WASHINGTON, 31.—The Secretary of the Treasury has increased the builton fund of the Denver mint to $120,000, and authorized the purchase of silver by the assayer in charge, in lots of less than $10,000 ounces. Fernando Wood has proposed to Secretary Sherman as compromise in the matter of 3; per cent. by which a 3 65 bend shall be issued, to be known as a 10.40 bond. The French government officially disavows any intention to set up a protectorate on this continent, or to guarantee or protect or in any way make itself responsible for or on account of the plans of M. de Lesseps in the negotiations for the building of an inter-oceanic canal. It regards M. de Lesseps as an eminent French citizen, but his plans on the Isthmus have no political color or significance.

The Indian appropriation bill appropriates in the aggregate $4,493,-645, which is $219,533 less than the TEST TRAPLEST. appropriation of last year. The principal items of decrease are for the Red Cloud and Spotted Tail Sioux, namely, 95,000 pounds less than last year; Yankton Sloux, 15,-000; industrial schools, 10,000; expenses of Indian commissioner,

New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts having raised $10,-000 for a monument in commemor-ation of John Stark's victory at Benaington, Va, over the British under Gen. Baum, on the 18th of August, 1777, petition Congress for a national recognition and appropriation of $20,000.

Gov. Pitkin, of Colorado, to-day, completed his testimony before the House committee on Indian affairs. It related to fires set and depredations committed by the Indians in Southwestern Colorado, and to the injurious effect upon mining settlements along the border of the reservation occasioned by changed relations between the the whites and Indianssince the recent outbreak. He was also examined as to the character of the lateAgent Meeker. In reply to inquiries, Gov. Pitkins said he favored giving land in severalty to Indians in Eastern Utah, throwing open the Colorade reservation to settlement by whites and giving the Indians everything realized from the sales of the lands of their reservation. Senator Blaine to-day celebrates his 50th birthday. His hair has become quite grey, but otherwise he looks younger and stronger than he did four years ago. Senator Don Cameron left Washington, last night, for Harrisburg, to remain there until after the con-Exhibition at Yorktown, Va., and Exhibition at Forktows, va., and said the State department would, in correspondence with the French Government, make a strong point of its importance and the earnest desire of the U. S. Government that the French will take an active and hearty part in the ceremonies.

Most of the governors of the crisis. oat of the governors of the original 13 States have appointed com-missioners to represent them in this matter. A programme of nevel and varied features has been already suggested which will be enthusiastically worked up. A formal invitation will be sent to the French government to participate in the ceremonies, and the French Society in New York are now in correspondence on the subject. It is understood the descendants of Lafayette will attend. A French fleet and at least one regiment of French troops are expected. One week is to be set aside for the recention and en are expected. The suit of the Manufacturers and Merchants' Bank against Louis GUNS, PISTOLS Levenson, to recover $34,000, the amount alleged to have been stolen from the bank by means of a conspiracy between the defendant and a bookkeeper named J. R. Hawes, resulted in a verdict for the bank FISHING TACKLE, for the full amount claimed with interest. Hawes lost his share of the money stolen playing "policy" and buying lottery tickets. The faithless bookkeeper took the stand and told the whole story of the robbery. A striking incident of the trial was the charge made by the defence that the plaintiff had bought for $1,500 from the counsel of the defendant a document deemed necessary to the successful prosecution of the suit.
