WATCHES JEWELRY

ABOUT three months ago all the watchmakers in this city agreed and subscribed to certain prices for work in their line, for the purpose of obtaining uniform and Cheap Rates. This agreement, however, has already been broken by several watchmakers, who are undersselling their colleagues and thereby proving themselves untrue to their written word. In consequence of which, the undersigned has withdrawn his name from said agreement and established his own prices, cheaper than any other Watchmaker's in Salt Lake City.

BRUTAL OUTRAGE.

Women and Children Assaulted by Strikers.

FALL RIVER, Mass., 17.—By far the most shameful outrage of the strike, was committed by the strikers this afternoon. Some French families, comprising between 70 and 80 men, women and children, were brought here to-day from Canada. They have never worked in cotton mills, and are to work at the Stafford and Crescent Mills. The company were divided into two parties, one was taken to the Stafford mill, the other to the block on Davis Street. It was subsequently decided to remove the latter party to the house in the rear of the Crescent mill, some few hundred yards away. The party consisted of two men, besides the agent, who brought them here, four women and the remainder of young boys and girls from eight years of age downwards. As the party came out on the street, they were hooted at by a crowd of women and children and some men, and a few stones were thrown. To make the shortest cut, they took what is known as the Stone Crusher lot, where they were assaulted by a crowd of 150, mostly men. Rocks were thrown at them in perfect showers, and one of the men named Bouche was so roughly assaulted that a man who witnessed the whole affair said he did not expect to see him come out of it alive. He was severely kicked, and bruised by a stone. One woman, with a babe in her arms, was knocked down and kicked. A little boy, about seven years old, was struck on the face, and all the children were stoned as well as the older persons. The party separated and ran in different directions, which broke the crowd and they dispersed.

Police were summoned and with officer Hill and the whole of the District police, who happened to be near by, were on hand in a few moments, but the alarm was given at their approach. The district police are already known by the disturbers.

Three of the assaulted party got separated from their friends, but one is reported to have been found with some old acquaintances in another part of the city. More indignation is expressed by the citizens at this outrage than all the others that have occurred, the cowardly assault on women and children stirring the feelings of every good citizen. No arrests.

Soldiers' Reunion.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, 17. — The Presidential party arrived here from Cleveland and were met by an enthusiastic crowd, many members of the President's old regiment being present. Walker L. Campbell, of the Register and Tribune, delivered an address of welcome; the President responded briefly.

The procession will form about one o'clock and march to the grove near town, where speeches will be made by President Hayes, Gen. Sherman, Gen. Saunders, Gen. Kennedy, Dr. McCurly and others. The decorations are beautiful and very profuse.

A pleasing feature of the reunion was the presentation of a beautiful flag to the 23d Regimental Association by ladies of the regiment. The procession was very imposing. Gen. Sherman being called for, made a brief, felicitous speech, alluding to events of the war, and congratulating them on its successful conclusion, and the results which future years will make manifest.

At the conclusion of Gen. Sherman's speech, the line of march was resumed. Having arrived at the grove, the President, in response to an address of welcome, made a speech, in the course of which he dwelt on the gratifying revival of business here, and then discussed the question, "What did the War settle?" He quoted Mr. Lincoln in extenso respecting the State rights theories to show that his mind comprehended the danger of the claims of Southern States, and that his lips frequently denounced those theories and claims. President Hayes also quoted George Washington's words of Sept. 17th, 1787, sent by letter to the Constitutional Congress in New York, setting forth that it was obviously impracticable to secure independent sovereignty to each State, and yet provide for the safety and interest of all. He drew the conclusion that the disputed question had at last been settled by the war. He held that the constitutional amendments were equally settled by the civil contest and must stand. He said there had, however, been attempts at nullification of the Fifteenth amendment in certain quarters. The colored men must have a free ballot or they would leave the States where it was denied them. The whole country suffer through the oppression of them. Let the settlements of the war in favor of equal rights and supremacy of natural laws, be faithfully accepted and finally enforced, and harmony and wonderful progress will follow. He predicted a happy future for the country, and said, "What a glorious result we have! All of the United States of America, Maine, Texas, California and Florida, all living in peace, quiet and order, enjoying everything which nature gives, under the protection of a common law, a common government." [Applause.]

