

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The immigrants will probably arrive here on Friday.

Thieves and burglars are driving a brisk trade in Ogden.

Mr. Samuel Ward, attorney for the Utah & Northern R.R. Co., this week bought of Palmer, Mills & Larabee, some 25 acres of ground, on what is known as "the Palmer Ranch," at the mouth of Little Blackfoot, for the depot and yards of the U. & N. Company at that point. The intersection of the U. & N. and N. P. roads will be just below near what is known as Cedar Point.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Dispel the Darkness.—The gas mains are being extended along South Temple street eastward from the Eagle Gate. The query now is with interested parties, when will East Temple street north of this office be so favored?

An Excellent Band.—The 10th Ward brass band, which has been making the air musical with harmonious sounds to-day, played in front of the News office. Under the able tutelage of Prof. C. J. Thomas, the band has made splendid progress.

In Better Health.—We hear from Mrs. Rich, of this city, that she learns by telegram from her husband, Apostle C. C. Rich, that his health has been better ever since his visit to the city, which appears to have benefited him considerably.

The Immigrants.—Last evening President Taylor received a dispatch from Elder George Stringfellow, in charge of the coming company of immigrants. It stated that they would reach Omaha last night. We think it probable that the company will reach here on Friday.

Auerbach and Brother.—F. Auerbach & Brother are out with a large new advertisement, announcing the immense stock carried by this mammoth establishment. Everything in the dry goods and clothing lines can be found there in almost endless variety.

More Speed.—An eastern shipbuilder is constructing a steamship on improved principles, having a double hull, more powerful engines and appliances, with which it is calculated to be able to cross the Atlantic from New York to Liverpool in five and a half days. Scientific men say there is nothing improbable in the idea and if this boat fulfills expectations, a company will be organized to construct a fleet of such vessels.

Stole His Own Baby.—This afternoon somebody telephoned to the police headquarters from Buhring's Gardens, on the State Road, that a man at that place had stolen his own nursing baby from his mother and was on his way to the city with it. The police were requested to intercept and secure him, on account of his ignoring the fact that there was a joint ownership in the blessed baby. He was carrying off the mother's half with his own, a proceeding that could not be tolerated.

We learn that the man, in coming toward the city, handed out the baby to Mother Freese, telling her to take care of it till he called for it. It is a little blue-eyed girl about eight months old. Mother Freese did not want to take it but he insisted and nearly upset his buggy in driving away. He said his mother-in-law was at the bottom of the trouble.

Milton Nobles Coming.—Mr. J. Duke Murray, the gentlemanly business agent for Milton Nobles, is in the city, making ready for the advent of the excellent dramatic company. The engagement will open at the Salt Lake Theatre, on Tuesday, Nov. 21st, and "Phoebus" will be the first drama presented. On Wednesday, "Interviews" will be the bill of fare, and last, but not least, on Thursday, 23rd, "Man of the People" will be performed in the finished and artistic style of Mr. Nobles and his able company.

An Alarming Mishap.—Mrs. Theobald, of Richfield, Beaver Co., just arrived in the city from that place, called and informed us of a mishap that occurred to her on the way. In crossing a bridge between Salina and Gunnison her wagon tipped over and went crashing into a gulch, a depth of twelve feet, the vehicle, team, butter, eggs, Mrs. Theobald and four children being all mixed up in confusion. Fortunately the frightened lady and her little ones were all rescued, escaping in a most remarkable manner with a few bruises. The harness had to be cut before the bewildered horses could be relieved. Mrs. Theobald states that she is greatly indebted to Mr. Rosehart, for his kindness in aiding her, at the time of the accident.

"Rather Coercive."—It appears that Mr. T. A. Lyne and his better half are not identical in their political proclivities. When they got to the polling place, Fifth precinct, he insisted on scrutinizing her ballot, to which she for a time deigned. At last she took out the ticket that was in the envelope, threw it away and inserted a "Liberal" ticket in its place. A Mr. Coulam picked up the discarded ticket from the floor, and found it to be that of the People's Party.

