

TOKIO MAY HAVE MARTIAL LAW.

Cabinet Ministers Present an Official Statement to Mikado Explaining Its Necessity.

AN ANTI-PEACE RESOLUTION.

Declares Fruits of Victory Have Been Forfeited and Seeds of Future Complication Sown.

Tokio, Sept. 11, 8 p.m.—In accordance with established usage, the cabinet ministers have presented an official statement to the mikado explaining the necessity of instituting martial law at the capital and at the same time asking the imperial judgment as to whether they should remain in office or retire. The emperor's reply, which was made today, advises them to retain their respective posts.

ANTI-PEACE RESOLUTIONS.

Tokio, Sept. 11, 7:30 p.m.—A mass meeting at Osaka passed the following resolution without hindrance on the part of the police:

"The peace that has just been concluded between Russia and Japan forfeits the fruits of victory and sows seeds of future complications and danger. The government's high-handed and unconstitutional measure has resulted in unexpected disturbance to the peace of the city in which the mikado resides. The empire's honor has been violated and the safety of the constitution lost. Now has our country been brought to face greater dangers. Therefore, be it resolved, that we hope the humiliating peace agreement will be broken and the government will resign."

PRIVY COUNCIL SESSION.

Tokio, Sept. 11, 6:30 p.m.—The special session of the privy council today lasted four hours. No bill was presented, only a report from the cabinet ministers, Premier Katsura making an extended statement of the peace negotiations.

According to the constitution, a treaty with other powers requires to be submitted to the council before ratification. It is unusual to hold a special sitting for simply making a report on the peace negotiations, but the Japanese seem to indicate any general anti-foreign or anti-Christian feeling. The former was quite incidental and the latter due to sporadic antagonism to the Russian church and some native Christians.

Opposition political parties have appointed an extensive committee to fully report on the affairs, alleged to have been caused by the police during the recent rioting. The Progressives and their local branches continue to pass resolutions against the government. The Shiba branch condemns the government's assumption of the power to make war by executive decreeing it to be wholly unconstitutional. Quite, however, prevails in Tokio.

CHIEF OF POLICE RESIGNS.

Tokio, Sept. 12, 10:30 a.m.—The resolute resignation of Gen. Iwao, chief of the metropolitan police, is handed with delight here as showing the conciliatory attitude of the government.

The Jiji and other local papers advocate the abolition of the metropolitan police and the transfer of its authority to the municipality. The use of such an independent institution, it is believed, died out long ago under the constitutional form of government which now exists. This peculiar institution was originated at a time when rebellion against the early Meiji government was apprehended.

A swaying of the present political system is now deemed necessary by citizens of the more thoughtful class.

During the night, the dispatches say, incendiary bombs were laid in Bishkek, the small boats being driven off by volleys from the Cossacks. They then attacked steamers in which the employees of two oil companies had taken refuge during the uprising, but the attack was repelled.

The rebels succeeded in setting fire to three machine shops in the Uotsukin district, killing the proprietor of one.

In the "Blacktown" district the patrol fired a volley into a crowd of Russian workmen, but the rebels had been dispersed, but the patrols are acting energetically in suppressing disorders.

After a conference of oil men here yesterday, at which dispatches from the oil regions were compared, the representatives of the various companies summarized the situation in the oil districts as follows:

A few wells belonging to other English companies have been saved.

Society of Baku—A third of its property destroyed.

Gold Company—Half of its property destroyed.

Other large companies, including the Caucasus, Rothschild, Mantaschoff, Sherboff and Soboloff, saved only small portions of their properties.

ARMENIAN IMMIGRANTS.

Hundreds Gathered in Turkey to Be Deported to This Country.

Boston, Sept. 11.—Advices have been received at the local immigration office that Armenian immigrants, numbering 100,000, had been deported to Anatolia, Turkey, and thrown into prison to be deported to this country. The prisoners, it is said, are all returned emigrants, some of them having gone from the United States to seek luck as miners. While the Armenians refuse to return to the country, however, it is understood to be more conservative. Six newspapers have been suspended. Martial law probably will continue for some time, thus insuring quiet. Meanwhile the legation guard of 12 soldiers will continue."

A DEAD MAN STEERED THE SCHOONER SAFELY TO PORT

A Japanese Held the Wheel of the Schooner Charles Levi Woodbury After His Death.

Honolulu, Sept. 5.—A dead man held the wheel of the schooner Charles Levi Woodbury during several hours of the night of Aug. 29, after the crew had deserted. He was a Japanese member of the crew, and died clutching the wheel. He was found still holding it and the vessel, though greatly damaged by a hurricane, which is supposed to have caused his death, was nevertheless steered safely in safety.

The Woodbury was in the schooner for which the United States tug Iroquois recently left her to search, when she was long overdue from Laysan. It was found that she had put back, after a terrible experience. Capt. Harris, of the Iroquois, said that the Japanese vessel was swept along at the rate of 9 knots an hour without a stitch of canvas on her. He gave up hope of saving her, and said goodbye to Capt. Schlemmer of Laysan, who was the passenger. He had knocked a hole in the deck to clear of water, and oil was poured into the ocean. The schooner ran for five days and nights helpless in the gale without the captain being able to take an observation by either sun or moon or stars.

The Japanese did complain of feeling unwell when he took his place as steersman and he asked a companion to stand by him for a time. No one saw him die. He was found dead and stiff, holding the wheel as when alive, and face toward, but his hands held round the vessel was holding her course fairly well.

PAUL MORTON OUTLINES EQUITABLE LIFE'S POLICY

New York, Sept. 11.—President Paul Morton outlined the policy of the Equitable Life Assurance Society in an address which he delivered at Manhattan Beach today to 750 delegates of the society, who come from different parts of the country.

After briefly reviewing recent events in the business, Mr. Morton said:

"I am going to say a few words to you on your new administration. There will be no attempt to make it dazzlingly brilliant. The effort will be to make it honest, courageous and progressive.

There will be greatest consideration for the policyholders, and at every turn their interests will be protected. All of the new directors are policyholders. Businesslike methods will prevail. The more economy of the right sort we can institute the more we can save to the policyholders. Investments will be of the highest character."

The institution will not be run as an adjunct to any one or several banking houses. Every owner of securities will have a chance to deal with us, and our aim will be to do it very much at the lowest prices. The cheaper the society can be properly administered, the better we can invest our earnings, and the better showing we can make, the easier will it be for agents to sell insurance.

I want to see the insurance business removed as far as possible from politics. I believe in proper laws safeguarding the sacred trusts of insurance, and I will co-operate in the enactment of any necessary laws that will end in the best service to all who enter the business of life insurance on the elevated plane it ought to occupy."

"The new management of the Equitable will insist on an annual audit of its affairs by an unbiased and independent accountant. There will be no attempt to deceive anybody, not even ourselves."

"Retrenchments are the order of the day."