The Butler Democratic Convention

WORCESTER, 17.—The following resolution was adopted by the convention:

Recognizing a general desire of the people, not bounded by limits of national party divisions for a change of administration and the production of wholesome public reforms in the state government, not reasonably to be hoped for from the powers now in control through whose neglect or more active fault the people have become convinced that such a change is demanded by a prudent consideration of the political welfare of the State, and in the belief that all citizens who concur in this opinion may consistently and wholly adjourn to another election, when Federal officers are to be chosen, their contentions as to measures and principles of national concern, and confine to the pending election the securing in State affairs the object of the common desire, we, for these ends invite all who entertain like sentiments to make common cause with us on this home issue, and we adopt and endorse the candidacy of Benj. F. Butler, of Lowell, for Governor, in confidence, and in assurance of his public pledge, that if elected, he will, so far as he shall have official strength, endeavor to bring back the government of the commonwealth to efficiency, economy and justice to the people of all classes, which characterized the earlier days of the republic.

A committee was then appointed to present the names of nominees for the balance of the ticket, after which a recess was taken.

Before reassembling, the committee on resolutions presented the following, which was unanimously adopted:

First—That the democrats of Massachusetts reaffirm this devotion to the time-honored principles of the democratic party.

Second—We recognize at this juncture in the affairs of our party, the fundamental democratic maximum, of the right of the majority to rule, and we deprecate and condemn any bolt.

Third—That we sincerely regret that a portion of the democracy during the last year have refused to be governed by the decision of the majority, but we earnestly and cordially invite them to re-unite with us.

Fourth—That the coming election being for State officers alone, we deprecate all discussion in this campaign of national issues.

Fifth—We demand rigid economy in expenditures in all municipal and State affairs, and the abolition of all sinecures.

Other resolutions denounce the State administration, demand the regulation of corporations for public good, equitable taxation, no convict labor to compete with free labor, simplified registry laws that shall not restrict voters, and the repeal of the law which requires payment of taxes as a prerequisite to voting.

The committee on credentials reported the convention the largest and grandest ever held by the democrats of Massachusetts. Seventeen hundred and twenty-three delegates were present, representing 19 cities and 319 towns.

Disastrous Fire.

BOSTON, 17.—A shocking calamity occurred to-night at a fire in a three-story tenement house in South Boston. The house was occupied principally by Germans, nearly all of whom were asleep at the time. The fire broke out in the rear portion of the lower story, and made such rapid headway that before those in the upper stories could be scend, all avenues of escape were cut off. Several were burned to death and others badly injured. It is not yet known what is the full extent of the calamity. Mary Hildredth was burned to death; her husband was also badly burned. Ferdinand Mayruth jumped from the roof of the burning building, and was killed; his wife Emily, aged 23, jumped from the third story window with her son; the woman had her leg and arm broken and was otherwise injured, the boy was badly hurt in the spine. The body of a man who has not been recognized, but is supposed to be Christian Fifer, was found in the ruins. A young woman and two children, known to have been in the house at the time, are missing, and are probably burned. Of those who are dead three are burned to a crisp. Mrs. Mary Gillespie, sleeping on the lower floor, was overcome by smoke and will die. The damage by the burning of the house is about $8,000, supposed incendiary.

Steamer Burned.

ERIE, Pa., 17.—The lake steamer George S. Frost, Capt. Welcome, was burned to the water's edge to-night. Loss $8,000, insurance $1,000. The cause is presumed to be a tramp who got aboard to sleep during the absence of the boat officers.

Yellow Fever.

GREENVILLE, Miss., 17. — The doctors have decided that yellow fever is at Concordia, and trace the infection to Memphis. Three new cases reported. One hundred and fifteen persons remain in Concordia unable to get through shotgun quarantine.

Memphis, 17.—Nine new cases reported to-day.

GREAT BRITAIN.

THE AFGHAN WAR.

Another Version of the Outbreak.

LONDON, 17.—A sergeant, with some more of the escort of the British residency, has arrived at Ali Kheyl.

The military authorities have received information tending to show that the frontier tribes have partially interrupted communication between Khyber Pass and Cabul.

Khurshi, about 40 miles from Cabul, will be reached by the British in a few days and be converted into a rallying point for all the chiefs who may elect to join the British.

The Indian officials telegraph further details of the attack on the British residency at Cabul. It is related by the trooper who escaped that when the mutinied troops were making the outcry for their pay, a soldier shouted, "Let us kill the envoy and then the Ameer" The mutineers then rushed upon the embassy and stoned some of the servants. The troops composing the escort of the embassy fired upon the mutineers without orders from the British officers. The mutineers then went for their weapons. They were absent about a quarter of an hour, during which time the British officers might have escaped. The residency was defended from windows and from a trench made on the outside, with a mud roof. A letter sent by the escaped trooper was from Lieut. Hamilton, promising the mutineers six months' pay. It was sent at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when the mutineers were already on the roof of the residency, which was just being set on fire. The bearer of the latter was thrown from the roof and made insensible. When he recovered he was brought before Gen. Kehrim Khan, commander of the mutineers' brigade, who said he was powerless against the mutineers, and ordered the trooper to be imprisoned. On revisiting the residency, the escaped trooper saw the bodies of Lieut. Hamilton and Jenkyns stripped and cut to pieces.

