

This thermometer registered 100 degrees at 3:30 p. m. today.

Bartholomew D. Stewart, of Ogden, is to be released from the penitentiary on Thursday next, the 9th inst.

There is a very strong probability that the Deseret Land act will be repealed before Congress adjourns.

This spirit of celebrating still lingers in the Fourth Ward. A large number of the people of that Ward have gone on an excursion to Calder's farm today. The affair is under the auspices of the Sunday School.

An indication of the great number of sheep now in this part of the country, a sheep man informs us that eleven large flocks were driven across the Jordan over the Sixth Ward bridge on a single day last week.

We understand that considerable quantities of bees-wax are used for fabricating certain portions of the machinery of smelters and reduction works, and that in consequence of this demand the price has risen considerably.

Those old eye-sores, the piles of tin cans, etc., that have so long been permitted to disfigure many of the streets of the city, were being removed today, in accordance with a resolution given by the City Council to the Street Supervisor last evening.

Our local saddle and harness makers report that, in order to procure leather from either eastern or western sources from which they are compelled to order 30 days before they need the goods, in order to secure a supply, so great is the demand for leather. This state of things should afford a boom for our home manufacturers.

Swarms of wild bees are frequently found in the timber in the mountains of Sanpete county, some of them having great quantities of honey stored in the hollow trees in which they have settled. These bees are the progeny of the swarms of tame bees that have flown from apiaries, as there were no wild bees in Utah a few years ago.

Messrs. Pratt and Beebe, who sprinkle the drive, complain that bugles and other vehicles often follow immediately in the wake of the water wagons, not allowing a few minutes for the water to soak into the ground. As a consequence the wheels of the offending vehicles are made muddy, and the road is less smooth than it would be otherwise.

We received a call to-day from Mr. T. G. Woodmansey, who represents the firm of Wm. Rees & Co., of Cincinnati, O., who manufacture the celebrated Montclair cook stove and range. Mr. W. has just returned from a successful business trip to Montana and Idaho. He will remain in town several days attending to store business, etc., and during his stay he can be found at the Continental.

It is pretty well settled that the incident fire at Arbeck's Bros., whose sale coffee house, which occurred Sunday evening, and which might easily have become a disastrous conflagration, originated from a lighted cigar stump, dropped into a box of sawdust used as a cuspidore, and which smoldered for some time, at length bursting into the flame that drew the watchman's attention.

POLICEMAN J. B. BURT lost a valuable horse on Saturday morning. The animal strayed from his premises in the Twenty-first Ward and has not been seen since. A reward was paid for its return. The horse was dark bay or brown, five years old, left hind foot white, branded K with half circle over it; had a halter on when last seen; there were also some wounds on the neck and left shoulder, made by barbed wire.

Topeka Teachers' Meeting.—Teachers, superintendents, trustees, and members of their families can obtain certificates (whereby tickets can be bought) of H. Huse, Jr., Utah representative for the Topeka Teachers' meeting. He can be found at Parsons' book store, Salt Lake City. E. H. Anderson will attend to the same matter at Ogden.

The entertainment consists of the temperance drama entitled "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," and the farce of "Tara Him Out." Price of admission: Adults 25 cents, children 10 cents.

A New Enterprise.—Jeremy & Co., of this city, have had built at Lake Shore a schooner of 100 tons burden, to carry salt for their works on Indian Road Point to Lake Shore. It has made one trip, but was not so successful as they desired, as it took water badly. They have had some necessary improvements made, and the boat starts out on her second trip today. We wish the owners success in this venture, as it will be a great aid to their salt business.

Police Court.—This forenoon, in the police court, for being drunk, disturbing the peace and disobeying his parents, Charles Cox was fined $15. He pleaded guilty to all of the foregoing charges.

F. T. Smith, for being drunk and profligate and for disturbing the peace, was fined $15. He made no defense, simply trying matters by pleading guilty as charged.

John Olsen, an ordinary drunk, was fined the traditional V.

On Hans Rogneser was served in the same manner for the same offense.

Ferry's Literary Journal.—The number of this popular home magazine for July is out, the contents being worthy of special notice. The frontispiece is an excellent engraving of Lake Martha, in the Cottonwoods, the work of our local artist, Mr. John Field, from a painting by Mr. Alfred Lambourn, which is further described in a pen sketch by Apostle Moses Thacher. One of the best series of articles on the "Persecutions of the Early Christians." Moroni L. Pratt tells about a journey "From Liverpool to Salt Lake City," a narrative of the trip of the last company of European Saints; "How I was Educated," "New York Newspaper Reporters," and other interesting matter combine in making a good number of this worthy publication.

SPANISH FORK ITEMS.

The multi-clubed Spanish Fork, Utah, has made five unsuccessful efforts to obtain flowing wells in the Court House grounds. Sinking to the depth of about 100 feet, the shafts have been abandoned, on account of striking the substance, which, though they were unable to drive with a heavy spike driver.

