Academy and SchoolOpening-Young Couple Elude Parental Opposition.

Pocatello, Idaho, Sept. 17 .- The public chool opened Monday with the largest attendance in the city's history. Every room was crowded and then there was not room enough. The old Trinity Hall has been rented and will be used to accomodate the seventh grade, and it is quite likely that still another room will have to be provided. There are now over 900 pupils en-rolled and this number will probably be increased to a thousand or more in a few days.

ACADEMY OF IDAHO.

Idaho's new educational institution located in this city by the last legisla-ture and known as the Academy of ldaho, opened its doors last Monday for the first time to receive students. The building is not quite as near com-pleted as was hoped, but three rooms are practically finished and the fourth soon will be ready for occupancy. The desk and seat furniture was also de-layed a few days and is just being put into place. Owing to these hindrances, Prof. Faris has decided that it would best to postpone the entrance examinations one week and hold them be ginning next Monday. It is believed the enrollment will exceed half a hun-