Mr. Lyne is a pronounced "Liberal." Had he been a member of the People's Party and the discarded ticket a "Liberal" one, what a howl would have been raised about women voting "under the lash." It is to the credit of the People's Party that no such incidents occur among them, although it is laid to their charge that the women vote under coercion, a matter of impossibility under the present ballot act, except in such a case as the one in point.

ARTISTIC SCENERY.

EFFEKTIVE WORK BY MR. HENRY C. TRYON.

Mr. Henry C. Tryon, the artistic scene painter, now engaged at the Salt Lake Theatre, is doing some splendid work. The ship scene introduced in "Old Shipmates" caused him at once to leap into favor with the Salt Lake public, and every piece of work executed subsequently has increased the estimate of his ability, being the most capable in his line that ever painted in Utah.

Mr. Tryon is quite original in his style and pays great attention to details. He first conceives the general plan of his picture, and fresh ideas brighten his mind in flashes while at work, enabling him to throw in fine effects, with which the canvases on which he operates is always illuminated. One of the secrets of his success lies in the fact that he is passionately in love with his labor.

One of Mr. Tryon's latest is an old picture, which conveys such a vivid picture of dry, dirty, dingy old mans that it looks as if one could brush away accumulated cobwebs. A powerful effect is introduced by bringing a dash of warm sunlight through an open skylight.

But the best piece from the brush of this genius is a wood scene, the body of which is finished. It exhibits that depth of perspective, combined with intensity of light and shadow that render wooded scenery so attractive, and when the foliage borders are done, to take the place of the proscenium wings and drapery in woodland scenes, the spacious stage will wear the appearance of a forest glade. One of the chief points of excellence displayed in Mr. Tryon's work is the effect of largeness which he throws into it, having the seeming appearance of expanding the stage, making it look larger than it really is.

A moonlight woodland is among the future scenes to be painted by Mr. Tryon, and, judging from the work he has already done, and the scope pointed in such subject, it may be confidently expected to fairly gleam with strong and brilliant effects.

A Contemptible Fraud.—An organized and bare-faced fraud was attempted by the "Liberals" at some of the last polling places in the city to-day. Telegrams from other parts developed the fact that the same trick was being perpetrated in other parts of the Territory. As this indicated a preconcerted plot, telegrams were sent to every place that could be reached by the wires, warning the electors of the People's Party to beware of the unscrupulous deception.

The "Liberal" ticket, printed on thin paper, was of such a size as to admit it nicely into the usual envelope without folding. The trick consisted in "Liberals" placing these tickets inside the envelopes, and, under the pretense of being in the interest of the People's Party, handing these stuffed envelopes to electors on the way to and at the polls. The People's ticket, inserted subsequently by the voter made two ballots in one envelope, one or both of which would, by the judges, in the canvass, be thrown out. In this city the fraud was detected in the early part of the day, posters were placed at the polls advising the electors to examine the envelopes, and a close scrutiny maintained, so as to prevent the prevalence of the villainous trickery. To what extent it obtained in other parts we are enabled to state.

Thieves in Ogden.—Ogden is having its share of depredations as well as this city. The Herald of that town tells the following:

On the night of Saturday last, the residence of W. P. P. St. Clair, agent of the U. P. R. Co., was visited by burglars, who effected their felonious entrance through a front window, ransacked the premises, and escaped through the rear door, their plunder consisted of about $200 in cash and a gold watch and chain. It appears that the same parties had paid a similar visit to the residence of Mr. Barnum, on 6th street, where they abstracted a quantity of valuable clothing.

On Sunday morning, by Mr. Alma Gibson, of Franklin Street, near Fourth, and this gentleman gave the alarm. Mr. St. Clair notified the police authorities, who after considerable search succeeded in capturing two individuals against whom there is said to be conclusive evidence.

