

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTER.

Correspondents writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must be mentioned in full, and their communications must be accompanied by their names and addresses, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—"Cinderella" increases in interest and attraction every night. Last night it was again received with the most appreciative applause. The closing scene is the finest we have ever looked upon, though we have seen more gorgeous ones, but none more chaste and truly beautiful. Mrs. Schell's German song, given in the third act, drew a most hearty encore. Mrs. Careless also received an encore in the same act. This spectacle will be repeated again to-morrow. Everybody who has not seen it should by all means go and admire its beauty and numerous attractions.

GONE EAST.—Bolivar Roberts, Esq., left by stage last night for Sweetwater, to attend to business in that region.

REMARKABLE.—Yesterday evening the gathering clouds indicated a fall of rain; and a gentle sprinkling fell shortly afterwards. This morning there was a couple of smart showers.

STARTED.—Elder John Abbotson gave us a parting call to-day as he was starting on his mission. He goes to the terminus by Nalabitt & Hindley's train.

ALL WELL.—By letter received this morning from General H. B. Clifton, New York, we learn that he and his wife are all well, but kept busy. When the labors of the immigration are through, they will enjoy a return to their home in the mountains.

THE FOURTH.—We have received the following notices of the 4th which are too old for publishing in full. Bro. C. W. Stayer, of Farmington, informs us that there the Sunday Schools walked in procession, forming at 9 o'clock in the morning. At 10 o'clock, meeting was held at Miller's grove, and a pleasant time was spent; reading the Declaration by Capt. James T. Smith; an Oration by Col. A. Stayer; songs, speeches, music, toasts, sentiments, etc., being the exercises. At 1 p.m. they had a picnic in the grove, and a dance in the afternoon and evening. Committee of Arrangements, General Lot Smith, Philander Brown, Elias Vanhook, John Leavitt and David Hess. Charles W. Stayer, Chairman.

At Mill Creek the Sunday School children, numbering about 200, met in the new Ward House at 9 o'clock, a.m., formed a procession under the direction of the superintendent and teachers, and marched with appropriate banners and mottoes to Spring Lake Farm picnic grounds, where the day was spent to the best advantage, dancing, swinging, boating, etc., until the hour for returning, when they again went to the Ward House, where the enjoyment was kept up until a proper hour for closing, when they were dismissed wishing for another Fourth to return. Bro. John R. Holt furnishes us the items.

KILLED AN EDITOR.—The St. Joe Union records the killing of B. W. Boyer, local editor of the Grand River News, by W. A. Hundley. There had been some difficulty of a political nature between them, and some remarks made by Boyer in the paper angered Hundley so that he sought Boyer where he was sitting in a dry goods store, and deliberately walking up within three or four feet of him, drew a revolver and fired, the ball entering the left breast and killing Boyer instantly. The murderer fled instantly and succeeded in making his escape.

SEVERE.—The Virginia Trepas of the 19th says: "A Roman of this city received today a letter from Rome dated July 10, and it came to New York in 17 days, and thence to Virginia in 13 days. This is rapid traveling indeed, especially for mail matter."

"Especially for mail matter" is "the unkindest cut of all."

"HONEST LAGO!"—In Cheyenne last week, two policemen disappeared, to one of whom, in his character of "Guardian of the laws," a "fair but frail" partner of the keeper of a dancehouse had intrusted $2,300 for safe keeping. These two honest "policemen," thinking, probably, that if the money were returned it might be put to good use, took leave of absence with it and forgot to say where they were going. Their friends (if) are now enquiring for them.

THE IMMIGRATION.—The following telegram to President Hayes has been cordially responded to:

New York City, July 15.

Brigham Young:

Five hundred emigrants, by the Minnesota, left here this morning; seven hundred, by the John Bright, leave to-morrow.

Very respectfully,
H. B. CLIFTON.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.—We were favored with a visit yesterday afternoon by J. D. Hogue, Esq., of the United States Exploration of the Fortieth Parallel, who courteously furnished us with the following interesting items:

The U. S. Geological Exploration of the Fortieth Parallel was authorized by Congress about eighteen months since. It has for its object the topographical and geological examination of a belt of land about one hundred miles wide, in a north-south direction, and stretching across Nevada, Utah and Colorado, lying generally along the 40th parallel of latitude, but with particular reference to that section of country which will be traversed and developed by the Pacific Railroad. The party under the general charge of Clarence King, Esq., Chief Geologist, comprises three or four geological assistants, five topographical assistants, a botanist, zoologist, photographer and other attaches, numbering in all about twenty-seven men, besides a cavalry escort of twenty.

The proposed route of the work inside not only carefully detailed maps showing the topography and geology of the region under examination, but a general description of the natural features of the country, the botany, zoology, meteorology, its agricultural and mineral resources, and the state of development already attained in these departments.

The party commenced work more than a year ago in the western part of Nevada, and have completed the survey as far east as the meridian of Austin, and are now prospecting towards Salt Lake City, which will be the eastern end of this year's work, and which they hope to reach some time in October.

The majority of the party will pass the winter in the East, returning here in the Spring to resume and carry on the work across the Rocky Mountains as far as the 104th meridian, which is the eastern limit of the survey.

At present, the party is in the only place, as far as the main party. The development of the mining regions occupies the most of the attention, and they are going down to Colorado, which is the main part of the survey, to make a general examination of the country, and to make a general description of the natural features of the country, the botany, zoology, meteorology, its agricultural and mineral resources, and the state of development already attained in these departments.

is moving eastward in three parallel lines, and the results of their explorations and observations are not only highly interesting, but of great value to the people of the West. The geologist of the party, a young gentleman excellently qualified for his position and an enthusiast, especially in ornithology, has already forwarded to Washington the description and drawings of several species of birds hitherto unknown, and has exploded opinions entertained regarding some other species supposed to exist, but which are members of known species seen at different seasons. The survey is a valuable one, and we hope will be as successful as the most sanguine can desire, and we wish Mr. Hogue a pleasant sojourn while in our territory.