About a week ago Mrs. Kate Davis met with a very serious accident. While the driver of a buggy, one of a buggy, the horses started up, throwing her to the ground and severely injuring her spinal column. Her injuries were attended to by Dr. Pike of Provo, and the lady is now on a fair way to recovery, and is being cared for by her many friends on her narrow escape from more severe injuries.

On Friday next there will be a test between two rival reaping machines on the farm of Mr. John Hopla.

Each Sunday, the Spanish Fork, Utah, has a large gathering of people, and the Spanish Fork, Utah, has a large gathering of people, and the Spanish Fork, Utah, has a large gathering of people.

The citizens of Spanish Fork are having trouble between themselves in relation to water, and some parties are threatening to take the case into the courts, while the more level-headed are willing to arbitrate the matter amicably.

The notorious Craig women are still living here undisturbed, although their atrocities are still fresh in the minds of the people.

Utah Road.—The work on the wagon road, extending from Price Station on the D. & R. G. in Castle Valley, Emery County, to a point of intersection with the road running through the Strawberry Valley to Ashley, is completed. The new road intersects the Strawberry road at a point about 30 miles from Ashley, and is about 80 miles long. It has been constructed by private enterprise entirely and is a work of great importance and advantage to all the white settlements of Utah County and to the Oray and Utah Indian Agencies, as it virtually places the whole of Utah Valley from 40 to 70 miles nearer a railroad station than it has been heretofore. The parties to whom credit is due for this important public benefit are Messrs. George Goss, U. Chambers, R. J. McIntosh, S. H. Gilson and their co-owners of the Glendale mine near Ashley.

The object in constructing this road was to open a way for the shipment of the product of that mine. As soon as the waters of the Du Chene river have receded, a bridge will be constructed across it, when the hauling of Glendale to Price station will commence. As soon as this bridge is built it is expected that this route will become almost if not more the exclusive one between the Utah country and the outside world, as it is so much easier to travel, and so much shorter between Ashley and a railroad point than any other.

Caught.—"Nosey Banks," whose real name is J. C. Martin, and who escaped from the Penitentiary last Monday evening, did not long enjoy the comforts of liberty this time. He was captured during yesterday forenoon. It was known in the Marshall's office that he had made his way to town during the night, succeeding his escape, and that he had been seen and recognized on the street. Hence there was felt considerable anxiety that he would be recaptured, especially in view of the $50 reward offered for him by the Marshall. Last Monday night "Nosey" took a room at Whittemore's hotel near the Central depot, and was seen in it during the rest of the night and until late yesterday afternoon. The officers traced him to his hiding place, and Deputy Franks made a search of his room and of the premises, but "Nosey" eluded him, and Franks went away. A little later, however, Mr. Whittemore and his bartender discovered the fugitive, who seems not to have left the premises. The marshal's office was notified by telephone, and officers were sent in response, who took "Nosey" back to the Pen. He appeared to take his recapture quite cheerfully.

Death of Bishop Crane.—With profound regret we learned, to-day, of the death of Bishop James Crane of Herriman, the sad event having taken place at about half past one o'clock a. m. Tuesday.

Deceased had been a sufferer for about nine months, from a lingering disease. The immediate cause of death was dropsy, accompanied by symptoms of heart disease.

Bishop Crane was one of the most sterling men we ever knew. He was unflinching in his fidelity to the highest convictions of his conscience, and steadfast in the discharge of his duties as a bishop, husband, father, neighbor and citizen. When such men as he lay down their earthly labors and pass away the loss is great indeed to those who remain, and the members of his bereaved family and ward have our most sincere sympathy and condolence.

The funeral services were to take place in the meeting house at Herriman at noon to-day. We anticipate being furnished with fuller particulars of the life and labors of Brother Crane.

Pardoned.—Yesterday Governor West extended executive clemency to Wilford Halliday, who had served three years and six months of a five years' term in the penitentiary, having been convicted of cattle stealing. His term would have expired in six months from now. His representations to the Governor were very strong, consisting of a petition from numerous solid citizens of Kanab, and an application from Zera Snow, who prosecuted the case. He was also recommended for pardon by ex-Marshall Ireland, Warden Dow and others. He has been a "trustee" and faithful worker at the "Pen" for a long time. We believe the action of the Governor to have been well grounded, and hope that Halliday will show his gratitude for the clemency for which he is pursuing a proper course of life in future.

Several Boys Hurt.—On Monday, a boy named Edler went to Fort Douglas and got a number of cartridges. It is not known how he managed to get them. He went there to town and put them in a fire he had made and left them for a few moments. Several other boys came along and stirred up the fire, when the cartridges exploded. One of the boys was struck in the left eye, which was very badly injured and may have to be removed. The other boy was injured in the face; a missile cutting near the mouth lodged in his cheek. Both patients were taken to Dr. R. B. Pratt for treatment. Another boy was struck on the knee. There were four others injured, but not so seriously. The Edler boy had distributed some of the cartridges among several other boys.

Tax performance at Senor Aldo Gine. called the "South American Wonder," consisting of a variety of athletic exercises, given at Lake Point on Monday, is spoken of highly.
