The Semi-Weekly News.

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Robert L. Parrish, tourist, is wanted at police headquarters, where there is a telegram from H. L. Garrett, informing Parrish that his father is dead. The Barber's union buried Ben G. Reiffert yesterday in the city cemetery, from Hall's undertaking rooms. Reiffert had been a member of the union and had many friends. Peter Fotes, bartender in a Greek saloon, near the Rio Grande depot, was arrested yesterday by Patrolmen Brown and Smoot for selling liquor on Sunday. He deposited $100 bail.

The Veteran Firemen's association will ask the city council for a 21-year lease of 40 feet of ground north of the association's hall in Canyon road. The firemen will park the land, if leased to them.

The fire department was called to a building at 23 West Third South street at 7:30 yesterday morning by a conflagration no more serious than a smoking stove. Some passersby had become excited.

Maj. H. P. Myton has returned from his trip to San Francisco, which was for the purpose of assisting Marshal Heywood and the government in the deportation of a son of the celestial kingdom.

A barn on the premises of Orson Trueman, 536 West 34th South street, was entered by burglars last Friday night, and about $50 worth of clothing taken from a trunk that had been stored there.

George A. Hammond, a drill expert, in the government employ, has been ordered to make his headquarters in the city. Mr. Hammond test foundations for irrigating dams, and has been working in Arizona.

The Relief societies of the Liberty, Pioneer, Salt Lake and Ensign stakes are arranging for a big excursion to Saltair on July 25. It is proposed to make the excursion a notable one in Relief society outings.

The Rev. Shousaku Baba of Osaka, Japan, is at the White House. He is a Presbyterian clergyman and has been in this country for two years, resting and studying the ways of Americans. With true patriotism, he seems only victory ahead for the Japanese.

Emery Ward was buried yesterday in Mt. Olivet cemetery, from his late residence, 46 West Seventh South street. Rev. Benjamin Young conducting the services. The deceased was formerly deputy warden in the state prison, and had resided in Salt Lake for 25 years.

The family of George Ellmore of American Fork are fearful lest the mangled remains of a young man found near the railroad track at Ogden may have been his. Ellmore was in Idaho, and wrote home that he would beat his way south on freight trains, sending his trunk ahead. The trunk arrived all right, but its owner has not appeared.

Chaplain John T. Axton made an excellent address yesterday morning before the prison society of Christian Endeavor, and was attentively listened to. Miss Grace Davis, the eloquentist, was also present, and made a very acceptable talk, and Miss Campbell sang a soprano solo. The attendance on these meetings includes half of the prison population.

The Twenty-ninth infantry will have to carry on belt day exercises without the assistance of the artillerymen. Aug. 1 next, as the artillerymen are in the St. Lawrence country. A great feature of the day will be a baseball match between the Twenty-ninth infantry team and a Salt Lake team. Lieut. Beebe has been working hard with the soldiers in preparing for athletic contests this season.

ORGAN CONCERTS BY TELEPHONE.

A Great Musical Experiment Now Under Way in the Big Tabernacle.

THE WHOLE WEST MAY LISTEN.

In Event of Success Persons May Sit in Their Homes Far and Near and Listen to Classic Programs.

The customary large attendance was present at Saturday afternoon's Tabernacle organ recital; but the audience occupied the body of the house instead of the galleries, as the Bell Telephone company was using the rear gallery for experiments. The management of the company has had in mind for some time the idea of so installing phones in the Tabernacle auditorium that concerts given there may be heard over the wires in different parts of the great west; and in this the company is having the co-operation of the Church authorities and how the apparatus proved so sensitive and there was a jar and a blur. However, resistance coils may be found necessary to make the sound more distinct and pronounced. It is thought it may be necessary to suspend two or more phones like arm lamps, in front of and at a distance from the front of the organ, and equipped with large megaphones facing the instrument. But the electricians prefer to try other methods first. Another test is expected to be made at tomorrow's recital. Saturday's program was well received, especially the William Tell number. Mrs. Viola Pratt Gillette was present and enjoyed the occasion, and the organist played several special numbers for her afterwards. He also played a manuscript composition by Herr Ernest Urchs, the Steinway representative now in this city, and who is noted for his close resemblance to Edward VII. Herr Urchs' composition did him marked credit. It was written in a reflective, meditative vein, varied in movement, and meritorious both in melody and harmonic treatment. It showed a philosophical mind as well as a musical scientist, and excited the admiration of the listeners. There will be another recital at 5:30 p. m., tomorrow.

EN ROUTE FROM JAPAN.

Mrs. Featherstone and Miss Dyer Will Arrive Here Next Week.

Elder Joseph E. Taylor received a letter from his son Alma this morning, in which he states that Mrs. Marie Featherstone, wife of one of the Elders now laboring in Japan, sailed from Yokohama for home on the 16th inst., accompanied by Miss Dyer of Washington, D. C., who has become much interested in "Mormonism," and who will visit here for some time. The ladies are due to arrive in this city sometime between the 25th and 30th. Mrs. Featherstone returns home because of the condition of her babe, born in Japan April 6 last, and whose health has not been the best in that country. Elder Taylor reports the missionaries doing well there.

