BIG DISTANCE FOR A LICKING. "Poor Jack Palmer." It is a far cry from Longacre to Los Angeles, and an awful distance to come for a trouncing. What's puzzling some of us is to know what the English lad was traveling on. No matter how big they may talk, most latter day fighters know just about where they fi into the scheme puzlistic, and it certainly looks as though Palmer must have had some inkling in regard to his own class, or lack of it rather. Well, it disposes of Palmer, and it causes the spotlight to dance around Twin Jack's bald pate like the St. Elmo glare around the truck of a storm tossed ship. And it seems to create a desire for a Mike Schreck-Gunner Moir event if we can only entice the gunner across the pond. THREE ARE IN THE FIELD. Coffroth, Roche and Gleason Must "They're all nodin', niddin', niddin', noddin'," says an old song. In San Francisco, just at present, "they're all biddin', biddin', biddin', bid-

ROCHE WENT $2,000 BETTER. Along came Billy Roche, formerly of Cherry Hill and now a full-blown native son, who decided that the bout was worth all of $21,000 and who places $5,000 in the writer's hands to sweeten his bid. Roche thinks that the green fields of Colma would be the best setting for the light-weight championship event, and he pur-poses making an open affair of it on the afternoon of the Fourth of July, if the match comes his way. Roche was called by Jack Ghason, the baseball man who offered $40,000 for the contest. When other offers began to roll in, Rick-ard let h be known that he had named his limit, that his first bid was his hat. This leaven the field to Graney, Roche and Gleason. Whether they will flourish their checkbooks and continue to bid furi-ously against each other remains to be one.

their checkbooks and continue to bid furi-ously against each other remains to be seen. Thill there is a reasonable prospect of the highlers agreeing upon the terms of a second contest all this bidding may be regarded as so much by-play. True, the only question at issue just now-thanks to Gan's easy going method of conceding point after point-is one of weight, but it is in such shape that there is small chance of an agreement. Two of the men who have made bids for the contract-Rickard and Roche-have let it be known that they will not do business with Billy Nolan. They say that if Nelson cares to entertain their offers he must employ another maager, at any rate for the time being. It may be that the Dane will refuse to depose his manager at the suggestion of the match handlers. Nolau may have ren-dered himself objectionable to certain sporting men who have to do with fist-cenfies, but so far as the financial end of its concerned, he has been a pretty good plot for Nelson. It may not be amiss, however, for the Battler to advise Nolan to tame his stub-born pride a wee bit. Nolan is too fond of exclaiming. "What I say I mean," without stopping to consider whether what he kays or what he means is fair and sportsmanike. Through making in-rulate demands and refusing to be hudged, he has earned the sobriquet of "Stonewall" Nolan and hes made himself the most unpopular man in the Queens-herry game. As already said, the present points in

As already said, the present points in ispute between Nolan and Selig, who is a charge of the Joe Gans bureau on the "actific coast, is the weight. It is a boint on which the public is deeply in-erested and a matter in which the pub-le has rights. Nolan insists that Gans aske 122 pounds at the ringside in full ighting regalla. If Gans agrees to such erms the fight will be either a fake or farce and, as an attraction, wouldn't be worth thirty-seven cents, let alone thirty-farce and, as an attraction, wouldn't be orth thirty-seven cents, let alone thirty-even thousand dollars. It won't do to say that Gans made the eight at Goldfield. He did it in des-eration, and he didn't know he would e forced to weigh in ring rig until a few has before the fight. He was as lean s a desert coyote when he stalked from is conner, elad in his paper slippers and is china slik clout, and the chances are his corner, clad in his paper slippers and his corner, clad in his paper slippers and his china sike clout, and the chances are that what stood to him hest that Septem-her affermoon was the fact that Melson was also weak at that weight. We all saw the bottle of beef tea that the bat-iler partook of so eagerly when he scheged from the scales just before the contest began, and I have always shought that Nelson through the whole of the Goldfield campaign buoyed him-self up with the argument, "Til be weak, but he'li be in a worse yickle still." After the fight Gans said: "They'll never catch me in a trap like this sgain." In the face of this, if Joe be-sins to act as though he might be in-duced to knock under to Nolan's stud-boraness, I for one would be interested to know what any same, sincere promoter ronsidered the "attraction" worth. My Beloved Friend: It is a pleasure for me to congraidlated you on the great success attending your school. I have not the words to fully express the great Joy and happiness I have received through your one of my defective speech. I stammered from the age of four years to bearly twenty-seven years, and I always stammered very badly and could not speak without great effort and at times it was impossible for me to utter a sound. I believe that I was one of the worst stammerers you ever saw. I was under your treatment four weeks and I never stammered on the word after my first lesson. Your treatment is such that an intelligent child of eight years can comply with all your instructions. Oh. I wish the affinited stammerers would readily believe the truth of your statements, they would floak to you to be cured of their ar-filtetion. I will gladly answer any stammerer who may write to me concern-ing your school and your success, for I am indeed an affectionate priced to the stammerer I am yours very respectfully. OSCAR PETERSON. Keep Your l'erve

It is nerve energy that runs the organs of your body. The storage battery is the nerve cells in the brain and spinal cord, and from this battery nerve force is sent out through the system of nerves. To keep the body healthy you must have plenty of nerve force; if you nave not, the organs work imperfectly, the circulation is sluggish, digestion bad, appetite poor, kidneys inactive, and aches, pains and misery are the penalty.

You can keep the system strong with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It assists in generating nerve energy; it strengthens the nerves and makes the whole system strong and vigorous.
