

A COZY COTTAGE.

31 CENTS $20.00 and is comfortable, convenient and good looking. Copyright, 1901, by American Press Association.

The floor plan and perspective view herewith presented are of a suburban cottage or small farm house, compactly arranged and suitable in appearance, containing every convenience for a small family. The width is 16 feet, with a projecting bay of 7 feet. The length is 21 feet, exclusive of the front veranda and back porch and patios. The veranda extends over the entire front building. It is 7 feet high in the center, with cement floor, and is lighted with electric light. The back porch is 10 feet wide and 10 feet high in the center. An outside bathroom may also be provided if desired. The first story is 10 feet high in the center. The second story is 10 feet high in the center. The roofline of the front veranda is 10 feet high in the center.

ELEVATION.

Front and back porches are constructed of concrete to last. The porch is provided with an open fireplace, seat and grill complete. The end of the cottage is attached to the main building and is used as a tower, with windows on all sides, which contribute to give it a bright, airy aspect at all times of the year. The story rooms may be separated by sliding doors or partitions.

The porch communicates with the hall in the same section.

The window in hall, parlor and dining room is of red oak. The dining room is of wood filler and two sets of wood preservative, painted, stained. The work of the kitchen is finished with one set of wood filler and one set of the preservative, stained, painted. The main story is 8 ft. 6 in. in the center. It has two good sized windows, two small bedrooms, bathroom and wardrobe closets for each room.

FIRST STORY.

There is also an inclined entrance leading to the attic. The bathroom is divided in yellow pine, the floor in first story of pine, in the second story and attic of spruce, all white woodwork in the second story of white pine, painted in two coats. The attic is finished with the exception of the flooring.

The veranda in front is finished in white pine, with natural finish, and is lighted in the evening, with electric light between the porch. The roof is shingled, the ceiling paneled with beaded white pine ceiling boards. The side walls and roof of main building, tower and dormer are sheathed with natural finish, stained, covered with waterproof paint. The lower story of the main building is sheathed with white pine, with natural finish, stained, covered with waterproof paint. The lower story of the main building is sheathed with white pine, with natural finish, stained, covered with waterproof paint.
