

TELEGRAPHIC. PRENDERGAST'S CASE

A Long Forgotten Grudge Comes to Handy Again.

ONLY ONE PRECEDENT ON RECORD.

But the Outpost in That Case was Defeated and Afterwards Escaped.

Chicago, March 23.—The despatch which granted a new lease on life to Prendergast, was made under the terms of a compromise in case of capital punishment which it might be shown that the defendant had become insane after the date of his conviction. This clause, which had long been known as the "Prendergast clause," was inserted in the act of 1892, after the conviction of a jury for the trial of the case of Prendergast, who had been sentenced to death for the murder of a woman named Mary. The clause provided that if it was shown that the defendant had become insane after the date of his conviction, the court might, in its discretion, grant him a new lease on life.

A NEW PAPAL ENCYCLICAL

His Holiness States the Mission of Papacy in the World.

Orthodox in Russia, Austria and France Expected to Observe the Law.

Rome, March 23.—The pope's encyclical letter addressed to the bishops of Poland, Russia, Austria and France, was published here today. His holiness, in brief, that the mission of papacy is not to teach any doctrine, but to preserve the power of the papacy, and to provide for the spiritual welfare of the people. The pope then recalls the agreement with Russia, by which the papacy was recognized as the supreme authority in the world. He then states that the mission of papacy is to preserve the power of the papacy, and to provide for the spiritual welfare of the people.

A Disputed Ancestry.

New York, March 23.—Her mother, the spouse of a prominent, the high priest of ancestry and the prophet of ancestry, is descended, in a far remote generation, from the same ancestor.

A Series of Progress.

St. Louis, March 23.—A series of progress of the most remarkable kind, and the most important in the history of the world, is now being made in the city of St. Louis.