THE WRONG SIGN.

Perhaps some of the colored citizens who were recently members of a certain funeral cortege are still wondering what the appearance caused so much amusement among the passersby.

There were two funeral cars in the procession, both heavily draped in mourning. The first carried the body in the casket, and the group about the mourning relatives and friends. The solemn effect, however, was marred by a broad white mourning sign stretched across the front of the car which the company had forgotten to remove. In bold, black letters was the startling announcement: "We are going to shoot the chutes."

ART TALK.

Jesse Lewisohn of New York is a discreet and learned collector of pictures. The other day he was conversing with Robert Henri, the painter.

"Art galleries and exhibitions," Mr. Lewisohn said, "are interesting places to haunt. I wish I had noted down all the old comments I have heard in them. I think last week I had been to a young woman from the country in a Fifth Avenue picture shop. One of them called the other's attention to an atrocious animal piece.

"Two dogs, after Landseer," she read from the frame, "I can see the two dogs, but where is Landseer?" "The other young woman studied the painting closely.

"Where is he?" she said. "I guess this must be one of them puzzle pictures."

POTTED PLANTS. To have success with indoor potted plants it is an absolute necessity to keep them clean. At least once a week they should have a thorough sponging with lukewarm water to which a small quantity of ammonia is added. Wash stems and leaves carefully both on top and underneath.

SUNDAY IN THE CITY CHURCHES.

Chaplain Axton Talks of Religious Conditions in the Philippines.

MAKES SOME GRAVE CHARGES.

Says the Padres Are Astonishingly Immoral—The Deplorable Social Relations of the Masses.

Philippine Congregational church was crowded last evening, on the occasion of a very interesting talk from Chaplain Axton of the Eighteenth Infantry, on religious conditions in the Philippines. The speaker called attention to the fact that the Philippines included a territory as large as the state of Texas, and their importance as a missionary field could hardly be overrated. The padres are immoral, but this is so little thought of that women are proud to have children by them, and names are given the children suggestive of their paternity. A point was made of the avowedness of the native priests who charged all they could get for the most minor offices. Women would stand for hours in the heat with their babies waiting for the convenience of the padres to baptize them on payment of a good round sum, and it was the same where parents wished to bury their dead. For marrying, the charges were so high that hundreds of couples could not afford it, so took to living together without any formal ceremony. When the Americans took charge of the country, the army chaplains had their hands full in marrying such people. Chaplain Axton said there were 500 teachers in the islands now, of whom 1,000 were Americans, and he never knew of a woman teacher to be molested, though some of the men teachers have been killed. The work of the various evangelical denominations was described, and the fact was mentioned that each denomination had its own territory, so there was no conflict between churches. The work of the Christian churches are being established everywhere, but there is an enormous field yet to be occupied. Truly, the harvest is plenty, but the laborers are few. The relations between the American Catholic clergy and the protestants are pleasant. Chaplain Axton said a great deal in a very short time, and was heartily listened to. At the close of the service he was warmly congratulated.

THE PROBLEMS OF LABOR.

Ballot Box, Says Rev. Richelson, Is the Means of Solution.

Rev. John Richelson preached last evening, in the Westminster Presbyterian church, on the workingmen's problems and Christian duty, recommending political action for the protection of labor and the enforcement of better industrial conditions. Many sufferers under the present economic and industrial systems are without the pale of unions of any kind, so that the political aspect of the labor problem therefore includes a greater class than that included in the unions. The present industrial system stands indicted, as it makes the rich richer, and keeps the poor poorer.

The service of capital has been to organize and direct labor. But the reward is out of all proportion to the service. It has planned industry, but it has enslaved the wealth producers. "The ballot is given to us," the speaker said, "if there is any inheritance from the past, or any hope for the future, the lesson brought to us today is that the coming contest must be written on ballots and not in blood. Those who are to be benefited by change in industrial conditions must stand firmly and unflinchingly for the purity of the ballot."

The speaker entered at length on the description of conditions existing in the body politic during the present time.

ITALIAN MARTYR.

Dr. Pinkerton Tells of the Life and Death of Savonarola.

Rev. Dr. T. W. Pinkerton spoke last evening, in the Central Christian church on Savonarola, the Italian martyr. Dr. Pinkerton said, "He that sketch of Savonarola's life which was highly interesting, as well as a description of the political peculiarities and degeneracies of the day. In concluding Dr. Pinkerton said, 'He that is prophet today may be outlawed tomorrow. They who spread their garments in the way today and cry 'Hosanna' may tomorrow be with those who cry 'Crucify him.' The people of Florence soon forgot Savonarola. A sermon he preached reached the pope and in May, 1498, he was condemned to die. As the bishop was removing his priestly robes he said to Savonarola: 'I separate you from the church militant and the church triumphant.' 'Not from the church triumphant that is beyond your power' he replied. The fire was kindled and his sufferings were soon over. Thus passed the heroic soul to God."