Late in the night Mr. G. W. Peck, of Gentile Valley, was on his way to the Chamberlain House, on Fifth Street, and was passing by the Globe Hotel on the corner of that and Young streets, when he felt himself suddenly surprised by a vigorous blow or two skillfully and powerfully directed in his face and on his head. He was stunned and fell unconscious to the ground. When he "came to himself" he not only found himself bleeding from his bruised forehead and cut lip, but also robbed of all the money and valuables he had on his person, about $235 in cash and several checks.

Ladies' Work.—On Saturday a meeting was held at Sandy, Bishop's C. Pres. Andrew Olsen, General Counsel, for the purpose of organizing a Relief Society. The object was effected by Elder Galties, assisted by Sister E. R. Snow Smith, the following officers being chosen: President, Mrs. Wilhelmina Olsen; Counselors, Mrs. H. Wilson and Mrs. G. Lewis; Secretary, Mrs. Maria E. Neff; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Matilda Christoffersen; Treasurer, Mrs. Inge Galties. Twenty members were enrolled.

In the afternoon a Primary Association was organized, Sister E. R. S. Smith presiding at the meeting, Mrs. M. I. Horne and Mrs. E. B. Wells were also present and took part in the proceedings. The officers selected are: President, Miss Maria Lewis; Counselors, Misses Annie Ostler and Maggie Olsen; Secretary, Joseph Magnus; Assistant Secretary, James Osterman; Treasurer, Miss Mary Jane Lewis. The names of thirty-five members were enrolled, with more to come.

The Voting.—At 3:30 p. m. we learned that 1,072 votes had been polled at the County Court House, Second Precinct, up to that hour, in the Fifth, 875. The other two precincts were not heard from.

DARING ROBBERY.

A MAN KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED ALMOST IN THE GLARE OF THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.

On Sunday night, as James Lawson, Jr., was passing down First West Street, almost directly opposite the Continental Hotel, he was suddenly attacked by two men. One of them felled him to the ground by a couple of tremendous blows, and when prostrate upon the sidewalk the other searched his pockets, taking all the loose change on his person and his watch and chain. Not content with this they even took his hat and necktie, and fled.

Death of a Meadowville Man.—Brother John Loftus, of Meadowville, Bear Lake Valley, died last night at the residence of Mrs. Blazard, 14th Ward, from liver and lung disease. The burial will not take place until his relatives are communicated with. He was aged about thirty-four years, and a man of excellent character.

Election at Ogden.—A dispatch from Ogden says:

The election is quiet but earnest. Everybody is out. The schools are closed. Town full of people. Voting heavy and strictly partisan. Up to three o'clock 1,500 votes were cast—presumably ones.

Sunday School Union Meeting.—The meeting was held in the Assembly Hall, Nov. 6, 1892, Assistant General Superintendent George Goddard presiding. Present also on the stand Apostle George Teasdale, resident Angus M. Cannon, and Counselor Joseph E. Taylor.

At 7 o'clock meeting was opened by the singing of the 12th Ward S. S. Choir led by Bro. George D. Pyper. Prayer by Elder John Alford. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. All the Sunday Schools of the City were represented except the 6th, 8th, and 11th.

Superintendent P. V. Williams of the 12th Ward Sunday School reported that they were increasing in all the virtues that belong to the work with which we are associated. They had also made great progress in the art of singing. He paid a passing eulogy on the musical instruction now being imparted to our children by Brother Evan Stephens, and also on the patient and persevering labor of the leader and members of the choir. The whole school always takes part in the singing, song books being placed at each desk before school commences, to avoid confusion. Teachers and children observe the strictest order and quietness during prayer.

They held monthly meetings of officers and teachers on the Sunday preceding our general monthly meeting, at which he not only invited but appealed to the presence of any one present. They intended to change the day to the Sunday following the general meeting. They also had weekly class sessions, and found them very beneficial to the school, each class having a two weeks' notice to prepare. Said they had made a call about a year ago, for all those who had attained the age of eight years, and had not been baptized, to come forth, and twenty-two responded, and recently at another call thirteen more came forward, making a total of thirty-five in about one year. He felt grateful for the support he had received from his brethren and sisters.

