NEWS OF THE WEST.

One Young Brother Shoots Another During a Quarrel.

GAMBLING, DRINK, AND DEATH.

In California Immigrant Ball Serves as a Lasso—Still Irrigation Disputes, Etc.

A Spokane, Washington, undertaker complained to Judge Oliphant that he had to pay 15 cents per corpse for the privilege.

A lady purchased seven orange trees last week at 50 cents apiece of a resident of Riverside to Pomona, Cal. The freight charges came to 10.50.

The contract for the erection of a new court house at Anaconda, Mont., will be let in July. The building will cost, with furniture, about $90,000.

It is reported that wild geese are causing the farmers in the vicinity of San Jacinto, Cal., much annoyance by eating the young stock.

La Junta, Col., has resorted to legal measures to compel parents to send their children to school. Warrants were issued for delinquent officers, which set the dockets ablaze.

Superintendent Gilmore are to have a Christmas tendered soon. A Catholic society will give a subscription ball. The town will be quite a season of Christmas cheer.

The Immigrant ball Committee of Chico, Nevada, are insisted that there shall be wine at Governor Jones's reception to greet the Shepherd's wives at the California Immigrant Ball and not be deprived.

H. E. Fossett, of Bozeman, Mont., purchased and released the twenty cowboys. Now arresting Miss Packard authorities are round the dismissed while engaged in smoking him in the dark. The wound is not dangerous.

Alexander Mason was found dead in his cabin on Monday evening of last week. He had been blind for a long time, which failed. He was killed in a fifty a year ago and has been working nearly since. Death was sudden at longevity.

L. J. Estep, on Monday, shot and mortally wounded Howard Kennedy, two miles west, on Jump Creek, Jackson. The shooting is considered just between the parties. Estep is a cousin of the wounded man and lives.

Losing his temper in a quarrel, Frank Tyler, aged 15, shot his brother, aged 14, at their home in Jump Creek, Nevada, Tuesday morning. It is the first shot ever fired in the Mt. Shasta settling an argument and remaining the earth. The wound is not dangerous. The sons of the boys intended and parents latter thought.

Operations at the mill mill at the end west of the Colorado River and the company at Needle, Cala., have been resumed on several orders that have lain for some time. In 1894 [illegible] and the outlook for this is better than it was for 1894. Forty [illegible] are now employed at the [illegible] mill, merchant from mills and [illegible].

Union Pass, the six-year-old son of a merchant of Walla Walla, Washington, fell in the bank and [illegible] Lake, a thirteen-year-old boy, who saw a Sunday [illegible] Tuesday afternoon as [illegible] the lake. He says he shot [illegible] but a [illegible] the boy could not [illegible] the drowning. [illegible] a [illegible] examination.

The body of John H. Hurley was found under the ice in a slough near the Kilbourne river at Nampa, Dakota, Monday, Nov. 19, Monday morning. He was last seen the previous Saturday evening at midnight. The boat had been under the ice, which was [illegible] with the body. Hurley was [illegible] and [illegible] William Hurley working for him, who was, that with him. Hurley was accosted on [illegible].

Trouble quarrel between the residents of the Alamosa Irrigation district and the Rio Valley Irrigation company, Col., has broken out anew. Action has been begun in the superior court at Alamosa by A. J. Coates and John L. Moore, on behalf of three of land in the district, for the purpose of having the court decide the [illegible] made by the [illegible] Rio Valley company [illegible] and the lands not [illegible] the district.

The proposed road from Grand Junction to Cheyenne, Wyoming, is one that ought to have been built long ago. It is a shorter route by the Denver Pacific [illegible]. It seems that sufficient money has been [illegible] to assure the construction of the line, and there is no doubt that it will be wild [illegible] a large traffic. It would pass through a country that is [illegible] and capable of development, of supporting a large and [illegible] amount of traffic. It is to be hoped that arrangements will be made for prompt construction.

John Mack has sailed on James Gordon, who [illegible] in a [illegible] to reside near [illegible], Nevada, to [illegible] 9 pounds [illegible] in [illegible] with an order [illegible] Mack [illegible]. The deceased was [illegible] and [illegible] for [illegible] and [illegible] for [illegible] [illegible] Mack [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]