The Governor of Jellalabad is organizing resistance to the British.

A strong force of Afghans has been sent to Kushi to check the British cavalry advance in that direction.

European Notes.

The new ironclad turret ram, Agamemnon, carrying four 38-ton guns, and 8,492 tons burthen, with engines 6,000 horse power, was successfully launched to-day.

Cross, the Home Secretary, in answer to a letter recently received from the Mayor of Middlesborough, asking for government assistance on account of the distress occasioned by the depression of trade, has written that gentleman regretting he has at present no funds for that purpose, but saying that he will lay the letter before Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Numerous sensational reports of an attempt on the life of the Sultan are current. On Wednesday a man, believed to be insane, tried to force his way into the garden of the palace, and wounded three soldiers. He was seriously wounded himself in the struggle.

The Novoye Vremya announces that the Minister of War is considering the subject of the colonization of the Chinese frontier by Siberian Cossacks.

The Berlin Tribune says: At a visit of Bismarck to Vienna, Germany and Austria will conclude an agreement mutually guaranteeing each other's territory.

The Manchester Guardian says that until the scarcity begins actually to be felt and not threatened, it is not likely the short time policy at Oldham will have any marked effect upon demand or prices. The deficiency in supply of cotton, now being painfully realized, means ultimately a deficiency in supply of yarns and cloth cotton.

The operatives at Leigh have struck against the five per cent. reduction of wages, and the masters threaten to close the mills, alleging they can buy goods cheaper than they can produce them. The masters at Ashton refused an interview to the operatives. The self-actor winders are the main strength of the strike, and would resume work if notices of reduction of wages were withdrawn, if only for a month, the question of reduction to be then discussed if trade had not meanwhile improved.

Gen. Skobeloff will command the expedition against the Turcomans instead of Gen. Tergukasoff.

The Czar is in perfect health.

A correspondent at Blackburn says: One of the largest firms of agents in Lancashire have taken, the past fortnight, more orders for American cloth for India, than they have received, during the same period, for all the English firms which they represent.

The Sovereign mills, at Preston, have closed for an indefinite period, the hands refusing to return to work. Several Preston mill owners announced their intention to close the mills the next three months.

Prince Lobanoff has gone to Alta by the Czar's orders. He will have an important mission to the Porte. It is rumored in Vienna that he has succeeded Gortschakoff.

As Count Von Beust is anti-German, and the Austrio-German alliance is almost concluded, he has resigned. Count Wilpffen will succeed him.

It is now rumored that General Lazaroff was poisoned by a servant who had been bribed by the Turcomans to do the deed.

Tender-Hearted Russia.

A Constantinople dispatch says: Russia has directed the attention of the Powers to the recent conflict between the Mussulmans and Christians in Eastern Roumelia. She blames the Porte for sending back refugees to their homes in a destitute condition, and points out that if further disturbance should occur, the Porte would sacrifice the right of sending Turkish troops into Eastern Roumelia.

Stringent rules are published to be observed by the university where lectures have just begun. The students are forbidden to belong to societies of any kind or to hold meetings or complain or orally disapprove of existing relations.

The Abyssinian Trouble.

King John, of Abyssinia, writes that he has written to Queen Victoria complaining that the outlets from his territory are closed by the Egyptians. He says General Kirkham, an English general in his service, was poisoned at Massowh, on his way to England with letters to the Queen.

CANADA.

Hurricane.

MONTREAL, 17.—A severe hurricane passed over the city to-day. A large freight shed on the wharf, belonging to the Allen Steamship Line, was lifted bodily, and in its descent was completely wrecked. Of 20 men in the building, all escaped, but two were badly bruised.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Boat Race.

HALIFAX, 17.—The race between Smith and Morris, 1½ miles and turn, was rowed this afternoon in the presence of 5,000 spectators. The water had a slight ripple, but was in good condition. Morris won the toss and took the inside course. At 6.10½ the word "Go" was given. Morris took the water first and led the first half mile, then both spurted. Smith gained; and, turning the stake boat a few seconds ahead, led all the way down and won by two lengths; time, about 21 35