The school statistics are as follows at the present time:

Number of officers enrolled, 7; average attendance, 6; number of teachers, 30; average attendance, 16; number of pupils, 185; average attendance, 154. Total: officers, teachers and pupils, 212; average attendance, 170.

Superintendent George Teasdale of Juab Stake, delivered a very interesting lecture on his "experiences in Sunday School." Said he was pleased to see the interest manifested in the Sunday School cause. He took special delight in spending much of his time with a class of the smaller children, over 100 in number, of four years old and upwards, being very susceptible of correct impressions, made specially interesting to their young and tender minds by the aid of picture representations. They had good theological classes taught by competent teachers; his assistants and some of the teachers were members of the High Council. President of Elders and Seventies, Quorums, etc. A more extensive review of his lecture will appear in the Juvenile Instructor.

Assistant General Superintendent Goddard said for many years he had held a double position in relation to Sunday Schools, the Stake and also Assistant General Superintendent of the Territory, and owing to the great increase of schools, he found it impossible to do justice to both positions, and after consulting with the General Superintendent, George C. Cannon, he tendered his resignation at the First Ward meeting on Saturday last, as Stake Superintendent, and Elder John C. Outler was appointed to fill the position.

John C. Outler arose and said that on Saturday last he had been called upon by President Angus M. Cannon, and sustained by unanimous vote of the Priesthood to fill the place vacated by Supt. Goddard, and although he felt himself incapable of so efficiently managing that calling as his predecessor, yet having been selected, he would endeavor to discharge his duties to the best of his ability. He then nominated Elder Thomas E. Taylor as his first assistant, who was sustained by unanimous vote of the meeting.

Asst. Supt. Goddard expressed an earnest desire for the formation of a brass band in connection with the Sunday School Union, composed of young men who observe the word of wisdom, and would be pleased to see any who contemplated joining it at Bishop Hunter's office. At our recent concert, held in the Tabernacle, he felt thankful to state that, after all expenses were met, and a reasonable remuneration to Brother Evan Stephens for his services he is rendering to our children, there was a net balance of $400 for the benefit of the Sunday school Union.

Supt. C. G. Griggs read a list of prizes offered by the Union, which has already been published in the NEWS, for the best musical composition, poems and sentiments adapted to Sunday School use, amounting in all to $200.

President A. M. Cannon said he would like to make a few remarks before the brethren were set apart. In entering the South Gate of the block he saw quite a number of small boys smoking cigarettes that gave him unpleasant reflections, and called upon the superintendents and teachers of Sunday Schools to labor with the boys to abandon such habits, that the blessing and favor of God may rest upon them.

John C. Outler was then set apart by Apostle George Teasdale, assisted by other brethren, to fill the position of Superintendent of Sunday schools of Salt Lake Stake.

Thomas E. Taylor was set apart by President Angus M. Cannon and others as first assistant to John C. Outler.

Brother Geo. Reynolds said there was a vacancy in the publishing committee, occasioned by the absence of Geo. C. Lambert, now on a mission, Abraham H. Cannon had been appointed to fill the vacancy, at a meeting recently held by the officers of the Sunday School Union. He also stated that owing to the liberality of the Saints in patronizing our concert, it was decided that the same spirit of liberality be manifested by the Union. They therefore proposed to supply gratuitously those schools who need music cards, and respectfully asked the Stake Superintendents of Sunday Schools throughout the Stake of Zion to ascertain the wants of each school and forward the number required to Levi W. Richards, D. S. S. U. Secretary.

Meeting was adjourned till the first Monday in December, the 13th Ward to furnish doorknockers and singing; also Aubrey's music club. After singing, benediction by Supt. Arnold Glaugue.

WM. McLAUGHLIN, Clerk pro tem.
