising, both of the above diseases result from neglecting a common ordinary cold. A cough should never be neglected. If it is, every time you catch cold you cough harder, and it sticks to you longer. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best remedy in the world for Pneumonia, Bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. If you have any throat trouble, call for Ballard's Horehound Syrup and take no other. Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution, Agents. 1*

WHAT IS A GUARANTEE?

Many merchants and salesmen are in the habit of indiscriminately "guaranteeing" their wares with no thought of being called upon to make the "guarantee" good. It has pernicious and foolish custom more respected in the breach than in the observance.

A guarantee, to have any value, should be made with knowledge of the meaning of the word and a set purpose to carry out the terms of the guarantee. On this rock the makers instruct us to warrant, and we respectfully feel found imperfect in use.

We have used our best judgment, acquired by a considerable experience, in selecting the following items for our stock and sell them to our customers with an absolute guarantee that if they do not prove to be all that we represent them, we will refund the purchase money in full.
